Dear Sherri:

Sr. Dorothy and I reviewed the closed files today. There was another complaint filed against Fr. Gill. This was filed in 1992 by a woman who was molested when she was fifteen.

The Commission will be communicating with Bishop Thomas Dupre about your complaint and testimony before us.

I hope that this information helps you.

Sincerely,

Lois C. Lynch

Dear Ms. Biasin,

I received your letter and your enclosures today. Let me tell you how sorry I am for all that you have been through. Certainly I would like to meet with you as soon as possible. While Laura Reilly is no longer working with the diocese, Patricia McManamy has taken her place and I have asked her to be in touch with you to set up a time when I can meet with you. She should be calling you very shortly so that we can have an opportunity to meet, certainly before the end of the month.

Again, my apologies for all you have undergone and for the circumstances that prevented a meeting with the bishop in the past.

You are in my prayers and I ask that you keep me in yours.

In Christ,

Most Reverend Timothy A. McDonnell
Bishop of Springfield

Dear Mrs. Biasin:

Thank you for your courageous testimony before the Commission on Improper Conduct. Our members were impressed by your candor and memory of very painful details.

A report has been prepared for Bishop Dupre.

Sincerely,

James Bell
Chair
