NIGERIA

Dear Father McGuinness:

This will acknowledge your letter of January 16, 1973 regarding Rev. James Creaton, Pastor of St. Anthony Church, San Jacinto.

The exact date of Father Creaton's death was July 28, 1964 and the cause of death was listed as a heart attack although Father was swimming at the time.

I knew Father quite well and wish to assure you that during his years of service in the Diocese of San Diego he was an exemplary priest.

I trust this information will assist you in keeping your records.

Faternally yours in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. I. Brent Eagen

Rt. Rev. & dear Msgr.,

Rev. Fr. James Creaton, Pastor - as far as I can recall - of St. Anthony's Church, San Jacinto, who was drowned tragically, R.I.P., once worked in the above Institute. I am anxious to know the exact date of his death so that I can insert it in the Annual Diocesan Calendar. His relative sent me a Memorial Card after his death, but unfortunately it was lost during the Nigerian War. I have unavailingly sought the help of one of his Classmates in Maynooth College; hence my letter to you.

Praying every blessing on your own good work,

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

J. C. McGuinness

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the repeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeatable message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeatable-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines.
2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any event the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of each message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Except as otherwise indicated in connection with the listing of individual places in the filed tariffs of the Company, the amount paid for the transmission of a domestic telegram or an incoming cable or radio message covers its delivery within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, is not operated through the agency of a railroad company, within two miles of any open main or branch office of the Company; in cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, the telegraph service is performed through the agency of a railroad company, within one mile of the telegraph office; in cities or towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants in which an office of the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will endeavor to arrange for delivery as the agent of the sender, with the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge from the addressee and agrees to pay such additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee. There will be no additional charge for deliveries made by telephone within corporate limits of any city or town in which an office of the Company is located.
5. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in the case of any message except an intrastate message in Texas where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission, and in the case of an intrastate message in Texas the Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within ninety-five days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued; provided, however, that neither these conditions shall apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purview of Section 415 of the Communications Act of 1934.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the Company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, except to rebuttal by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to the foregoing terms.
9. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Reverend and dear Father Creaton:

It is gratifying to have your courtesy of July 22nd and to know of what consolation you afford your devoted mother. It is edifying to read in your letter how patiently she has suffered through the years and we all know how these dear mothers offer up that suffering, especially for their children far and near.

It is a joy to anticipate a visit to Ireland -- always for me a spiritual stimulant, especially to observe the churches filled on week days even when it is raining outside. That is the faith that has helped to spiritualize this diocese.

Please convey to your mother and the members of your family my triple blessing.

Your Excellency,

I wish to express my gratitude to you for allowing me to spend the month of July with my mother. She has been a partial invalid for eleven years and is most grateful to you for my visit. My mother has been very restricted in her movements - she needs help for even a short distance - but she is always in good spirits. Her sight is good - a great blessing. She reads a lot. She eats well and enjoys visitors. She is further blessed with a very devoted daughter who takes great care of her.

My stay at home has been made doubly enjoyable by wonderful weather. I hope it will continue for Your Excellency's visit.

I remain Your Excellency
Very gratefully and Sincerely
Rev James Creaton.

Dear Monsignor,

About six weeks ago His Excellency gave me permission to be absent on vacation for the month of July. I mentioned this to you on June 12.

Fr Henry Keane of Redlands has Fr Denis
Meehan from Ireland staying with him
for July and would be kind enough to lend me his assistant Fr B. O'Sullivan for the month. If this arrangement would meet with His Excellency's approval and if Fr. Brendan O'Sullivan could be appointed Administrator for the month from June 30 to July 31 I would be most grateful. and would request that you be kind enough to send Fr Keane or Fr O'Sullivan a letter to this effect.

Dear Father Creaton:

Even though you are on the eve of departure, let me hasten to thank you sincerely for translating your thought of me into your gracious letter of August 16.

Thanks be to God for your dear mother! What you write about her encourages all of us. She symbolizes the grace of God and the valiant woman, ~~the~~ joyful mother and Our Divine Lord's ardent lover -- all in one. Please bless her for me and assure her of my deepfelt affection.

Dear Father Creaton, you have also done good work in making the needs of the Diocese known.

If you should see the Most Reverend Bishop Hanley, please convey to him my respectful greetings.

You come very much to my mind because this very day an "itinerant" Jesuit came my way and inspired me to exclaim: "You are my man, please take this beautiful assignment in San Jacinto." Well, he accepted it up to September 2, which is better than nothing. I have no anxiety, however, because we can easily carry on from September 2 to September 6, the time when you plan to arrive home.

Be assured that a cordial welcome awaits you.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully your servant in Christ,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy,
Bishop of San Diego.

Aug 16 1957

Your Excellency,

I wish to thank you for your kindness to me
at all times and especially for allowing me to spend this Summer with my mother. It
makes her very happy to have the exile home for a while,
and I can assure you it
makes me very happy to be with her. She is 75 years.
It is now almost ten years since
she had her first stroke which affected her whole right side. She has had two others since that.

Her recovery from all three has been remarkable. Though her balance in walking is poor
She can move around as long
as she has a solid balance
to lean on but two steps
without a wall a chair or
a helping hand is too much
for her. She sleeps, eats, speaks,
reads and washes the dishes
and does all these well and that is her life. She can ride
good distances in the car without tiring. She stays with my married sister and enjoys
the company of her children
grand children that should read.
My Sister and brothers are very good to her.

I wish to further thank you for promising to Dr Bartholomew
a replacement <sup>at St Anthony's</sup> from Aug 25
to Sept 6th when D. V. I hope to be back in San Jacinto.
I am indeed grateful for this
further kindness.

The Most Rev Bishop of Elphin
Bishop Hanley sends his greetings to you. He has been kind enough to allow
some more of the Mercy
Sisters to go to your Excellency's Diocese where they will open <sup>with your permission and help</sup> and this school next September (58) (for Dr Minnagh). I also think the Medical Missionaries of Mary could be interested in an old people home - with an eye to a hospital in the future -

in Riverside if such would meet with your Excellency's plans for the diocese. Their foundress, Mother Mary Martin, will be in the United States in the Spring. She is very grateful to you for the help which you
gave to her new hospital in Drogheda, where her Sisters will be trained. I have not seen anything like it anyplace. It is a magnificent
and most modern hospital.

I think this is somewhat long so I conclude

Your Excellency,

Before I finish
my vacation with my people,
I want to tell you how thankful
I am to you for allowing me
this period with my mother.
We have had a wonderful
Summer and it has enabled
me to get my mother out
for a number of drives to the sea-side and elsewhere. It has meant a lot to her as she walks so poorly that she

feels she is being an inconvenience

Dear Bishop Hanly:

Although the undersigned Bishop advised Father James Creaton to accept your recent offer without hesitation, he expressed a preference to remain in this Diocese. We do have an acute shortage of priests.

During the four and one-half years that Father Creaton has worked in this Diocese, he has exemplified the priestly virtues, shown good judgment and zeal.

This morning Father Creaton showed me Your Lordship's letter in which you kindly consent to excardinate him.

It is, then, with the utmost appreciation that I submit, herewith, Letters of Incardination.

With kindest regards, I remain

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N.,

Jacobus Creaton

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profecto quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profecto pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuvari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, relicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus oratae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tertio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatam, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I . . . . firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo declarationibus, declarationibus, praescriptis omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobo errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reiicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobo pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et critice textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reiicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologiae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo, quod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id

"I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment where-with every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who—far worse still—admit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which

teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these His holy gospels.

REMARKS

1. The Profession of Faith is made and the Oath taken before the Ordinary of the place or his Delegate by:
  - a) the Vicar General,
  - b) the Diocesan Consultors,
  - c) the Censor of books,
  - d) Pastors,
  - e) Confessors and Preachers before they receive the faculty to exercise their functions,
  - f) Clerics called to Subdeaconship,
  - g) Superiors and Professors in the Grand Seminary.(Cf. C. 1406 et Motu Prop. Pii PP. X., Sept. 1. 1910.)
2. When several take the Oath at the same time, one may read the formula aloud; at the end each one, placing his hand on the gospels reads the words "Haec omnia spondeo," etc., and signs his name. (S. C. Consist. Oct. 25, 1910.)
3. The document is to be kept in the safe of the diocesan curia.

Dear F. Daniels,

July has been awful rain, rain
and more rain! I have met
Fr Malachy Sullivan and Fr Henry Keene. Both seem to be enjoying themselves.

After a certain amount of negotiation I find I am free.

to return to San Diego for another period so I expect I will be back before Aug 15. if my travel arrangements are not changed by the war. Its not easy to know how one stands in the home diocese as the Vicar Capitular will not make any decisions and it may be a long time before a new Bishop is appointed.

I expect San Diego is becoming very busy again with the war fever growing. Things remain very quiet here no anxiety or worry yet.

Until I see you all the best. Unless the bishop enquires I would prefer you say nothing about my date of arrival. With every good wish
Sincerely yours

- c) Dependents: None.
- d) Financial Resources: The physical properties of the Diocese
of San Diego, located in the four Counties of San Diego, Imperial, San Bernardino and Riverside in the State of California. As a priest of the Diocese, the Rev. James Creaton will be assigned to a parish and adequate support is hereby guaranteed.
- e) Reasons, etc.: The Rev. James Creaton, ordained in Maynooth in 1940, has been accepted
by the undersigned Bishop of San Diego
to do parochial work in the Diocese of San Diego. Because of the great influx of population here the services of Father Creaton will help relieve the resultant shortage of priests.

1- I wish to act as guarantor for the following alien who desires to immigrate into the United States:

The Rev. James Creaton
Loughglynn
Castlerea, County Roscommon
Ireland
Born
Single
Irish Nationality
Not related to guarantor

- 2- In order to prevent the alien above mentioned from becoming a public charge after arrival in the United States, I shall assume the responsibility for his support and I propose to discharge such responsibility in the following manner. His anticipated services arise from his voluntary acceptance of work in this Diocese and a position as pastor or assistant pastor
in one of the churches of the Diocese awaits the arrival of Father Creaton.

AFFIDAVIT OF: His Excellency, Most Rev. Charles F. Buddy, D.D.
Bishop of San Diego, San Diego, California

- 1 3) I personally promise and agree that during my lifetime I
2 will save the United States and all States, Territories,
3 Counties, Towns, Municipalities and Districts thereof
4 harmless against any losses or damages which may be suffered
5 by reason of the fact that any person named in this
6 affidavit during his alienage shall become a public charge
7 in the United States.
- 8 4) I have read and verified the accuracy of the foregoing 9 statements, which I believe to be correct, and I hereby 10 affix my signature and swear to this statement without

The Rt Rev Monsignor J. J. McManara,

Dear Monsignor,

I thank you for your letter of May 15th which was forwarded to me at above address
where I am breaking my journey for a few days to meet some of my cousins. I intend to make another stop of a few days in Chicago with my relations and expect to be in San Diego by the end of next week at the very latest. I hope to be more definite on the date of my arrival as soon as I meet

my friends in Chicago and find out about travel arrangements
there.

I wish again to thank you Monsieur for all your kindness to me.

Dear Monsignor,

I wish to thank you for being so patient with
me. I have some definite news
at last. I secured my American Visa a few days ago and have been in touch with some travel agencies in the meantime.

Mr Cunningham of Killarney whom you knew of is not hopeful regarding a passage by sea in the very near future but "The Irish Travel Agency"

I might expect a passage on a Canada Line if not towards the end of this month then certainly early next month. It would be easier to arrange a passage by air but I would like to bring some luggage with me.

While I was waiting I was
assisting at the Headquarters of St
Patrick's Missionary Society (Kiltegan Co Wicklow) - the Society with which I worked in Nigeria. Should you care
for any information about me

The Superior St Patrick's Kiltegan
Co Wicklow would be glad to oblige
He knows of my intentions - I told him before I returned in September.

I had kept Fr Henry Keane informed
as to my efforts to secure a visa.
I hope he informed you Monsignor

I should be grateful to hear,
that I am still acceptable for

work in San Diego Diocese, and any wishes you may have to express
as regards time of arrival
and transport

Yours respectfully
James Creation.

Dear Father Creaton:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated May 9, 1947 and in answer let me advise that you were accepted by His Excellency pro tempore experimente and nothing contrary to this arrangement has been decided upon.

I hope that you will get here as soon as possible. In the event that you can secure air transportation, is it not possible that you send your luggage by express? Of course, if you travel by boat it is not so expensive to transfer your luggage. Our principal interest is that you arrive safe and as soon as possible.

With every good wish, I am

Dear Monsignor,

I wish to acknowledge receipt of affidavits or guarantees in respect of Rev James Creaton - myself and to thank you for same. Beyond being told to have the necessary guarantees ready I have received no further information from the American Consulate in Dublin. In the same letter the usual "you will be informed when your turn on the waiting list comes" was added. I see by the daily newspapers that an increase in staff is expected at the Consulate and that it is hoped to deal with all waiting applications in the near future. I hope that this is

is more than a hope. Again thanking
 You for your kindness
 I remain

Yours respectfully

EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT FOR IMMIGRATION VISA APPLICANTS

1. In View of the provisions of Section 3 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, excluding amongst various categories of aliens "persons likely to become a public charge" an applicant, in order to qualify for an immigration visa in so far as this provision is concerned, must establish by appropriate evidence that he will have sufficient continuing assurance of support to guarantee that he would not become a public charge if admitted into the United States.
2. If an applicant will depend for support upon his own financial resources<sup>3</sup> he should submit documentary evidence of such resources as well as evidence of his income, expenses and obligations. However, in view of the present Irish laws restricting the transfer of financial resources to the United States, any resources which the visa applicant may have in Ireland cannot be considered available for his support in the United States in the absence of authorization from the Irish Minister for Finance stating the amount in dollars which the applicant would be permitted to transfer to the United States.
3. If an applicant will depend for support wholly or partially upon relatives or other persons in the United States, each guarantor should furnish a statement in affidavit form to show not only his willingness but also his financial ability to guarantee the alien's support (giving due regard to the guarantor's family and other obligations) and should state his reasons for undertaking the alien's support in the absence of any direct relationship. The affidavit should be accompanied by corroboratory evidence to substantiate all statements. The affidavit and corroboration may be submitted only in single copy. (For details see paragraph 9 and 10).

Note: In no case can advance assurance be given that a visa will be issued. The question of whether an alien will or will not qualify in all respects for a visa cannot be determined until he has applied formally at the Consulate General and has been examined with all of the required documents. Thus, every applicant is cautioned never to dispose of property or any other resources on the assumption that he will qualify for a visa.

4. Cancelled.
5. If satisfactory evidence of support has been submitted and if the applicant is unable for any reason to apply formally within a reasonable length of time for an immigration visa, it may be necessary for the applicant to submit new current evidence of support at such time as he is in a position to make formal application for the immigration visa.
6. A guarantor who is not an American citizen must arrange through the office of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Franklin Trust Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to have the Consulate General advised whether he was lawfully admitted into the United States for permanent residence and, if so, when and where.
7. An affidavit executed in behalf of an applicant who is proceeding to the United States to be married should set forth the plans made for the marriage and should include a statement by the fiancé(e) guaranteeing to support the applicant so long as the applicant is in the United States even should the planned marriage for any reason not take place.
8. In connection with children under 16 years of age, the ~~same~~ guarantors must include a statement in their affidavits to the effect that the children will be kept at school until at least 16 years of age, that they will be given proper care, and that they will not be put to work unsuited to their years.

The affidavits, together with the corroboratory evidence outlined in paragraph 10, should be sent to the applicant for forwarding by mail to the Consulate General. Guarantors must include in each affidavit of support the information outlined below. An affidavit of a married person must be executed jointly by the husband and wife. It is emphasized that compliance with the following carries no assurance that the evidence submitted will prove acceptable.

- (a) Full name, address, date of birth, town and country of birth, nationality, occupation and marital status.
  - (b) Citizenship. State how acquired. If naturalized American citizen, give dates, place and naturalization certificate number. (Note: See paragraph 6).
  - (c) Dependents. Give names, ages and relationship.
  - (d) Financial position. State full details concerning annual income, property, expenses, obligations, taxes, and the margin of income available for the alien's support.
  - (e) Reason for willingness to assume responsibility for the alien's support; affirmation that the guarantor realizes the serious obligation he is assuming; the extent, if any, to which he has contributed to the alien's support in the past; and the name of and the date when he may have guaranteed the support of any other alien.
  - (f) Each affidavit should include the following statements:
    1. "I wish to act as guarantor for the following alien who desires to immigrate into the United States" (For each alien give the full name and address, age, marital status, nationality and relationship to guarantor.)
    2. "In order to prevent the alien above-mentioned from becoming a public charge after arrival in the United States, I shall assume the responsibility for his support and I propose to discharge such responsibilities in the following manner as it shall become necessary." Give details of plans and arrangements for the alien's support.
    3. "I personally promise to agree that during my lifetime I will save the United States, and all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities and districts thereof harmless against any losses or damages which may be suffered by reason of the fact that any person names in this affidavit during his alienage shall become a public charge in the United States."
    4. At the end of the affidavit, just above the guarantor's signature, it should be stated:
"I have read and verified the accuracy of the foregoing statements, which I believe to be correct, and I hereby affix my signature and ~~which~~ swear to this statement without any mental reservation whatsoever."
- NOTE: Attention is called to the penal provision of Section 22(c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, which reads as follows:
"Whosoever knowingly makes under oath any false statement in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws and regulations prescribed hereunder shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than 5 years, or both."

10. Documentary corroboratory evidence as outlined below must accompany each guarantor's affidavit of support. Such evidence will not be returned but will be filed at this office. Therefore, it is suggested that photostats of certified copies of valuable and irreplaceable documents be forwarded in lieu of originals.
  - (a) Certified copy of latest Federal Income Tax returns.
  - (b) Affidavit from employer. On business letterhead state guarantor's occupation, wage, how long employed, total earnings for past 12 months and whether employment is of permanent nature.
  - (c) Business records: If guarantor is owner or part owner of a business, there should be submitted proof of such ownership

a report from a commercial rating concern, and a certified copy of the latest Federal Income Tax return for the business.

(d) Bank Accounts Affidavits from bank officials on bank letter stating date guarantor's account was opened, present balance, whether accumulated by small or lump-sum deposits and in whose name(s) the account has been and now stands.

(e) Affidavits from appropriate sources. On business or official letter-head submit proof of the ownership and current net value and income therefrom of any other resources such as stocks, bonds, mortgages, real estate, et cetera.

Dear Father Keane:

On examination of our records I find that the Reverend James Creton has been accepted, and that special affidavits are being prepared to clear the way for his visa and transportation to this country.

There are many facts that were necessary for the preparation of the affidavits but we are leaving those blank to be filled in by Father Creton himself.

I am sure you will be glad to know that things are being taken care of.

Sligo
Ireland,

Dear Bishop

The Rev. James Creighton, a priest friend of mine, ordained in Maynooth in 1940 for the diocese of Elphin, returned last year after five years temporary mission in So. Nigeria. He was to return this year but his parents and Bishop prefer him to seek a mission in less tropical climates. His Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Dooley, of the diocese of Elphin, has given him permission to go abroad again for six years. It will be that time before a place is available in his own diocese. And it is his intention to seek a mission in the United States. Knowing us he is attracted towards the diocese of San Diego and he is prepared, if you accept him, to serve his six years in whatever capacity we may place.

From personal experience I know the need for priest and particularly good priests in our diocese. And that is why my brother and I, can without hesitation and without reservation recommend Fr. Creighton to you. If you should decide there is a place for Fr. Creighton you need have no worry about his good standing, his character, his physical health. That part my brother and I guarantee. Of course, your Excellency, you alone can know the exact needs of the diocese and whether in the present circumstances you can or wish to avail of his offer. If you do not it will be perfectly understood by Fr. Creighton and by us. If you wish to pursue the matter further you shall find Fr. Creighton's address enclosed. If you so wish you can have us have Fr. Creighton communicate directly with us. Tell him that at present there is no place if you so decide. Hoping your Excellency may be able to give this matter favorable consideration and with every good wish your obedient servant
Henry Keane

Dear Father Creighton:

Our Reverend Father Henry Keane, now on vacation in Ireland, has written with sincere appreciation of your zeal and capabilities. Father Keane indicates that your Most Reverend Ordinary is willing to release you for a period of six years. This Diocese is partially a missionary field. We do need real priests who are not afraid to work -- who can stand up under the heat and burden of the day.

On the recommendation of Father Keane, I shall indeed be thankful to receive you for a trial in this Diocese.

As a rule we require a health examination and a report of the same together with a letter from your Most Reverend Bishop or his Chancellor.

With all good wishes and assuring you of a cordial welcome in this jurisdiction,

Sincerely in Christ,

Bishop of San Diego.

Dear Father McGuinness:

This will acknowledge your letter of January 16, 1973 regarding Rev. James Creaton, Pastor of St. Anthony Church, San Jacinto.

The exact date of Father Creaton's death was July 28, 1964 and the cause of death was listed as a heart attack although Father was swimming at the time.

I knew Father quite well and wish to assure you that during his years of service in the Diocese of San Diego he was an exemplary priest.

I trust this information will assist you in keeping your records.

Faternally yours in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. I. Brent Eagen

Rt. Rev. & dear Msgr.,

Rev. Fr. James Creaton, Pastor - as far as I can recall - of St. Anthony's Church, San Jacinto, who was drowned tragically, R.I.P., once worked in the above Institute. I am anxious to know the exact date of his death so that I can insert it in the Annual Diocesan Calendar. His relative sent me a Memorial Card after his death, but unfortunately it was lost during the Nigerian War. I have unavailingly sought the help of one of his classmates in Maynooth College; hence my letter to you.

Praying every blessing on your own good work,

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

J. C. McGuinness

My last will and testament in my own handwriting

James Cregation.

The date April 4 1961

The place 680 S. Santa Fe San Jacinto Calif

1. I James Cregation appoint

Rev Edward Cregation of St Mary of the Valley Church Yucca — or wherever his place of appointment may be at the time of my death — to be my executor of my will. He will act without bond.

2. All my government bonds except those which have Bishop Charles J Buddy or The Bishop of San Diego Catholic Diocese as coowner. I wish to have cashed (or redeemed) and the money paid to Mr John Cregation my brother now living at Loughglynn Co Roscommon Ireland. Those in the Bishop's name will be cashed and used for the benefit of the Diocese of San Diego as the Bishop or his successor in the See of San Diego sees fit.

If there is any difficulty in cashing these bonds I give them to Rev Edward Cregation of Yucca <sup>Valley N.</sup> Catholic Church to cash and he will do what is right with the money — giving the proper share to my brother and the proper share to the bishop. Fr E Cregation knows where these bonds are. If this disqualifies Fr E Cregation from being my executor, I appoint Fr Michael Keane of Cotton to be my executor.

My two Savings Accounts are (one) at La Jolla Federal Savings and Loan Association in La Jolla Calif and (the other) at Hemet Federal Savings and Loan Association Hemet.

This money will enable my executor: (1) to have four hundred Masses at a stipend of two dollars each offered for my intentions — (that will be 800 dollars for Masses) (2) to give to my Sister Mrs Mary Lafferty Kilmoree Ballaghaden Co Mayo two thousand dollars in payment for the care she gave my mother.

To pay my funeral expenses which should not cost more than eight hundred dollars

the remainder plus what is realised from the

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the repeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeated message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeated-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines.
2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any event the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of each message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
4. Except as otherwise indicated in connection with the listing of individual places in the filed tariffs of the Company, the amount paid for the transmission of a domestic telegram, incoming cable or radio message covers its delivery within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which, as shown by the tariffs of the Company, is not operated through the agency of a railroad company, within two miles of any open main or branch office of the Company; in cities or towns of 5,000 or less inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, the telegraph service is performed through the agency of a railroad company, within one mile of the telegraph office; or in towns or less than 5,000 inhabitants in which an office of the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company will not undertake to make delivery, but will endeavor to arrange for delivery as the agent of the sender, with the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge from the addressee and agrees to pay such additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee. There will be no additional charge for deliveries made by telephone within corporate limits of any city or town in which an office of the Company is located.
5. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
6. The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in the case of any message except an intrastate message in Texas where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission, and in the case of an intrastate message in Texas the Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within ninety-five days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued; provided, however, that neither of these conditions shall apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purview of Section 415 of the Communications Act of 1934.
7. It is agreed that in any action by the Company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed; and it shall be rebutted by competent evidence.
8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to the foregoing terms.
9. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Reverend and dear Father Creaton:

It is gratifying to have your courtesy of July 22nd and to know of what consolation you afford your devoted mother. It is edifying to read in your letter how patiently she has suffered through the years and we all know how these dear mothers offer up that suffering, especially for their children far and near.

It is a joy to anticipate a visit to Ireland -- always for me a spiritual stimulant, especially to observe the churches filled on week days even when it is raining outside. That is the faith that has helped to spiritualize this diocese.

Please convey to your mother and the members of your family my triple blessing.

Your Excellency,

I wish to express my gratitude to you for allowing me to spend the month of July with my mother. She has been a partial invalid for eleven years and is most grateful to you for my visit. My mother has been very restricted in her movements - she needs help for even a short distance - but she is always in good spirits. Her sight is good - a great blessing. She reads a lot. She eats well and enjoys visitors. She is further blessed with a very devoted daughter who takes great care of her.

My stay at home has been made doubly enjoyable by wonderful weather. I hope it will continue for Your Excellency's visit.

I remain Your Excellency

July. I mentioned this to you on June 12.

Fr Henry Keane of Redlands has Fr Denis
Meehan from Ireland staying with him
for July and would be kind enough
to lend me his assistant Fr B. O'Sullivan
for the month. If this arrangement
would meet with His Excellency's

from June 30 to July 31 I would be most grateful. and would request that

Dear Father Creaton:

Even though you are on the eve of departure, let me hasten to thank you sincerely for translating your thought of me into your gracious letter of August 16.

Thanks be to God for your dear mother! What you write about her encourages all of us. She symbolizes the grace of God and the valiant woman, ~~The~~ joyful mother and Our Divine Lord's ardent lover -- all in one. Please bless her for me and assure her of my deepfelt affection.

Dear Father Creaton, you have also done good work in making the needs of the Diocese known.

If you should see the Most Reverend Bishop Hanley, please convey to him my respectful greetings.

You come very much to my mind because this very day an "itinerant" Jesuit came my way and inspired me to exclaim: "You are my man, please take this beautiful assignment in San Jacinto." Well, he accepted it up to September 2, which is better than nothing. I have no anxiety, however, because we can easily carry on from September 2 to September 6, the time when you plan to arrive home.

Be assured that a cordial welcome awaits you.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully your servant in Christ,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy,
Bishop of San Diego.

Your Excellency,

I wish to thank
you for your kindness to me
at all times and especially
for allowing me to spend this Summer with my mother. It
makes her very happy to
have the exile home for a while,
and I can assure you it
makes me very happy to be
with her. She is 75 years.
It is now almost ten years since
she had her first stroke which

affected her whole right side. She
has had two others since that.
Her recovery from all three has been remarkable. Though her
balance in walking is poor.
She can move around as long
as she has a solid balance
to lean on but two steps
without a wall a chair or
a helping hand is too much
for her. She sleeps, eats, speaks
reads and washes the dishes
and does all these well and that is her life. She can ride
good distances in the car without tiring. She stays with my
married sister and enjoys
the company of her children
grand children that should read.
My Sister and brothers are very good to her.

I wish to further thank you
for promising to Dr Bartholomew
to Sept 6th when D. V. I hope to be back in San Jacinto.
I am indeed grateful for this
further kindness.

The Most Rev Bishop of Elphin
Bishop Hanley sends his
greetings to you. He has been kind enough to allow
some more of the Mercy
Sisters to go to your Excellency's Diocese where they will open with your permission and help another school next September (58) (for Dr Munnagh). I also think the Medical <sup>4</sup> Missionaries of Mary

could be interested in an old
people home - with an eye to
a hospital in the future -
in Riverside if such would meet with your Excellency's
plans for the diocese. Their
foundress, Mother Mary Martin, will be in the United States in the Spring. She is very grateful
to you for the help which you
gave to her new hospital in Drogheda. Where her Sisters will be trained. I have not seen anything
like it anyplace. It is a magnificent
and most modern hospital.

I think this is somewhat long
so I conclude Yours very Sincerely in Chr

Your Excellency,

Before I finish
my vacation with my people,
I want to tell you how thankful
I am to you for allowing me
this period with my mother.
We have had a wonderful
Summer and it has enabled
me to get my mother out
for a number of drives to
the sea-side and elsewhere. It has
meant a lot to her as she
walks so poorly that she

feels she is being an inconvenience
if she asks to go any place.
I hope D.V. to be back in San Jacinto on Sept 1st

Again thanking you and asking your blessing
I remain

Yours sincerely -

Dear Bishop Hanly:

Although the undersigned Bishop advised Father James Creaton to accept your recent offer without hesitation, he expressed a preference to remain in this Diocese. We do have an acute shortage of priests.

During the four and one-half years that Father Creaton has worked in this Diocese, he has exemplified the priestly virtues, shown good judgment and zeal.

This morning Father Creaton showed me Your Lordship's letter in which you kindly consent to excardinate him.

It is, then, with the utmost appreciation that I submit, herewith, Letters of Incardination.

With kindest regards, I remain

Fraternally yours in Christ,

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N.,

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homofactus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus ortae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tercio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I . . . . firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo damnationibus, declarationibus, praescriptionibus omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobam errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobo pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et critice textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologicae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo, quod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id

"I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment wherewith every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who—far worse still—admit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which

teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these His holy gospels.

REMARKS

1. The Profession of Faith is made and the Oath taken before the Ordinary of the place or his Delegate by:
  - a) the Vicar General,
  - b) the Diocesan Consultors,
  - c) the Censor of books,
  - d) Pastors,
  - e) Confessors and Preachers before they receive the faculty to exercise their functions,
  - f) Clerics called to Subdeaconship,
  - g) Superiors and Professors in the Grand Seminary.

(Cf. C. 1406 et Motu Prop. Pii PP. X., Sept. 1. 1910.)
2. When several take the Oath at the same time, one may read the formula aloud; at the end each one, placing his hand on the gospels reads the words "Haec omnia spondeo," etc., and signs his name. (S. C. Consist. Oct. 25, 1910.)
3. The document is to be kept in the safe of the diocesan curia.

Dear Mr. Daniels,

I want to thank you even at this late stage for your kindness on many occasions to me and in particular for forwarding the Celebret and the permission to say Mass on board Ship to me, at Brooklyn. I had a beautiful voyage home and nice weather up to July but July has been awful rain, rain
and more rain! I have met
Mr. Malachy Sullivan and Mr. Henry Keene. Both seem to be enjoying themselves.

After a certain amount of
negotiation I find I am free

to return to San Diego for another period so I expect I will be back before Aug 15. if my travel arrangements are not changed by the war. Its not easy to know how one stands in the home diocese as the dear Capitular will not make any decisions and it may be a long time before a new Bishop is appointed.

I expect San Diego is becoming very busy again with the war fever growing. Things remain very quiet here no anxiety or worry yet.

Until I see you all the best. Unless the bishop enquires I would prefer you say nothing about my date of arrival. With every good wish

Sincerely Yours

Your Excellency,

I wish to thank you sincerely for the letter which you sent to me to take to my bishop - Most Rev Edward Doorly Bishop of Elphin Ireland. Permit me to say that I am extremely grateful for the kind things you said about me in it.

My intentions are to leave for Ireland at the beginning of June and soon after my arrival I shall see my bishop. Then if he will consider allowing me to return to your diocese it shall be my pleasure to present your letter to His Lordship.

With renewed appreciation and thanks for your kindness to me I remain

Your Lordship:

Permit me to respectfully submit that the Reverend Father JAMES CREATON, assistant pastor of Mary Star of the Sea Church in La Jolla, California and a subject of Your Lordship, has given the utmost satisfaction in this Diocese, since his arrival on June 1, 1947. Father Creaton appears to be in excellent health and finds that the even climate of La Jolla agrees with him.

We are grateful for the loan of this zealous priest. In fact, if Your Lordship has no immediate need for him, we shall be thankful for his return. At the same time, permit me to assure Your Lordship of our willingness to Incardinate Father James Creaton if his native Diocese can spare him.

With kindest regards and renewed appreciation, I remain

IN RE: EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT FOR REV. JAMES CREATON
IMMIGRATION VISA APPLICANT

AFFIDAVIT OF: His Excellency, Most Rev. Charles F. Buddy, D.D.
Bishop of San Diego, San Diego, California

Legal Title: THE ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOP OF SAN DIEGO, a corporation sole, Charles Francis Buddy, Incumbent.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, Charles Francis Buddy, Roman Catholic Bishop of San Diego, (a corporation sole) make the following affidavit:

a) Name: Charles Francis Buddy Address: 1528 Fourth Avenue
San Diego, California, U.S.A.

Date of Birth: October 4, 1887
Town & Country: St. Joseph, Missouri, U.S.A.
Nationality: American Occupation: Roman Catholic Bishop of San Diego Marital Status: Single

b) Citizenship: American by birth.

c) Dependents: None.

d) Financial Resources: The physical properties of the Diocese
of San Diego, located in the four Counties of San Diego, Imperial, San Bernardino and Riverside in the State
of California. As a priest of the Diocese, the Rev. James Creaton will be assigned to a parish and adequate
support is hereby guaranteed.

e) Reasons, etc.: The Rev. James Creaton, ordained in Maynooth in 1940, has been accepted
by the undersigned Bishop of San Diego
to do parochial work in the Diocese of San Diego. Because of the great influx
of population here the services of Father Creaton will help relieve the resultant shortage of priests.

f)
1- I wish to act as guarantor for the following alien who desires to immigrate into the United States:

The Rev. James Creaton
Loughglynn
Castleroa, County Roscommon
Ireland
Born
Single
Irish Nationality
Not related to guarantor

2- In order to prevent the alien above mentioned from becoming a public charge after arrival in the United States, I shall assume the responsibility for his
support and I propose to discharge such responsibility
in the following manner. His anticipated services
arise from his voluntary acceptance of work in this Diocese and a position as pastor or assistant pastor
in one of the churches of the Diocese awaits the arrival of Father Creaton.

AFFIDAVIT OF: His Excellency, Most Rev. Charles F. Buddy, D.D.
Bishop of San Diego, San Diego, California

- 1 3) I personally promise and agree that during my lifetime I
2 will save the United States and all States, Territories,
3 Counties, Towns, Municipalities and Districts thereof
4 harmless against any losses or damages which may be suffered
5 by reason of the fact that any person named in this
6 affidavit during his alienage shall become a public charge
7 in the United States.
- 8 4) I have read and verified the accuracy of the foregoing 9 statements, which I believe to be correct, and I hereby 10 affix my signature and swear to this statement without 11 any mental reservation whatsoever.

The Rt Rev Monsignor J. J. McManara,
Chancellor

Dear Monsignor,

I thank you for your letter of May 15th which was forwarded to me at above address
when I am breaking my journey
for a few days to meet some of my cousins. I intend to make another stop of a few days in Chicago with my relations and
expect to be in San Diego by the

end of next week at the very latest. I hope to be more
definite on the date of my
arrival as soon as I meet
my friends in Chicago and find out about travel arrangements
there.

I wish again to thank you Monsieur for all your kindness to
me.

Yours respectfully

Dear Monsignor,
I wish to thank you for being so patient with
me. I have some definite news
at last. I secured my American Visa a few days ago and
have been in touch with some
travel agencies in the meantime.
Mr Cunningham of Kiltarney whom you know of is not hopeful regarding passage by sea in the very near future but "The Irish Travel Agency"

I might expect a passage on a Cunard liner if not towards the end of this month then certainly early next month. It would be easier to arrange a passage by
air but I would like to bring
some luggage with me.

While I was waiting I was
assisting at the Headquarters of St
Patrick's Missionary Society (Kiltegan
Co Wicklow) - the Society with which I worked in Nigeria. Should you care
for any information about me
The Superior St Patrick's Kiltegan
Co Wicklow would be glad to oblige
He knows of my intentions - I told him before I returned in September.

I had kept Fr. Henry Keane informed
as to my efforts to secure a visa.
I hope he informed you Monsignor.

I should be grateful to hear,
that I am still acceptable for

work in San Diego Diocese, and any
wishes you may have to express
as regards time of arrival
and transport

Yours respectfully
James Creation.

Dear Father Creaton:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated May 9, 1947 and in answer let me advise that you were accepted by His Excellency pro tempore experimēte and nothing contrary to this arrangement has been decided upon.

I hope that you will get here as soon as possible. In the event that you can secure air transportation, is it not possible that you send your luggage by express? Of course, if you travel by boat it is not so expensive to transfer your luggage. Our principal interest is that you arrive safe and as soon as possible.

With every good wish, I am

Dear Monsignor,

I wish to acknowledge receipt of affidavits or guarantees in respect of Rev James Creaton - myself and to thank you for same. Beyond being told to have the necessary guarantees ready I have received no further information from the American Consulate in Dublin. In the same letter the usual "you will be informed when your turn on the waiting list comes" was added. I see by the daily newspapers that an increase in staff is expected at the Consulate and <sup>that</sup> it is hoped to deal with all waiting applications in the near future. I hope that this is

is more than a hope. Again thanking
 You for your kindness

I remain

Yours respectfully

EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT FOR IMMIGRATION VISA APPLICANTS

1. In View of the provisions of Section 3 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, excluding amongst various categories of aliens "persons likely to become a public charge" an applicant, in order to qualify for an immigration visa in so far as this provision is concerned, must establish by appropriate evidence that he will have sufficient continuing assurance of support to guarantee that he would not become a public charge if admitted into the United States.
  2. If an applicant will depend for support upon his own financial resources<sup>9</sup> he should submit documentary evidence of such resources as well as evidence of his income, expenses and obligations. However, in view of the present Irish laws restricting the transfer of financial resources to the United States, any resources which the visa applicant may have in Ireland cannot be considered available for his support in the United States in the absence of authorization from the Irish Minister for Finance stating the amount in dollars which the applicant would be permitted to transfer to the United States.
  3. If an applicant will depend for support wholly or partially upon relatives or other persons in the United States, each guarantor should furnish a statement in affidavit form to show not only his willingness but also his financial ability to guarantee the alien's support (giving due regard to the guarantor's family and other obligations) and should state his reasons for undertaking the alien's support in the absence of any direct relationship. The affidavit should be accompanied by corroboratory evidence to substantiate all statements. The affidavit and corroboration may be submitted only in single copy. (For details see paragraph 9 and 10).
- Note: In no case can advance assurance be given that a visa will be issued. The question of whether an alien will or will not qualify in all respects for a visa cannot be determined until he has applied formally at the Consulate General and has been examined with all of the required documents. Thus, every applicant is cautioned never to dispose of property or any other resources on the assumption that he will qualify for a visa.
4. Cancelled.
  5. If satisfactory evidence of support has been submitted and if the applicant is unable for any reason to apply formally within a reasonable length of time for an immigration visa, it may be necessary for the applicant to submit new current evidence of support at such time as he is in a position to make formal application for the immigration visa.
  6. A guarantor who is not an American citizen must arrange through the office of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Franklin Trust Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to have the Consulate General advised whether he was lawfully admitted into the United States for permanent residence and, if so, when and where.
  7. An affidavit executed in behalf of an applicant who is proceeding to the United States to be married should set forth the plans made for the marriage and should include a statement by the fiancé(e) guaranteeing to support the applicant so long as the applicant is in the United States even should the planned marriage for any reason not take place.
  8. In connection with children under 16 years of age, the ~~own~~ guarantors must include a statement in their affidavits to the effect that the children will be kept at school until at least 16 years of age, that they will be given proper care, and that they will not be put to work unsuited to their years.

The affidavits, together with the corroboratory evidence outlined in paragraph 10, should be sent to the applicant for forwarding by mail to the Consulate General. Guarantors must include in each affidavit of support the information outlined below. An affidavit of a married person must be executed jointly by the husband and wife. It is emphasized that compliance with the following carries no assurance that the evidence submitted will prove acceptable.

- (a) Full name, address, date of birth, town and country of birth, nationality, occupation and marital status.
  - (b) Citizenship. State how acquired. If naturalized American citizen, give dates, place and naturalization certificate number. (Note: See paragraph 6).
  - (c) Dependents. Give names, ages and relationship.
  - (d) Financial position. State full details concerning annual income, property, expenses, obligations, taxes, and the margin of income available for the alien's support.
  - (e) Reason for willingness to assume responsibility for the alien's support; affirmation that the guarantor realizes the serious obligation he is assuming; the extent, if any, to which he has contributed to the alien's support in the past; and the name of and the date when he may have guaranteed the support of any other alien.
  - (f) Each affidavit should include the following statements:
    1. "I wish to act as guarantor for the following alien who desires to immigrate into the United States" (For each alien give the full name and address, age, marital status, nationality and relationship to guarantor.)
    2. "In order to prevent the alien above-mentioned from becoming a public charge after arrival in the United States, I shall assume the responsibility for his support and I propose to discharge such responsibilities in the following manner as it shall become necessary." Give details of plans and arrangements for the alien's support.
    2. "I personally promise to agree that during my lifetime I will save the United States, and all States, Territories, counties, towns, municipalities and districts thereof harmless against any losses or damages which may be suffered by reason of the fact that any person names in this affidavit during his alienage shall become a public charge in the United States."
    4. At the end of the affidavit, just above the guarantor's signature, it should be stated:
"I have read and verified the accuracy of the foregoing statements, which I believe to be correct, and I hereby affix my signature and ~~which~~ swear to this statement without any mental reservation whatsoever."
- NOTE: Attention is called to the penal provision of Section 22(c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, which reads as follows:
"Whosoever knowingly makes under oath any false statement in any application, affidavit, or other document required by the immigration laws and regulations prescribed hereunder shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than 5 years, or both."

10. Documentary corroboratory evidence as outlined below must accompany each guarantor's affidavit of support. Such evidence will not be returned but will be filed at this office. Therefore, it is suggested that photostats of certified copies of valuable and irreplaceable documents be forwarded in lieu of originals.
  - (a) Certified copy of latest Federal Income Tax returns.
  - (b) Affidavit from employer. On business letterhead state guarantor's occupation, wage, how long employed, total earnings for past 12 months and whether employment is of permanent nature.
  - (c) Business records: If guarantor is owner or part owner of a business, there should be submitted proof of such ownership

a report from a commercial rating concern, and a certified copy of the latest Federal Income Tax return for the business.

(d) Bank Accounts Affidavits from bank officials on bank letterhead stating date guarantor's account was opened, present balance, whether accumulated by small or lump-sum deposits and in whose name(s) the account has been and now stands.

(e) Affidavits from appropriate sources. On business or official letter-head submit proof of the ownership and current net value and income therefrom of any other resources such as stocks, bonds, mortgages, real estate, et cetera.

Dear Father Keane:

On examination of our records I find that the Reverend James Creaton has been accepted, and that special affidavits are being prepared to clear the way for his visa and transportation to this country.

There are many facts that were necessary for the preparation of the affidavits but we are leaving those blank to be filled in by Father Creaton himself.

I am sure you will be glad to know that things are being taken care of.

Sligo
Ireland,

Dear Brother

The Rev. James Creighton, a priest friend of mine, ordained in Magnorth in 1940 for the diocese of Elphin, returned last year after five years temporary mission in So. Nigeria. He was to return this year but his parents and Bishop prefer him to seek a mission in less tropical climates. His Bishop, the Most Rev. DA Dooley, of the diocese of Elphin, has given him permission to go abroad again for six years. It will be that time before a place is available in his own diocese. And it is his intention to seek a mission in the United States. Knowing us he is attracted towards the diocese of San Diego and he is prepared, if you accept him, to serve his six years in whatever capacity you may place.

From personal experience I know the need for priest and particularly good priests in our diocese. And that is why my brother and I, can without hesitation and without reservation recommend Fr. Creighton to you. If you should decide there is a place for Fr. Creighton you need have no worry about his good standing, his character, his physical health. That part my brother and I guarantee. Of course, your Excellency, you alone can know the exact needs of the diocese and whether in the present circumstances you can or wish to avail of his offer. If you do not it will be perfectly understood by Fr. Creighton and by us. If you wish to pursue the matter further you shall find Fr. Creighton's address enclosed. If you so wish you can have us have Fr. Creighton communicate directly with a tell him that at present there is no place if you so decide. Hoping your Excellency may be able to give this matter favorable consideration and with every good wish your obedient servant

Dear Father Creighton:

Our Reverend Father Henry Keane, now on vacation in Ireland, has written with sincere appreciation of your zeal and capabilities. Father Keane indicates that your Most Reverend Ordinary is willing to release you for a period of six years. This Diocese is partially a missionary field. We do need real priests who are not afraid to work -- who can stand up under the heat and burden of the day.

On the recommendation of Father Keane, I shall indeed be thankful to receive you for a trial in this Diocese.

As a rule we require a health examination and a report of the same together with a letter from your Most Reverend Bishop or his Chancellor.

With all good wishes and assuring you of a cordial welcome in this jurisdiction,

Sincerely in Christ,

Bishop of San Diego.
