no word from Bishop. Test completed. Today on writes again started to look at his life at how busy he was & how he had no time for himself. Suffered a lot of anxiety. Regret shredding sexual autobiography. 3 funerals since last week - hard to play dead.

in parks - substitute - can't even w/ servers alone - always is someone else there or he leaves secretly.

Start to be on guard about being misperceived. As surprised at how many parks he's supplied this year.

Start to be at home when friend plays Santa Claus. Don't fear hell's coffin but doesn't want to be misperceived.

Didn't realize how busy he's been - maybe running from problem, denial, workaholic. Surprised he had to stay busy every hour of the day.

Woke up at 4:15 - got up

Strang - nothing really - parents, friends, sex w/ women - no kids. Erections, wants to masturbate. Streams of confrontation - challenging someone or being challenged but no emotion comes from it.

More changes in past few years than in past 20. Shifts gear a lot. Feels his thwarting friendship by avoiding people.
