RE: Msgr. Doxie's Estate

DATE: April 30, 1990

Dear Tony:

Here is the form letter which we recently received from Pacific Bancorporation addressed to Donald F. Doxie (c/o Chancery Office).

It is possible that Msgr. Doxie was a PBC shareholder and that there was not record of it in his will.

As Executor of Msgr. Doxie's estate, you may wish to determine if there are some assets here that you were previously unrecorded.

Thanks.

Dear Bishop Maker, I just want to thank you for your statements at Monsignar Loxics funeral this Friday past. He was like a second father to me and I couldn't begin to estimate the number of times he told me that he lived for the Church; and of his loyalty to you, his Bishop. Way

I ask that you remember him when you celebrate the Mass on what would have been his Twenty-fifth anniver-

One thing that was of utmost concern to Monignor was the good of the people of It brigids. He was greatly distressed, during the recent fast, because of the staff changes that have taken place. With this in mind, I am prompted to ask that you reconsider the appointment which Father House received on the day of Monsignors death. Father Flouch have begun to grasp the total spectrum of things at It. Brigids; and, what I think is most important, the people have received him into their hearts - especially during this past week of sound.

There is one other matter about which I would like to speak with you. May I ask an appointment at some time when you're not too busy during the coming weeks? I teach at University High during the week to your

Dear Doctor Garman:

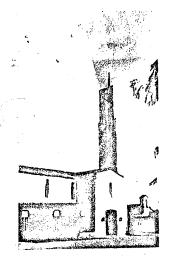

I appreciate very much a copy of your letter of November 30 in which you express your views in favor of the continued ringing of the carillon bells at St. Brigid's Churbh.

With all the noise of the airport how could anyone ever dream of complaining of the ringing of the bells? It would seem that there are a few people who do not wish to be reminded of their religious obligations. Perhaps that is the reason the church bells disturb them.

Thanking you for you great support and especially for your wonderful friendship, I am

Dear Friends:

At a recently called Church Council meeting of Christ Lutheran Church, a unanimous motion was passed that you permit St. Brigid's Catholic Church to continue their day-time ringing of their carillon to indicate the time of day.

We are the closest neighbor and probably because of the nature of our function would be disturbed by this more than anyone. We think the carillon is beautiful and we look forward to its beautiful sounds daily.

This is one of the largest congregations in the area embracing over 2000 members and friends in one parish family, most of whom live very near the Church.

It would be tragic for St. Brigid's Church, in a state of shock from the untimely death of their Monsignor, to have to bear this additional burden, the loss of that daily sound which has been so helpful in reassurance and reminder.

I will be glad to appear personally on behalf of St. Brigid if you advise me of the time and place of decision making.

Thank you for your expedited cooperation.

The next clear thought that crosses our minds. We can neither earn nor purchase life—

It is here, to accept; Not as a "right" but as a gift,

A sheer gift, to be lived in the Fulness of the Giver's provision.

Life is a gift.... to give!

Hoard life and it withers,

Store life in antiseptic cotton and it evaporates, Package life for later use and it becomes like Chaff which the breeze blows useless away.

St. Brigid's parishioners mourn death of Msgr. Doxie

A Requiem Mass High School in 1941. was celebrated Friday for the Very Rev. Msgr. Donald Doxie, pastor of St. Brigid's Catholic Church in Pacific Beach, who died Tuesday.

Doxie, 54, served as pastor of the church for eight years. Previously, he served as secretary to the bishvice. and as chancellor of the Roman Catholic Diocese of San Diego.

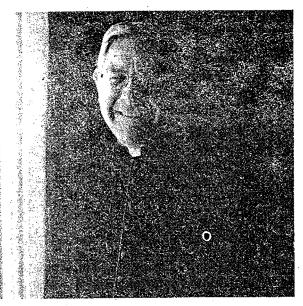

A native of Los Angeles, Doxie was a Šan Diego resident for 48 years. He attended La Jolla Elementary and La Jolla Junior High School and was graduated from St. Augustine

Doxie, who served as honorary mayor of Pacific Beach in 1974-75, studied for the priesthood at Seminary Francis Immaculate and Heart Seminary and was ordained at St. Joseph's Cathedral in 1952.

He would have celebrated his 25th anniversary as a priest in February.

Doxie enlisted in the Navy in October, 1942 and served until December, 1945.

He was a member of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepul-

Southern Cross Reporter

His bishops, his fellow priests, knights and ladies of the Holy Sepulchre, Sisters, his Lutheran pastor friend and hundreds of parishioners packed the church of St. Brigid, San Diego, Nov. 19, to say farewell for the last time to Msgr. Donald Doxie, pastor.

Bishop Leo T. Maher, principal concelebrant of the funeral Mass, called him "one who served with perfection of purpose."

FATHER Anthony Chylewski, classmate of the monsignor in the 1952 ordination class, said, "Donald Doxie has filed out of the sanctuary now to celebrate with the Eternal Priest." They had been planning silver jubilee celebrations for February next.

More than 120 priests almost filled one side of the church and overflowed into the aisles to pay respects to a fellow priest who was former secretary to Bishop Charles F. Buddy and assistant chancellor of the diocese.

At 54, he had died in his rectory, having been ordained a priest for almost 25 years.

LUTHERAN Pastor Quentin P. Garman, neighbor to St. Brigid's church, with his community of Christ Lutheran Church, was among the principal mourners. The community made a memorial gift to St. Brigid's in honor of Msgr. Doxie.

The well-known choir which he cherished and encouraged. The handbells accompanying the music. The large crucifix behind the altar, and the red carpeted sanctuary spoke some of the facts of his practical pastorship.

The detailed Mass schedule on the sacristy wall—typical of his ways—still showed "D.D." to be responsible for the 5:30 evening Masses, 7:30 p.m. confessions and other duties last weekend he did not live to perform.

THE GIFTS at the offertory, a Bible, vestments and the cruet, revived memories of him.

"This is one of the parishes that was always very much alive," said Bishop Maher. "The liturgies he arranged were admirable, and attracted so many people."

And the bishop praised Msgr. Doxie's loyalty, "A man loval to the mind of the Church and to his bishop. Loyalty was

Diocesan Office for Apostolic Ministry/Alcala Park

November 16, 1976

Dear Brother Priests:

This is to inform you that Monsignor Donald F. Doxie, Pastor of Saint Brigid Church, Pacific Beach, was found dead in the parish rectory earlier today.

Monsignor Doxie was born in Los Angeles in 1922, attended La Jolla Elementary and Junior High Schools, and graduated from Saint Augustine High School, San Diego, in 1941. He studied philosophy at Saint Francis Minor Seminary, Old Town and El Cajon, completed his theological studies at Immaculate Heart Seminary, El Cajon, and was ordained to the priesthood in Saint Joseph Cathedral on February 2, 1952.

Prior to his appointment as Secretary to the Bishop in 1955, Monsignor Doxie had served as Assistant Pastor at various churches throughout the diocese and as Assistant Director of the Society of the Propagation of the Faith. In 1957, he was commissioned as a Chaplain in the U. S. Navy, and returned to the diocese in 1961, as Secretary to the Bishap and Vice Chancellor. Named Pastor of Saint Brigid Church in 1968, he had been a Diocesan Consultor since 1963, and Episcopal Vicar since 1974.

He is survived by his brother, Ralph J. Mazela of San Diego.

A Vigil Mass will be held at Saint Brigid Church, 4735 Cass Street, San Diego, on Thursday evening, November 18, 1976, at 7:30 p.m. The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at Saint Brigid Church on Friday morning, November 19, 1976, at 10:30 a.m. Interment will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery.

All priests may concelebrate these Masses. If you plan to do so, please provide your own vestments (viz. alb and white stole). Lunch will be available at Saint Brigid Hall after the Mass Friday morning.

In your charity, please offer three Masses for our deceased brother priest.

Sincerely in Christ,

Klard F. Simeanson

Reverend Richard F. Duncanson Secretary to the Bishop

Dear Monsignor Doxie:

This is to reappoint you as Diocesan Consultor for the Diocese of San Diego effective June 1, 1976. The normal term of office for a Consultor is three years.

Your past service and loyalty to the Diocese is greatly appreciated and I know you will continue to serve faithfully in the future.

With every best wish, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Rev. Msgr. Donald F. Doxie St. Brigid's Church 4735 Cass Street San Diego, California 92109

Dear Monsignor Doxie:

In accordance with the Decrees "Ecclesiae Sanctae" and "Christus Dominus", I am happy to appoint you as an Episcopal Vicar for the San Diego Cathedral, La Jolla, and Oceanside Deaneries of the Diocese of San Diego. This appointment will be effective for a term of three years, commencing on January 7, 1974.

The purpose of this appointment is to afford you full collaboration and responsibility in the governing of the Diocese. As a collaborator with the Bishop, you will represent my mind and will in the territory over which you have jurisdiction.

As an Episcopal Vicar, you will possess the same authority and jurisdiction as the Chancellor of the Diocese with respect to the following:

1. To watch over and provide for the spiritual life of the clergy under your care, including the specification of the place where they will make their annual retreats; to grant permission for a clergyman to be absent from the Diocese for a notable period of time; and to grant the faculties of the Diocese to priests and religious within your territorial jurisdiction.

Msgr. Donald F. Doxie Page 2 January 7, 1974

- 2. In regard to religious residing within your territorial jurisdiction, you will have authority over those matters which are of an administrative nature and those which are of a judicial nature, but concern only the internal sacramental forum.
- 3. You will be able to grant the following matrimonial dispensations: Banns, Mixed Religion, Disparity of Worship, Crime, Affinity, Consanguinity, and the like. You will not be authorized to grant a dispensation from Canonical Form. This power is limited to the Bishop and the Vicar General.
- 4. In addition, you will have the responsibility within your territorial jurisdiction to act as a central spokesman for the Diocese and to act as an arbitrator in the settlement of local disputes.

In connection with the exercise of authority and jurisdiction, it is essential that there be efficient and accurate record keeping. It will, therefore, be necessary for you to keep a record of all dispensations and faculties granted, as well as copies of any official public statements. These should be forwarded, on a quarterly basis, to the Diocesan Office, marked to the attention of the Chancellor, who bears the primary responsibility for keeping all official Diocesan records and archives.

Enclosed you will find a copy of an article published in the Jurist Magazine, which describes the office and function of Episcopal Vicars. Your continued cooperation and participation in the Apostolic Ministry are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Your compliments on my sermon preached for the Golden Sacerdotal Jubilee of Monsignor O'Shea were most certainly appreciated.

When I started the project, in fact, immediately after you asked me to undertake the task, it was with considerable fear and trepidation and so I am doubly grateful for your kind words.

The princely offering that you have made for this task was totally unexpected and, indeed, far more than I could hope to receive; however, let me assure you that I have a very good place to put it to work.

Again, grateful for your many kindnesses to me on this occasion and past occasions, I am

This is to express my deep gratitude for the beautiful sermon preached on the occasion of Monsignor O'Shea's Jubilee. The presentation was most interesting, informative and presented Monsignor's lifework in a framework of special ministry.

I realize the thought and time spent in preparation but it was worth all your effort since it was so pleasing to those who listened and attended and did much to make Monsignor O'Shea realize that he is appreciated. Please accept the inclosed token of gratitude.

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Very Rev. Msgr. Donald F. Doxie, V.C., Def.V.

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi juxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unctionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuvari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reiicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus ortae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tertio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I . . . firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic . Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo damnationibus, declarationibus, praescriptis omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobo errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reiicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditiorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobo pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et criticen textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reiicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologicae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo, auod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id "I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment wherewith every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who-far worse stilladmit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these

Dear Msgr. Doxie:

Perhaps I might not have opened this letter in such a formal fashion if it was not to have the satisfaction of putting down that new title. My congratulations are a bit late but certainly sincere. It is good to see one of the rather junior members of the rank make the grade. I say this as I remember you were ordained a few months before Fox, Coughlan and myself in 1952. Therefore the reason for the reference to the junior members.

Yes Donald I'm delighted that you made the honor which is well deserved. I will be sure and pass the word on to your old friends around Corpus Christi. Paddy Higgins will be especially happy with the news.

I also want to thank you for attending to my inquiry about the forming of a foundation for the continuation of the wish of my Uncle re the Shrine at Wrightwood. This letter I have passed on the way to his son Charles J. and he will take it up from here with you and His Excellency. Doubtless you will be hearing from him in the near future.

You might drop one of the announcements along if there is going to be a formal investiture for the Monsignor. It may happen that I would be able to steal away and renew some old acquaintences. Again many thanks and heartiest congratulations,

Sincerely in Christ,

I am happy to inform Your Excellency, that my date of departure from Hawaii, has been made firm. Depending on transportation arrangements I shall leave here between the 1st and 10th of July.

I expect to take about two days for the necessary paper work needed to release me from the Navy. This work must be done in a Naval Station in California

With all of this being taken into account, I feel quite certain I will be getting away from Hawaii shortly after the first of the month and thus will be able to start work for Your Excellency, around the tenth of the month.

Only yesterday word reached me that the Navy Department has accepted my resignation from the naval service.

Due to the manner in which they are handling the matter I will be home in San Diego, and thus able to go to work for Your Excellency, sometime during the first part of July. In the next few weeks I expect to be in a position to give Your Excellency, an exact date on my arrival in San Diego.

I am aware that I told Your Excellency, I would be home and available for work during the month of June. I asked the Navy to so arrange my release that I might be able to follow this plan, unfortunately they seem to have ignored this part of my request.

Please be assured that I look forward to the time when I can once again serve Your Excellency.

I wish that I could give you the full payment at this time but living expenses here in Hawaii are quite high. Please be assured that as soon as possible I shall complete payment in this matter

I have visited with your dear friends the Timothy Lyons family. They live very near to the air station I am attached to. What a wonderful family ! After a visit with them one certainly feels a sense of pride in the tradition of the Catholic home.

I have been quite busy since my last letter to Your Excellency. As you may recall I mentioned that the other priest stationed here had been transferred. I am planning First Holy Communion for the children of the parish on Mother's Day. We will have about fifty children. Also I will have the Sacrament of Confirmation administered on May 26. Hope to have a class of about forty adults and some children. Thus for the time being I am quite occupied.

If Your Excellency, will permit me one question? I am still of a mind to come back to the diocese at the end of this required period of service. I count heavily on the advice that Your Excellency, has given me and do now further seek help. For me it is an honor to serve Your Excellency, in any capacity whatsoever. Please be assured that whatever you wish me to do I sahil be happy to comply.

My sincere condolences to Your Excellency, because of the recent loss of Monsignor Dunne, to the service of the Church and the diocese. Mother joins me in expressing our sincer wishes for Your Excellency's continued good health and to assure you of our prayers on your behalf.

Your Excellency:

First, permit me to apolegize for such a long delay in giving Yeur Excellency further information regarding my request for resignation from the Naval service. Only yesterday did I receive a final answer to my letter submitted on December 14, 1959.

The Navy Department has refused to accept my resignation. In addition they have transferred the other priest that was station here with me, thus leaving me alone. This will, of course, keep me busy for the remained of the time here.

I have received a personal letter from Monsigner Rosso, in which he has asked me to remain on active duty for the present.

Your Excellency, no doubt, will recall that during my visit of last December, I stated that I felt I would do more for the cause of religion by working at home in the diocese than in the service. I still have this conviction.

Since the Navy themselves have stated that June 1961, would be the earliest that I could hope to expect release from duty I seem to have no other alternative than to wait the time out and then make my move. If Your Excellency has any further instructions for me or advice, please command me.

Again may I say that the kindness and consideration Your Excellency, has shown me in this difficulty has been the one bright ray of hope that has kept me going.

Your Excellency, may be assured of a daily memento in the Holy Sperifice of the Mass, which I am privileged to offer.

10 December 1959

His Excellency
The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, Ph.D., S.T.D.
Bishop of San Diego
The Chancery Office, Alcala Park
San Diego 12, California

Your Excellency:

I was pleased to hear from Camp Pendleton that the Field Mass last month was again a success. I wish I could have been there for the occasion but that was not possible. I do hope that the Field Mass will continue to be held every year for the Marine Corps Birthday, as I think it is a most fitting tribute to those Marines who have passed on to their eternal reward.

Yesterday I received a letter from Colonel Nohrden, U. S. Marine Corps, whom you may recall was one of the Honor Guards for you in the first Field Mass. Colonel Nohrden is now on duty with Headquarters, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, in Hawaii. He informs me that Father Doxie is not happy with his lot as the Assistant Chaplain at the Nayal Air Station, Barber's Point. His Senior Chaplain is Father Wheaton, who apparently has a very different type of personality. Father Doxie evidently feels that he has too little to do, that he is wasting time, and Colonel Nohrden informs me that he has submitted his resignation based on this thesis. I understand that his resignation is being held up locally.

I expect that Father Doxie is probably somewhat like Father Sporrer, in that he would probably never be really happy unless he is serving with Marines, where he can feel that he is doing things which are genuinely rewarding.

I am very regretful that Father Doxie, who has such wonderful talents, ability, and determined purpose in life, is planning to resign from the Naval Service when we are so badly in need of Chaplains who take care of our men. I thought that perhaps His Excellency might agree that it would be well for Father Doxie to ride out this trying period and to stay on in the Navy. We all have trials and tribulations, and I expect that God intended it to be that way so that he could test the temper of our swords. In any event, should His Excellency agree, I would appreciate it if he would write to Father Doxie and give his best advice relative to Father Doxie's present situation.

Mrs. Snedeker and I are fairly well settled now after our move, and, while we are pleased to be here at Quantico, we still miss California a great deal. We are convinced now that, when the time for retirement comes, the locality will be Southern California.

We join in our very best wishes to His Excellency and pray that God's blessing will always be with him.

Very sincerely,

Dear General Snedeker:

The recent Solemn Pontifical Mass at Camp Pendleton to commemorate the Marine Corps Birthday recalled many cherished memories of you and Mrs. Snedeker, as well as your inspiring initiative that inaugurated this impressive religious ceremony. In fact, the speakers on this happy occasion referred to you often in their observations regarding the start of this festival.

With reference to Father Doxie, be assured that we are in accord. Enclosed herewith please find copy of a letter sent to him, which copy may be destroyed after you have read it.

Since this letter was written, however, Father Doxie paid a personal visit to this Chancery. Whatever the cause may be, my fear is that this zealous priest is under some tension.

Praying upon you and Mrs. Snedeker a triple blessing for Christmas and the New Year, I remain, with profound esteem,

Dear Bishop Buddy:

It was a privilege and an honor to be your guest at dinner during the conference held recently in Washington. I am deeply grateful for your hospitality and cordiality of that evening.

I have sent your letter referring to the work of The Reverend Francisco Jorge, pastor of Christ the King parish the Norton Air Force Base, to the Chief of Chaplains of the Air Force. I am sure you will hear from him in the near future.

Following our conversation in Washington I wrote to Father Doxie advising him that it would not be possible to change his duty station at this time. I also exhorted him to remember that we are in the United States Navy to work for the salvation of souls and we some times have many under our care, but even one soul would be enough for a priest to work for.

24 November 1959

Dear Chaplain Doxie:

Occasionally young Catholic chaplains write us as you have, namely, not enough Catholics here to warrant my presence. If aboard ship or at a shore establishment we had a stable population, your argument might be valid. However, the Catholic population of any command fluctuates with changes of duty. Chaplain allowances are not and cannot be geared to these fluctuations.

In time you may learn that chaplain allowances are not arbitrarily established, as you seem to infer. They are the result of official planning and on-site study, with final approval of the Chief of Chaplains.

The green pastures across the hill are pleasant to behold. For many years you sought admission to our pastures. You did well at two previous assignments. But it would appear that you have made no effort to make your present one a more fruitful area. Our Lord reminds us to seek the salvation of one, not one hundred and one. Have you sought your one in this assignment?

I do not believe your Bishop specified that you must always have 3,000 or more Catholics to serve in order to be an effective Catholic chaplain. In fact, he might have admonished you as you left his diocese for the United States Navy in the words of St. Francis DeSales, "One soul is a big enough parish for any priest."

With a prayer for God's blessing ypon you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE A. ROSSO Rear Admiral, CHC, USN

The Reverend Donald F. Doxie Catholic Chaplain's Office Navy #14, c/o FPO San Francisco, California

Reverend and dear Father Doxie:

Be assured that every kindly consideration has been given to your request to be released from the Navy. To make a diligent analysis of the situation in toto, the opportunity came to consult top officials here and in Washington.

Rositis ponendis, my thinking is that the Secretary of the Navy is definitely opposed to accepting your resignation at this time. If it were a question of grave salutis causa and you were recalled to the States, it would be necessary to supply your place by a P.M., which could not help the cause. But, thanks be to God, there is no question of ill health. (By the way, Father Jake DeMoor leaves today for serious major surgery in St. Louis. He has cancer of the throat, which the doctors indicate is hopeless).

Writing as one less wise, let me submit two suggestions:

If you wish to be of help to this Chancery, it would be of great advantage if you could spend the free time at your disposal in a review of canon law as related to a Chancery Office.

If you wish books on these particular subjects, please command me. If you have a great amount of free time, it would not be out of place to take a course at the University of Hawaii in some graduate study. You know, of course, that some priests become very learned by employing free time in higher studies.

My thoughts enfold your dear mother, especially because you write that she has not been well. You should complete plans so that she can return to her many devoted friends in La Jolla and thus enjoy a more normal life.

While we have contacted every possibility in an effort to obtain your release, my conviction at this time is that you should remain in the service and fulfill the obligations of your pledge of office.

This was my first reaction when you wrote your wishes and now it becomes my final bit of counsel to you.

The Reverend Donald F. Doxie Page 2 November 30, 1959

You may remember my first observations on this subject; that while today there may be little to do, next month may find you overworked. Doubtless you know that this has been the experience of many fine chaplains in the Navy.

Invoking the Holy Spirit to guide us all prudently and with becoming dignity in these problems that challenge the best of men, it is my privilege to remain

Your devoted servant in Corde Regis Regum,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, Bishop of San Diego.

Dear Andy:

Thanks very much for thinking of me and sending the editorial from your morning newspaper of 10 November. I hope that all parties concerned can get together and work out something for the best interests for all. Oddly enough, I was just talking about you this morning in a chat I had with Father Doxie. We are just getting acquainted with him and his mother. She's delightful, and his sermons are tops.

Best regards to all my friends in San Diego.

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS

3 November 1959

Dear Bishop Buddy:

We were distressed to learn that Father Doxie has expressed a desire to resign from the Chaplain Corps, United States Navy. He is one of our young Catholic priests who shows great promise and has the zeal to be of outstanding service to our Navy and Marine Corps.

Father Doxie has probably forgotten that he is obligated to serve until June 1961 and the Secretary of the Navy does not look with favor on a resignation which seeks to annul an oath of service. Perhaps the pressure of the tensions with which he is burdened has caused him to overlook this fact. If it were possible to accept his resignation, it would be six months before it would be effective because it is contingent upon the reporting of a relief. At the present time we do not even have a priest who can replace him.

We cannot prevent his submitting an official request for the acceptance of his resignation. Yet I know it could not be approved at this time. Perhaps such a reply may be the tonic he needs to clear the horizon. I regret the tenor of this letter and humbly request your understanding of the Navy's attitude.

With expressions of esteem and the hope that I may visit with you during the annual Bishops! Conference in Washington, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

George a. Rosso.

Dear Monsignor Rosso:

Be assured of my cordial thanks for the trouble you went to to explain the regulations that govern Father Doxie, and his wish to resign. My thinking is that he did not realize that he had agreed to remain in the naval service until '61. My prayerful hope is that he will not break under the strain in which he appears to be. When he first wrote to me I tried to encourage him to "stay with the ship."

Let me beg of you, confidentially, that if, at all possible, an appointment elsewhere might relieve some of the tension.

I shall be glad to welcome a visit from you while in Washington at the "Mayflower."

With kindest regards and sincere esteem,

Fraternally in Christ,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, Bishop of San Diego.

Permit me to acknowledge receipt of a copy of Your Excellency's letter to Monsignor Rosso, dated October 26, 1959.

I have already started my resignation through the proper channels and I believe that it should be on its way to Washington today.

My immediate superiors in the area have found considerable difficulty in answering my charges of waste of manpower in having two priests stationed here. In forwarding my resignation they have tried to ask for another priest to take my place. As far as I can see they have not as yet justified themselves.

It was my privilege to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Your Excellency's Feast Day, November 4, for Your Excellency's intentions.

Your Excellency's continued kindness and interest in my problem is sincerely appreciated. Enclosed please find my regular monthly report.

Your Excellency:

I am very happy to know that Your Excellency has returned to San Diego, and that the business of the ad limina visit has been brought to a successful and happy completion.

My Mother joins me in expressing prayers of thanksgiving, for Your Excellency's safe return. Even with modern transportation the traversing of seas and continents is still a great risk.

If it meets with Your Excellency's approval I will be happy to start my resignation from the Navy on its way? Thus it should arrive on Monsignor Rosso's desk shortly after Your Excellency's own letter to him.

Again thank your for Your Excellency's continued interest and kindness toward my problems.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Bureau of Naval Personnel

Dear Monsignor Rosso:

For several months Father Donald F.Doxie, Naval Chaplain, now based in Hawaii, has been under a tension. I have tried to encourage him to hold out in his dedicated service and the splendid opportunities for good that lie before him.

Father Doxie repeatedly insists on resigning from the Navy. All things considered, my conviction is that it will be better for him to return to the Diocese.

You are acquainted with the splendid character and priestly zeal of Father Doxie. Now we must beg your kind offices for his release from further military duty. In fact, the many installations in this Diocese make it possible for all our priests to serve the Navy in one way or another. You are aware of the wonderful spirit that exists between the Chaplains and the diocesan clergy.

Bespeaking for Father Doxie your confidence and esteem, I remain, with profound respect,

Most gratefully in Christ,

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, Bishop of San Diego.

Bishop of San Diego
c/o Grand Hotel

Your Excellency:

You can not know what joy Your Excellency's kind note of September 9, 1959, has brought to me.

I have tried to show my superiors here on the local scene that the presence of two priests at this station is a waste of manpower. Unfortunately they continue to feel that they do not wish to loose one allowed position for a chaplain in this area. This, of course, prevents me from making any report to Washington, on the matter. All problems of this type must go through the chain of command.

Over and beyond these considerations, I have had a continuing growing feeling that I have contributed far more to the service of the Church while working in the Diocese than here in the Navy. In short it is my conviction that whatever work Your Excellency assigns me, will provide me with the opportunity to do more for the Church than any position I would be ordered to in the military.

I am faced with one difficulty, in that, due to being on duty in Hawaii, this is classed as overseas duty. The Navy normally would not move me from here for at least two years. Accordingly for me to resign and thus be returned to the mainland, my own request will not be sufficient. In addition to this if I alone request resignation they usually drag out the red tape for months.

May I once again impose on your kindness to ask that Your Excellency write directly to Monsignor George Rosso, Navy Department, informing him that you concur with my action of resigning, that you have a post for me to fulfill and wish my very early return and release from service. This will provide the Navy with the necessary information as to whether or not my Bishop is aware of my request and if he approves of the action.

With the knowledge that Your Excellency is interested in my early return and that you have a position for me to take-up the Navy will act with considerable swiftness, otherwise I fear they will draw this matter out over months.

Permit me to assure Your Excellency that whatever you wish me to do I will gladly and willingly undertake.

I realize that Your Excellency is certainly busy with the matters of your ad limina visit, thus do not rouble yourself with my problem until your return to the Diocese.

My Mother wishes me to thank Your Excellency for your kind blessing and wishes in her behalf. We both pray for your safe journey.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Donald F. Doxie

Your Excellency:

I am very sorry to have missed the commencement exercises of the College for Men. Fortunately I was able to follow all the details in the SOUTHERN CROSS, and in the local Catholic paper here in Honolulu. I felt most proud and indeed a little sad that I could not be there to take part in a most significant and momentous event in the history of the Diocese of San Diego.

I find that being away from the Diocese and the Chancery has proven quite a cross for me. I miss the days filled with work. The everyday necessity of accomplishing the tasks assigned by Your Excellency. The constant help and guidance I received in working so closely with you.

Mother and I arrived in Honolulu on June 13, and have been trying to get settled since then. The weather has been exceedingly warm. I am a little afraid it is too much for Mother and it may be necessary to return her to San Diego.

I have always tried to face every problem to the fullest and carry it to the very end. I do not like the idea of changing from one job to another; but after over two years in the Navy, I do not seem to have accomplished very much. Certainly I am not doing for the Church anything that would compare with the work and results achieved in assisting Your Excellency.

Despite my personal feelings in these matters I am still a Catholic Priest, and as such subject to the wish of my Bishop. I feel that it is my obligation to make these facts known to you and to ask Your Excellency's advise and direction.

My talents, what few there are, and desire to work are not being used to any extent whatsoever. The present station I am on has another Priest and myself. There is not enough work for one Priest let alone two. As a result days pass without work and I can not let this go very long. I have mentioned this to my superiors here in Hawaii but they seem to feel that they could not afford the loss of one chaplain in this area, as this might leave the idea that they were not kept busy themselves.

Unfortunatly the senior Priest assigned to the station previously, who was a religious, felt he did not get sufficient time off and therefore needed help, which he received. Consequently I have fallen heir to this job which has too much time wasting envolved.

Knowning that Your Excellency, has definite need of Priests in the Diocese. I can not continue this idle time wasting without at least informing you of the matter. With the knowledge that Your Excellency has sacrificed himself in not obtaining another Secretary to assist you, save for the services of Monsignor Byrne, in the office. That Your Excellency goes about the Dioces without the assistance of a Priest and conducts cermonies frequently without a priest secretary simply that the people may be served. I can not help but feel that I could do much more for the cause of the Church at home rather than in the service. But I of myself feel that I cannot make this decision and must ask the help of my spiritual Father.

When I undertook to join the Navy I felt from all the information received that there was a genuine need for Priests in the service. This assignment has convinced me that the Diocese is in far greater need for Priests than the service.

I am embarrassed to have to write such a letter, yet my sense of obligation to the Diocese and Your Excellency demands that I lay my plight before Your Excellency.

I know that this letter will reach Your Excellency while you are on Your Ad Limina visit. Please do not trouble yourself until Your Excellency has returned from Rome, in answering my difficulty.

Wishing Your Excellency, God's choicest Blessings and all speed, I am

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Dear Father Doxie:

Even though we feel deeply indebted to General and Mrs. E. W. Snedeker, the Officers and Color Guard who so graciously assisted me as a Guard of Honor, this morning came a beautiful letter from the Major General indicating "a distinct honor to have been invited to participate in the Dedication ceremony." You know, this is genuine nobility.

For your own expert participation as Master of Ceremonies, making certain that every detail was carried out impressively, let me repeat -- ex abundantia cordis -- thanks be to God for Father Doxie!

Although you had no thought whatever of even a note of thanks, permit me to enclose a small offering to cover some of your overhead in the trips back and forth.

Over and above the splendid ceremonial, we were all very much impressed by your interest in carrying out every detail with precision and grace -- all for the glory of God.

The Major General and Officers from Camp Pendleton expressed to me their admiration of your work.

With sentiments of profound esteem and deepfelt appreciation,

Always devotedly your servant in Christ,

Your Excellency:

I have now completed six months on active duty as a Navy chaplain. During this time I have been serving as a reserve chaplain on active duty. It is now necessary that I make application for an appointment as a chaplain in the regular Navy.

Among the documents needed is another ecclesiastical endorsement from the Military Ordinariate. In order for this to be sent the Ordinariate requires an approval from Your Excellency on my application for the Regular Navy.

I therefore humbly request that Your Excellency forward to the Military Ordinariate your approval of this application.

I feel one point should be made clear for Your Excellency in this matter. This appointment as a Chaplain in the Regular Navy in no way hinders Your Excellency's right to recall me for service in the Diocese at any time that you see-fit to do so.

I hope Your Excellency will grant me the privilege of calling on you during the Christmas holidays as I will be home during the week between Christmas and New Years.

Thank you again for your numberless kindnesses to me and my Mother and wishing you a happy and holy $^{\mathbb{C}}$ hristmas, I am

Reverend and dear Bishop Buddy:

You will recall that the Roman Catholic Bishop of San Diego, a corporation sole, or its successor, is the owner of a $20,000 life insurance policy on the life of Reverend Donald Francis Doxie.

Since Father Doxie is presently a Chaplain in the United States Navy and as a result of recent legislation is unable to get life insurance as formerly offered by the U. S. Government, it undoubtedly is to your interest as well as his and, I believe, his mother's, to continue this Super-Select life insurance policy during his service tenure and thereafter. It has occured to me, however, that Father Doxie might like to make full payment of premium, partial payment of premium (on a split dollar basis with the Diocese), or make an outright contribution of $460 annually, which would be a deductible item on his income tax report while he is thus serving in the U. S. Navy.

These are merely suggestions for your consideration. At your convenience I should like an opportunity to discuss them with you.

Very cordially and respectfully yours,

Your Excellency:

It has been my intention to write to you for some time past but for some reason or other I find that the time slips away before I realize what has happened.

First off, the enclosed letter was forwarded to me from the Cathedral. I am sure that it would be much better if the answer came from the Chancery and knowing Your Excellency's special interest in this work I know you would wish to answer Father Fitzgerald yourself.

Enclosed also, please find a copy of my monthly report to the Military Ordinariate. As Your Excellency can see the numbers are not great. This station is in a rather sad condition and sorry to say my Jesuit predecessor seemed not too interested in conditions. As a result I have a considerable way to go to get some results.

I am sorry to say that as far as I can find out the Chaplains Division intends to leave me at this station for 1 year. There seems to be some confusion in the matter as far as I can see, for to date I have received no official orders contravening my first orders although I have been told by word of mouth that I will be kept here for the next year.

I was very happy to note in a recent edition of the "SOUTHERN CROSS", that Fathers Portman and Bear have returned to the Diocese and are now working in the fertil fields assigned by Your Excellency.

I have certainly taken enough of Your Excellency's precious time with my own little problems and thus may I once again express my gratitude to you for all your Fatherly help and kindness to me and my Mother.

I pray for you each day that God will Bless all your undertakings. With all filial devotion I am,

Right Reverend and dear Monsignor:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 19, 1957.

Before leaving the Chancery I had taken up the matter of the money owed to Monsignor Numez for the censor and boat with Monsignor Booth. Monsignor Booth is fully aware of the situation and he has the telephone number of Miss Spelts. I had asked him to phone her and obtain the difference between $70.00 the group had sent in and the amount owed.

Mr. Redmond has the actual bill and the check for the $70.00. I think that if you would speak to Monsignor Booth he can get after the Young Ladie's Institute #64 and get them to make up the difference. I believe Monsignor Nunez is mistaking about the amount being $200.00 it is somewhat less than this.

When I was home in May, Monsignor Nunez called me about this matter and I promised him I would take care of it. This I did by speaking to Monsignor Booth and he promised to settle the matter. If Monsignor Booth has any difficulty in finding the number of Miss Spelts either he or you can phone my home and my Mother has the number as I left it with her in case any trouble developed.

If I can be of any further assistance in this matter, Monsignor, please do not hesitate to call on me and I will do my very test to settle the matter. As to speaking to the Bishop, I do not believe that would be necessary since he knew nothing in regards to the financial arrangements made with the club and Monsignor Munez.

Please assure Monsigner Numer that I had not forgotter his request but had tried to get Monsigner Booth to handel the situation.

Thank you again for your kindness in writting to mo. I hope all will work out alright. Will see you about August 20th.

Respotibily yours in Crist

Dear Father Doxie:

Monsignor Nunez was in the Chancery yesterday and stated you had requested that he purchase a censer for His Excellency to be used in the Immaculata Chapel. This he did through his sister who, according to Monsignor, has not yet been reimbursed. Monsignor said she spent $200 for the censer.

Miss Henry has a letter dated October 1, 1956, addressed to you from Joanne Spelts, Young Ladie's Institute #64 in which a check for $70 was enclosed. Could you give me any help in this matter as I have not yet mentioned it to His Excellency.

With every kind personal wish and hoping to see you often when you return home, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Byrne

IN REPLY PLEASE REFER TO:

Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy The Chancery Alcala Park San Diego 12, Calif.

Your Excellency:

Your most welcome letter arrived this morning telling us that you are willing to release Father Doxie for service in the armed forces after April 1, 1957. I know that this release costs you a real sacrifice. I can only say that we are indeed most grateful, for the need of chaplains is acute. I hope that you will find some consolation in the thought that the chaplains who meet you are most grateful for your interest in them and in the young men they serve.

This is the subject of a refrain that we hear from all of them, whether in the forces afloat or with the Marine contingents in the training areas in your diocese.

May you be blessed.

Devotedly yours,

Your Excellency:

The Reverend Donald F. Doxie, secretary and vice-chancellor of this Diocese, is hereby granted permission to apply for an appointment in the Chaplain Corps, U. S. Navy.

Father Doxie will make his own personal application, submitting therewith his curriculum vitae.

Father Doxie's release will work a real hardship on this Chancery because he is efficient, courteous and devoted to his work. He also has the gift of getting along with people, and his uniform courtesy to nearly 400 priests working in this Jurisdiction has won their esteem and appreciation.

With kindest regards, I remain in union of prayer

Your Excellency:

In response to the recent request of His Eminence the Military Vicar of the United States, may I respectfully make application to become a Chaplain in the United States Navy.

Having served for three years in the second World War as an enlisted man in the Navy, I feel that I would be of greater service and use to the Church and the Navy in that branch of the armed service.

My Most Reverend Ordinary places one restriction upon this application, and that is, that I am not called to active service before 1 April 1957.

Enclosed please find the letter of endorsement of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Ordinary of the Diocese of San Diego.

Thanking you for your kindness and interest in this application, I await your further instructions. With every personal best wish and prayer, I am

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Donaldus J. Dotie

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi juxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unctionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuvari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reiicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus ortae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tertio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I . . . firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo damnationibus, declarationibus, praescriptis omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobo errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reiicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditiorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobo pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et criticen textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reiicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologicae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo. quod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id "I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment wherewith every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who-far worse stilladmit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these

His hely gospels.

The Rev. Doctor Vincent Bartuska Immaculate Heart Seminary P.O. Box 1118 El Cajon, California

Dear Father Bartuska:

Will you please give some thought to the following case:

You may recall that a special dispensation was required for the ordination of Rev. Donald Doxie. The dispensation was received from Rome, but it restricted the area outside of the See City, for reasons which you may understand.

Will you kindly request Monsignor Hurd to give you this dispensation so you can brief its different angles?

The priest in question is anxious to be near his mother, who is failing in health. We are, therefore, considering a petition to the Cardinal Prefect of Holy Office, requesting a modification of the conditions imposed with the granting of the related dispensation.

Please read the enclosed letter and during Holy Week we can discuss the case and its possibilities.

With kindest regards and cordial Easter Greetings,

Devotedly your servant in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy Bishop of San Diego

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy Bishop of San Diego 1528 Fourth Avenue San Diego, California

Most Reverend and dear Bishop:

In accordance with your conversation with Father Maher during the last week set forth below is the information requested by you in regard to the car I wish to purchase and the amount I would like to borrow from the Chancery.

The car is a 1950 Chevrolet De Lux coupe. The car has only been driven 6,000 miles, it is practically a new car. It is being sold by the estate of the present owner. The total price is $1600.00, I have for immediate payment $500.00 and thus would like to borrow $1100.00.

I have priced this model car on the open market and similar cars are selling from $1650.00 up as high as $1795.00. These car all have been driven a considerable amount more than the present car I wish to purchase.

With my salary of $50.00 a month and the few mass stipends that I receive I do not believe that I could make payments to you of more than $30.00 per month.

I hope that Your Excellency will approve this request and that it can be satisfactorily completed. I wish to thank Your Excellency for the kindness and consideration shown me on my first appointment. I consider myself a most fortunate young man to have a pastor such as Fr. Maher.

May I once again express to you my pledge of fidelity and obedience given by me on my Ordination day. Praying for you continued good health and the Blessings of Almighty God I am

Respectfully yours in Christ,

Donald F. Doxie

The Reverend Donald F. Doxde 455 North Central Avenue Chino, California

Reverend and dear Father Doxie:

Responding to your esteemed request of April 21, 1952, you will find, herewith, a check for $1100.00 representing a loan to assist in your purchase of a car. Please sign the inclosed note and return to this office. Your letter mentions "the few Mass stipends that I receive". If you write to this Chancery you can be assured of thirty Mass stipends each month. These offerings, however, are not sent out except by your request each month at the same time indicating that you have satisfied the obligations of those received the previous month.

Such a loan should not extend over three years. If you could arrange to cover it in that time, it will be better all around.

We note what you write about the difficulties of getting a supply in Father Maher's place for May 18. Please write a line to and ask if he could give you a lift starting Sunday, May 18. With several priests ill, we will not be able to supply you with a priest from here nor would it be practical for week-ends. It may become necessary to get an Indult for you to offer three Masses for the summer. Please keep me informed as to your progress.

With every good wish for your success and well-being,

Falthfully your servant in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, Bishop of San Diego.
