Office of the Bishop

July 13, 1997

Dear Msgr. Kearney:

I am writing to thank you again for your service to the Nazareth House community as chaplain there since you received the status of a retired priest in February 1993. Thanks be to God, your health has allowed you to serve in this capacity for so long.

Now that two other priests have assumed the chaplaincy duties at Nazareth House you should move out of your home and into residence there in which situation, given the present state of your health, you will have a safer environment. Sister Fidelis and her staff are ready to assist you in making this change by August 1.

May God continue to bless you and keep you as active as possible in our presbyterate and diocese.

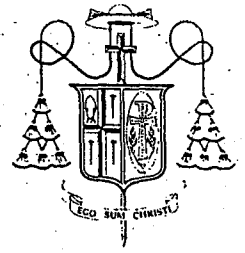

Fraternally in our Lord,

Bishop of San Diego

Dear Monsignor Kearney:

I am writing to confirm that you should complete your ministry as Pastor at Immaculate Conception Parish, Old Town, on February 22, 1993, at which time you should begin your chaplaincy duties at Nazareth House.

Thank you again for your priestly ministry since your ordination in 1953. May God bless you in active retirement.

I am writing to grant your request for retirement status as of January 1, 1993, grateful to God and to you for your priestly ministry in the Diocese of San Diego since your ordination on March 25, 1953.

I will let you know as soon as I am able to name a new pastor for Immaculate Conception Parish. Then, we can set an effective date, at which time you will be able to move to Nazareth House as a senior priest with chaplaincy duties there.

I pray that in your active retirement the grace of your ordination will continue to bear fruit and that "God who has begun the good work in you will bring it to fulfillment."

Dear Msgr. Dan;

Thanks for your letter, June 2, 1995 , in re annual vacation, etc.

I will take my annual vacation, the month of August '95 ✓
Fr. Vincent E. Lorenz will supply during my absence..
I told him that " remuneration is a $100 a week but this is negotiable...the Diocese of San Diego is responsible."

Renewed thanks.

Dear Msgr. Kearney:

This is to formalize the responsibilities and benefits as chaplain to Nazareth House. It is my understanding that in return for celebration of daily masses and visitation of the infirmary that you will be remunerated with the use of a house on Nazareth property. I do note in your letter of May 3, 1995, that you also hear confessions, administer the Sacrament of the Sick, celebrate Benediction and lead a Holy Hour.

In response to your questions related to coverage and stipend of a supply priest for your annual vacation of one month, convocation/retreat days, and other reasonable requests for absences from your duties, the Diocese of San Diego will be responsible for remuneration.

To arrange for a supply, I would suggest either contacting other priests at Nazareth or from the diocesan supply list. Two suggested priests are Fr. James Conte and Fr. Robert Waters. The rate of remuneration is $100 a week but this is negotiable. When you are going to be away you simply need to give your notice of the days covered, and by whom and we will see to it that they are paid for their services.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Monsignor Dan:

This is a request for a letter to the Superior of Nazareth House in re the Chaplain. You were to write it in February '93 and send me a copy but your Secretary was on Jury Duty and the letter was never written. Let's refresh your memory and how you became involved.

In the Fall of '92, Bishop Brom called me to his office at the Pastoral Center. His question was: "What are you going to do when you retire?" He got my response. Then he said: "Why don't you go as Chaplain to Nazareth House? They want you and they have a house for you." I accepted. Later that after-noon he phoned me and told me that Sister John was delighted I had chosen to come to Nazareth as Chaplain. He added, "I told her, 'you know Sister he will have to get a remuneration.'"

I had known Sister John since 1977. I wrote her for a job description, and thanked her for requesting the Bishop to assign me as their Chaplain. The response to my letter was a Thank You Note and the Irish colloquialism, "You'll do fine."

Before I went to Nazareth you had me come to your office to relay to me the Chaplain's Duties at Nazareth and remuneration according to Sister John: "Responsible for the Masses, visit the Infirmary once a week and the remuneration was the house."

You were to write Sister and tell her I would be responsible for the Masses for eleven months of the year, get a month's vacation, The Priest Supply and his stipend would be the responsibility of Nazareth House. The letter was never written.

Presently, I celebrate two Masses daily, 7.00 a.m. and 9.30 a.m., hear Confessions weekly, administer the Sacrament of the Sick to all the Residents (eligible because of age) monthly, Benediction, Holy Hour, visit the Infirmary once a week.

I got a vacation in '93, because I had made arrangements about a Supply when I was Pastor at Immaculate Conception. I took care of the stipend. Didn't get a vacation in '94. It was mentioned in the corridor, "You can take a vacation." I wasn't told any arrangements about a Supply.

I would like a letter to come from the Diocesan Office to Sister Margaret stating that The Chaplain is entitled: ~~$~~

- a) Annual vacation of one month. Priest Supply and stipend responsibility of Nazareth House.
- b) Free to attend Convocation/Retreat
- c) One Day-Off yearly of 24 hours duration to visit relatives in Sherman Oaks and Northridge.

The "remuneration" the house, is not a palatial residence, built on an ant hill, you have to keep a supply of RAID. The Bishop was here at Christmas and I told him I didn't get the remuneration he had in mind. He was surprised. I'm satisfied I'm not living in the lap of luxury. That is all for now.

Trusting you will get a letter off to Sister Margaret and oblige yours

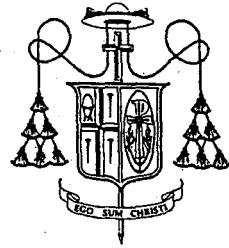

In Christo,

Pat Kearney

MEMORANDUM

February 10, 1993

TO: Msgr. Patrick J. Kearney and Sister John Berchman
FROM: Rev. Msgr. Daniel J. Dillabough
RE: Agreement for compensation for Msgr. Kearney as Chaplain at Nazareth House

He would be responsible for scheduling a priest to celebrate a daily Mass at 7:15 and 9:30 a.m. as agreed upon with the Sisters. Once a month he would administer the sacrament of sick. He would take communion two times a week to the infirmary and those who are bedridden. On Sunday afternoon, he would celebrate or schedule someone to celebrate Benediction at 4:00. Every first Friday he would celebrate or schedule a Holy hour at 4:00. Compensation for these services would be room and board and the cost of supply during his vacation time.

If this agreement is acceptable, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Sister says he is not well received and to have him say both the 7:15 & 9:30 Mass is less than desirable. Fr. Thompson and Fr. Lorenz are preferred. Could they be free to make decision of who says one of the Masses?

Anna Margaretha Maria Kothuis-Van Son, Mother of Msgr. Hans Kothuis
Surgery: Monsignor Patrick J. Kearney
Father John Nesbitt

It is with sadness that I inform you of the death of Monsignor Michael Cooney on June 29. He was ordained for the Diocese of San Diego in 1939. He served at St. John's and Our Lady of Angels in San Diego and St. Peter's in Fallbrook. When the diocese was divided, he was included in the Diocese of San Bernardino. A vigil service will be held on Thursday, July 2 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Anthony Church in Upland and a Requiem Mass will be celebrated there on Friday, July 3rd at 11:00 a.m. by Bishop Straling.

I regret to inform you that Bridget Byrne, mother of Father George Byrne, died at Nazareth House, June 28, 1992, at the age of 90. Services will be held in New Rochelle, New York, at 9:30 on July 2. A Memorial Mass will be held at Nazareth House where she lived for 12 years. Those arrangements will be made upon Father Byrne's return from New York.

It is with regret that I inform you of the death of Anna Margaretha Maria Kothuis-Van Sol, mother of Msgr. Hans Kothuis, who passed away on June 27 in The Netherlands. Msgr. Kothuis' address is Nunziatura Apostolica, Avenida Maximo Gomez 27, Apartado Postal 312, Santo Domingo Dominican Republic.

Let us in prayerful reflection offer our Masses and prayers on behalf of the Cooney, Byrne and Kothuis families.

Open heart surgeries have been performed on Father John Nesbitt and Monsignor Patrick Kearney during the past week at Mercy Hospital. Please keep them in your prayers for a speedy recovery.

March 7, 1989

Dear Bishop Maher,

My family and I spent the weekend of March 4 and 5 in San Diego. We attended the 12:15 liturgy at Immaculate Conception in Old Town.

Everything was fine until midway through his homily, the priest stopped reading and after a brief pause asked someone to leave because their children were being unruly. When the priest got no response, he then said quite loudly and with a snap of his fingers and wave of his hand, "You there, in the second row, do you speak English???" He then again asked them to remove their "disruptive children". As the couple got up to leave with their children, the priest proceeded to inform the congregation that it's unfair to us all to have noisy kids in church. People want to hear what the priest is saying...AND THE BISHOP WANTS IT THAT WAY TOO!!"

After a brief moment of prayerful meditation, I decided that I MUST make a statement against this blatant discrimination. So, I turned to my wife and said, I have to leave." Her response was, "So do I." We walked out of church with our children (13 and 14 yrs. old), as did several other families (conservative estimate: some 25 people left the church.)

I am extremely offended that in 1989, this priest thinks it's alright to address people from the pulpit in such an unchristian manner, to embarrass and humiliate them in front of 300-400 people and then ask them to leave.

I am extremely offended that in 1989 this priest thinks it's O.K. to discriminate against our Catholic children and young Catholic parents.

We could hear the children in church but we never thought they were being "unruly". It was just normal behavior that one anticipates from small children when in church. As we spoke with other people that left Mass in protest, it was the general consensus that the priest was the one with the unruly behavior. We were all in shock.

We felt fortunate in being able to speak with the family who were kicked out of Mass. We told them that we too were angry, frustrated and shocked by this man's unchristian attitude and that we left in support of them and to make a nonverbal statement to him.

I certainly hope that when that young family walked out of Immaculate Conception March 5th, that it wasn't for the last time. Or the last time for the others who left in support.

I am relieved that our non-Catholic friends were not with us! I would have been very embarrassed and humiliated with them experiencing the superciliousness of this priest. To me he certainly does not represent my Catholic Church!

Sincerely,

c.c. Bishop Leo Maher

Most Reverend and dear Bishop:

May I respectfully suggest, if there is an impasse, in finding a solution to the problem in All Hallows parish, that the following be considered.

Monsignor Pat Fox and Monsignor Ed Creighton exchange pastorates.

Monsignor Fox was a former Assistant in La Jolla. He is industrious, zealous, kind, easy to-get-along-with and loyal to his Bishop. He has been Pastor of St. Agnes for more than ten years.

Monsignor Creighton spent five years as an Assistant at St. Agnes. He has friends in Point Loma and is familiar with the place and I think would find it congenial. A former Chancellor of the Diocese, Monsignor Forrestal, was Pastor of St. Agnes during years Ed was Assistant. There are no problems at St. Agnes and it has an Associate familiar with the Portuguese language.

At the last Personnel Board meeting you ask us to write you if we had suggestions as to pastors who should be considered for changes. I feel that I am not out of place, even if it be the 'eleventh hour' in writing you.

With best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely in Christ

In re: Fr. John Nesbitt and St. Mary Magdalene Parish.

Most Reverend and dear Bishop:

At your direction I spoke with Fr. Nesbitt. The response was that he is happy and no problems with St. Mary Magdalene Parish, Jacumba.

I gather from Fr. Nesbitt that he was trying to convey - in a circumlocutory way - to Monsignor Cooney that an absence from the parish for a few days was a necessity and in that way presume your tacit permission for his absence.

Fr. Nesbitt comes to Old Town to attend a meeting in Fr. Junipero Serra Hall every Tuesday morning with the "Support Group" of priests. He stays at St. Martin's, La Mesa and helps out on the Associate's day-off. Returns to Jacumba Thursday. So, his absence from the parish includes also his day-off.

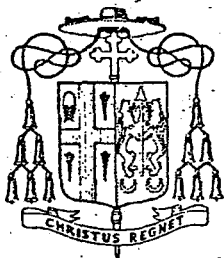

Father is scheduling a Mass at the Indian Chapel - recently refurbished and a new roof - Friday evenings. He seems to have sufficient activities with Jacumba and Campo to keep him busy and contented the rest of the time.

Fr. Nesbitt wishes me to convey to Your Excellency his gratitude and appreciation for the interest and concern for his welfare and is happy with the opportunity to serve as Pastor of St. Mary Magdalene, Jacumba.

With best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely in Christ

Most Reverend and dear Bishop:

I wish to apply for the Pastorate of Immaculate Conception Parish, Old Town, San Diego.

I am a priest of the Diocese, ordained March 25, 1953, at St. Joseph's Cathedral. Served as an Associate in Lemon Grove, St. Mary's, El Centro, St. Joseph's, Upland, and St. John's San Diego. Being a Pastor successfully in St. Ann's, Needles, Immaculata, Alcala Park, and the present assignment since October 1968.

Both the spiritualities and the temporalities of St. John of the Cross Parish have been administered with satisfaction to the people, and, Episcopal visitations have always been followed by a letter of commendation.

The Dominican Sisters, through their Provincial, expressed an interest in the operation of the school and will probably next year provide the Principal. All Parish organizations are vibrant and active. The response to Stewardship '77 was generous not only with regard to Treasure -- exceeding our goal -- but to Time and Talent. Presently a visitation of all homes in the parish, both Catholic and non-Catholic, is underway.

I believe that now is the time for me to make a change and at my age Immaculate Conception Parish, Old Town, San Diego, is the parish that I could best serve as Pastor. I will give to the Pastorate the zeal and industry that nature and grace will provide to serve the People of God.

Trusting that I will receive this appointment, I am

Yours gratefully,

Frank,

This letter is to clarify a most serious mistake. It has come to my attention that I have been accused by members of your Board of making some statements about Fr. Pat Kearney. Some of the members of the Board seem to be of the opinion that Fr. Kearney was unkind to me, and even mistreated me while I was his associate at St. John's. I wish to go on record by stating once and for all that Fr. Pat Kearney was not unkind, nor did he mistreat me in any way. I do not know how this lie got started, and I think an apology is due to Fr. Kearney.

Thank you,

The Reverend Michael Nolan has informed me of the proposed new parish in Oceanside with the suggestion that I apply to Your Excellency for the task of establishing it. Also, in February 1957 Your Excellency told me that I would be eligible in two years to take charge of a parish.

I am in the Diocese of San Diego almost ten years and close to forty years of age. Pursued my studies at the Diocesan Seminary and was ordained by Your Excellency on March 25, 1953.

Being an Assistant at St. John's is an appointment I am happy to hold unless Your Excellency wishes to give me greater responsibilities and in that case, Deo Volenti, I am available.

Reverend and dear Father Kearney:

With reference to your esteemed inquiry of November 13, 1958, be assured that in my thinking many valuable qualifications commend you to organize and build a new parish.

On the other hand, you would be the first to admit that other equally competent priests are senior to you.

It would be better to consider you first for a parish in the Valley or the Desert and then later, after you have held one or two successful tenures, promote you to a coast parish which seem to be the most desirable.

You can understand, too, that at the present time our greatest problem is not to fill pastorates, but to supply assistants.

Please carry along with us for a while and invoke the Holy Spirit to guide me prudently.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully your servant in Christ,

But I could not get away from here last week nor is there a likelihood this week seeing that Father Browne is still not too well.

Certainly it was very thoughtful of Father Browne to bring before you the circumstances of my Mother in Ireland and of my obligation to help her. He has indeed been most kind to me since I came here as his Assistant.

As an expression of my appreciation for your kindness and graciousness in granting this favor, I shall offer a novena of Masses for Your Excellency's intentions.

Your Excellency:

This is a follow-up note to inform you that Father Patrick Kearney will be released for limited duties this coming Tuesday or Wednesday, November 1st or 2nd.

During his recent stay in the hospital his condition has improved somewhat, however his cardiograms are still abnormal and he still witnesses an occasional bout of pre-cordial distress. As previously stated Father should continue to avoid exertion or fatigue in the future. It would be permissible for Father to use the stairways provided he takes his time and there are not too many of them.

Father mentioned that there was a possibility of him being stationed in Oceanside which in my opinion would be quite suitable. At present I would recommend that Father's physical condition be reevaluated every four to six weeks for the present. Should he be stationed in San Diego I will refer him to an internist friend of mine practicing there. Should he be stationed close to Los Angeles I would be very happy to see him myself.

Should there be any further questions in regards to his case please feel free to contact me at any time.

Your Excellency,

I am writing to inform you of the fact that Father Patrick Kearney is at present in the St. Francis Hospital in Lynwood, California for the purpose of evaluating and further treating his cardiac status.

Father Kearney has just arrived from Chicago and I felt that it was necessary to re-hospitalize him because of his complaints. His physical status at the moment is satisfactory however there still presists definite evidence of coronary insufficiency and he is still subject to attacks of abnormal heart rhythm. In my opinion Father should be able to resume light to moderate activities on or about November 1, 1955.

Appropriate medical measures have been prescribed and Father has been advised as to his limitations from a physical standpoint. In brief he should avoid over exertion as in one instance by climbing stairs or steep hills and by all means he should avoid fatigue from any cause. Under appropriate conditions and medical treatment I feel that Father's prognosis is good, however it may be a number of months before the condition has been completely cured. I feel that it's also important that he have periodic medical check-ups and adequate medical supervision.

Should there be any further questions in regards to his case please feel free to contact me in regards to same.

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Patricius Joseph Kearney

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor. Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuari. Similiter et Sanctos una cum Christo regnantes venerandos atque invocandos esse, eosque orationes Deo pro nobis offerre, atque eorum Reliquias esse venerandas. Firmiter assero imagines Christi, ac Deiparae semper Virginis, nec non aliorum Sanctorum habendas et retinendas esse, atque eis debitum honorem ac venerationem impertiendam. Indulgentiarum etiam potestatem a Christo in Ecclesia relictam fuisse, illarumque usum Christiano populo maxime salutarem esse affirmo. Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Romanam Ecclesiam, omnium ecclesiarum matrem et magistram agnosco, Romanoque Pontifice, beati Petri Apostolorum Principis successori, ac Iesu Christi Vicario veram obedientiam spondeo ac iuro. Caetera item omnia a sacris Canonibus et Oecumenicis Conciliis, ac praecipue a sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo, et ab oecumenico Concilio Vaticano tradita, definita ac declarata, praesertim de Romani Pontificis Primatu et infallibili magisterio, indubitanter recipio atque profiteor; simulque contraria omnia, atque haereses quascumque ab Ecclesia damnatas et reiectas et anathematizatas, ego pariter damno, reiicio, et anathematizo. Hanc veram Catholicam Fidem, extra quam nemo salvus esse potest, quam in praesenti sponte profiteor et veraciter teneo, eandem integram et inviolatam usque ad extremum vitae spiritum constantissime, Deo adiuvante, retinere et confiteri, atque a meis subditis, seu illis, quorum cura ad me in munere meo spectabit, teneri, et doceri et praedicari, quantum in me erit, curaturum, ego idem N. spondeo, voveo ac iuro.

Item firmiter amplector ac recipio omnia et singula, quae ab inerranti Ecclesiae magisterio definita, adserta ac declarata sunt, praesertim ea doctrinae capita, quae huius temporis erroribus directo adversantur. Ac primum quidem Deum, rerum omnium principium et finem, naturali rationis lumine per ea quae facta sunt, hoc est, per visibilia creationis opera, tamquam causam per effectus, certo cognosci, adeoque demonstrari etiam posse, profiteor. Secundo: Externa revelationis argumenta, hoc est, facta divina, in primisque miracula et prophetias admitto et agnosco tamquam signa certissima divinitus ortae Christianae Religionis, eademque teneo aetatum omnium atque hominum, etiam huius temporis, intelligentiae esse maxime accommodata. Tercio: Firma pariter fide credo, Ecclesiam, verbi revelati custodem et magistram, per ipsum verum atque historicum Christum, cum apud nos degeret, proxime ac directo institutam, eandemque super Petrum, apostolicae hierarchiae principem eiusque in aevum successores aedificatam. Quarto: Fidei doctrinam ab Apostolis per orthodoxos Patres eodem sensu eademque semper sententia ad nos usque transmissam, sincere recipio; ideoque prorsus reiicio haereticum commentum evolutionis dogmatum, ab uno in alium sensum transeuntium, diversum ab eo, quem prius habuit Ecclesia; pariterque damno errorem omnem, quo divino deposito, Christi Sponsae tradito ab Eaque fideliter custodiendo, sufficitur philosophicum inventum, vel creatio humanae conscientiae, hominum conatu sensim efformatae et in posterum indefinito progressu perficiendae. Quinto: Certissime teneo ac sincere profiteor, Fidem non esse caecum sensum religionis e latebris subconscientiae erumpentem, sub pressione cordis et inflexionis voluntatis moraliter informatae, sed verum assensum intellectus veritati extrinsecus acceptae ex auditu, quo nempe, quae a Deo personali, creatore ac domino nostro dicta, testata et revelata sunt, vera esse credimus, propter Dei auctoritatem summe veracis.

"I.... firmly hold and accept each and every definition of the unerring teaching of the Church, with all she has maintained and declared, but especially those points of doctrine which expressly combat the errors of our time. In the first place I profess my belief that God, the beginning and end of all, can be certainly known and therefore proved to exist by the natural light of reason from the things that are made, that is, from the visible works of the creation as a cause from its effects. Next I recognize and acknowledge the external arguments of revelation, that is, divine facts, especially miracles and prophecies, as most certain signs of the divine origin of the Christian religion, and I hold that these are altogether suited to the understanding of every age and of all men, also of our times. Thirdly, I likewise hold with firm faith that the Church, the guardian and exponent of the revealed Word, was proximately and directly founded by the true and historic Christ Himself, while He dwelt amongst us, and that she was also built upon Peter, the Prince of the Apostolic Hierarchy, and upon his successors to the end of time. Fourthly, I sincerely accept the teaching of faith as transmitted down to us from the Apostles through the orthodox Fathers in the same sense and even in the same wording; and, therefore, I wholly reject the heretical notions of the evolution of dogmas, which pass from one sense to another alien to that which the Church held from the start; and I likewise condemn every error whereby is substituted for the divine deposit, entrusted by Christ to His Spouse and by Her to be faithfully guarded, a philosophic system or the creation of a human consciousness, gradually refined by the striving of men and finally to be perfected hereafter by indefinite progress. Fifthly, I hold for certain and sincerely profess that Faith is not a blind religious sense making its way out of the hidden regions of the sub-liminal consciousness, morally tinged by the influence of heart and will, but is a true assent of the intellect to truth received from without by hearing, an assent whereby we believe to be true, because of the authority of the all-true God, whatever by the personal God, our Creator and Lord, has been spoken, testified and revealed.

Me etiam, qua par est, reverentia, subiicio totoque animo adhaereo damnationibus, declarationibus, praescriptis omnibus, quae in Encyclicis litteris "Pascendi" et in Decreto "Lamentabili" continentur, praesertim circa eam quam historiam dogmatum vocant. Idem reprobō errorem affirmantium, propositam ab Ecclesia fidem posse historiae repugnare, et Catholica dogmata, quo sensu nunc intelliguntur, cum verioribus Christianae religionis originibus componi non posse. Damno quoque ac reiicio eorum sententiam, qui dicunt, Christianum hominem eruditorem induere personam duplicem, aliam credentis, aliam historici, quasi liceret historico ea retinere, quae credentis fidei contradicant, aut praemissas adstruere, ex quibus consequatur dogmata esse aut falsa aut dubia, modo haec directo non denegentur. Reprobō pariter eam Scripturae Sanctae diiudicandae atque interpretandae rationem, quae, Ecclesiae traditione, analogia Fidei, et Apostolicae Sedis normis posthabitis, rationalistarum commentis inhaeret, et critice textus velut unicam supremamque regulam, haud minus licenter quam temere amplectitur. Sententiam praeterea illorum reiicio qui tenent, doctori disciplinae historicae theologicae tradendae, aut iis de rebus scribenti seponendam prius esse opinionem ante conceptam sive de supernaturali origine Catholicae traditionis, sive de promissa divinitus ope ad perennem conservationem uniuscuiusque revelati veri; deinde scripta Patrum singulorum interpretanda solis scientiae principiis, sacra qualibet auctoritate seclusa, eaque iudicii libertate, qua profana quaevis monumenta solent investigari. In universum denique me alienissimum ab errore profiteor, quo modernistae tenent in sacra traditione nihil inesse divini; aut, quod longe deterius, pantheistico sensu illud admittunt; ita ut nihil iam restet nisi nudum factum et simplex, communibus historiae factis aequandum; hominum nempe sua industria, sollertia, ingenio scholam a Christo eiusque Apostolis inchoatam per subsequentes aetates continuantium. Proinde fidem Patrum firmissime retineo et ad extremum vitae spiritum retinebo, de charismate veritatis certo, quod est, fuit eritque semper in episcopatus ab Apostolis successione; non ut id

"I further, with all due reverence, submit and with my whole mind adhere to all the condemnations, declarations, and ordinances contained in the Encyclical letter Pascendi and in the Decree Lamentabili, particularly regarding what is called the history of Dogma.

"I also reject the error of those who aver that the Faith proposed by the Church may be in conflict with history, and that Catholic dogmas in the sense in which they are now understood cannot be harmonized with the more truthful "origins" of Christianity. Moreover, I condemn and reject the opinion which declares that a Christian man of better culture can assume a dual personality, one as a believer and another as an historian, as if it were permissible for the historian to hold fast what his faith as a believer contradicts, or to lay down premises from which there follows the falsity or the uncertainty of dogmas, provided only that these are not directly denied. Likewise I reject that method of estimating and interpreting Holy Writ, which, setting aside the Church's tradition and the analogy of Faith and the rules of the Apostolic See, adopts the rationalists' principles and with equal arbitrariness and rashness considers criticism of the text the one only supreme rule. Furthermore, I reject the opinion of those who hold that a teacher of the science of Historical Theology or the writer on the subject must first put aside the notions previously conceived about the supernatural origin of Catholic tradition or about the divine aid promised for the perpetual preservation of each revealed truth; then, that the writings of individual Fathers must be interpreted solely by the data of science, without any reference to sacred authority, and with that freedom of judgment where-with every profane record is usually examined.

"Finally and in general, I declare myself to be far removed from the error of the modernists who hold that in sacred tradition there is nothing inherently divine; or who—far worse still—admit it in a pantheistic sense; so that thus there would remain only a bare simple fact equal to the ordinary facts of history, viz., that the school started by Christ and His Apostles finds, in the ages that follow, men to carry it on by their energy, their skill, and their genius. Wherefore most firmly do I retain and to my last breath will I retain the Faith of the Fathers of the Church concerning the sure endowment of truth, which teneatur quod melius et aptius videri possit secundum suam cuiusque aetatis culturam, sed ut nunquam aliter credatur, nunquam aliter intelligatur absoluta et immutabilis veritas ab initio per Apostolos praedicata.

Haec omnia spondeo me fideliter, integre sincereque servaturum et inviolabiliter custoditurum, nusquam ab iis sive in docendo sive quomodolibet verbis scriptisque deflectendo. Sic spondeo, sic iuro, sic me Deus adjuvet, et haec sancta Dei Evangelia.

is, has been, and ever will be in the succession of the Episcopate from the Apostles; not in such a way that what seems best and most fitting according to the refinement of each age may be held, but that the absolute and unchangeable truth preached from the beginning by the Apostles may never in any different wise be believed, never in any different wise be understood.

All this I promise that I will faithfully, entirely and sincerely keep and inviolably guard, and from this never in teaching or howsoever by word or writing in the least depart. So I promise, so I swear, so help me God and these His holy gospels.

PROFESSIONIS FIDEI ET IURISIURANDI FORMULA

Praescripta in Motu Proprio "Sacrorum Antistitum" Pii PP. X. die 1. mensis Sept., anni 1910.

Ego, N.N., Patricius Joseph Kearney

firma fide credo et profiteor omnia et singula, quae continentur in symbolo Fidei, quo sancta Romana Ecclesia utitur, videlicet: Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de caelis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, et Homo factus est. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis; sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in caelum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos; cuius regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et Unam, Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum. Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen. Apostolicas et ecclesiasticas traditiones, reliquasque eiusdem Ecclesiae observationes et constitutiones firmissime admitto et amplector. Item sacram Scripturam iuxta eum sensum, quem tenuit et tenet sancta Mater Ecclesia, cuius est iudicare de vero sensu et interpretatione sacrarum Scripturarum, admitto; nec eam unquam, nisi iuxta unanimem consensum Patrum, accipiam et interpretabor: Profiteor quoque septem esse vere et proprie Sacramenta novae Legis a Iesu Christo Domino nostro instituta, atque ad salutem humani generis, licet non omnia singulis, necessaria, scilicet, Baptismum, Confirmationem, Eucharistiam, Paenitentiam, Extremam Unionem, Ordinem et Matrimonium: illaque gratiam conferre; et ex his Baptismum, Confirmationem et Ordinem sine sacrilegio reiterari non posse. Receptos quoque et approbatos Ecclesiae Catholicae ritus in supradictorum omnium Sacramentorum sollemni administratione recipio et admitto. Omnia et singula, quae de peccato originali et de iustificatione in sacrosancta Tridentina Synodo definita et declarata fuerunt, amplector et recipio. Profiteor pariter in Missa offerri Deo verum, proprium et propitiatorium Sacrificium pro vivis et defunctis; atque in sanctissimo Eucharistiae sacramento esse vere, realiter et substantialiter Corpus et Sanguinem una cum anima et divinitate Domini nostri Iesu Christi, fierique conversionem totius substantiae panis in corpus et totius substantiae vini in Sanguinem, quam conversionem Catholica Ecclesia Transubstantiationem appellat. Fateor etiam sub altera tantum specie totum atque integrum Christum, verumque Sacramentum sumi. Constanter teneo Purgatorium esse, animasque ibi detentas fidelium suffragiis iuari. Mr. Patrick Joseph Kearney
28 Frederick Road
Stechford
Birmingham 9, England

My dear Mr. Kearney:

His Excellency has directed me to express his acceptance of you as a student for the priesthood in the Diocese of San Diego.

It is His Excellency's desire that you come as quickly as possible to America in order to pursue your studies to that end. Since we have our own Seminary at San Diego, we may be able to fit you into a course corresponding to the credits you have already received in previous colleges. It will be well, therefore, for you to obtain a transcript of credits from these colleges.

Regarding your transportation, from England, it would be well for you to contact Mr. Counihan at the Universal Travel Bureau, Killarney, Ireland. Mr. Counihan has been most cooperative in obtaining passage for priests and students coming to America. We will prepare an affidavit of support which will be necessary in the obtaining of your visa to enter America. Kindly keep us informed of all further developments and feel free to call upon us for any help you may need.

With every good wish, I remain,

Very sincerely yours in Christ,

Reverend Joseph N. Stadler
Vice Chancellor

The Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy,
Bishop of San Diego,
1528 Fourth Avenue
San Diego, California.

Most Reverend and Dear Bishop,

I, the undersigned, Patrick Joseph Kearney, a student for the Diocese of San Diego, hereby humbly petition Your Excellency to be promoted to Clerical Tonsure if I am judged worthy.

In presenting this petition to Your Excellency I do so entirely of my own free and spontaneous will and am moved thereunto by no consideration other than the promotion of the glory of God in the service of the Church and the salvation of my own soul.

Your Excellency's most humble servant,
Patrick Joseph Kearney.

Most Reverend and Dear Bishop:

In compliance with the Instruction of the Sacred Congregation the Sacraments of December 27, 1930, I humbly petition Your Excellency be promoted to the Sacred Order of Subdiaconship.

In presenting this petition, I solemnly declare that I am actuated by no motive of fear, either physical or moral, that I am in no way coerced by parent, relative, pastor, assistant pastor any other agency whatsoever, but make this request of my own free & spontaneous will, & that I am fully aware of the grave obligation of perpetual clerical celibacy and the daily recitation of the Divine Office consequent upon the reception of this Sacred Order.

Your Excellency's most humble servant,
Patrick Joseph Kearney.
