Dear:

It was recently called to my attention, by your phone call to me of September 25, 2000, that you were concerned about one of the members of our province, in regard to your son, [REDACTED]. First, I wish to thank you for coming forward. It takes a lot of courage to take such a step. It is most appreciated, as it is the only way we are able to address such problems. Second, I would ask that you put down in your own words exactly what transpired so that we may take care of this matter, whether such would entail appropriate therapy, transfer of assignment, or otherwise.

Thank you again for coming forward. You will certainly be remembered in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Rev. Richard H. McGurn, S.J.
Executive Assistant
