Dear Father Beno,

Father Perrault was ordained for the Archdiocese of Hartford, Connecticut on May 7, 1964. In March of 1966 he was appointed to the faculty of St. Pius X High School in Albuquerque to teach religion. Re: PERRAULT, Arthur J. (Rev.)

Your Excellency:

Father Perrault has asked us to write to you and also to forward to you a copy of the psychological report which we submitted on February 28, 1966.

As you will see from our report, Father Perrault was examined and underwent treatment at our clinic from January 13, 1966 to the present. He has now been assigned to a temporary position as a teacher at the St. Pius X High School. We have kept continued contact with Father Perrault and we find that he seems to be very happy in his new assignment. For this reason we thought it advisable to inform you of some of the problems that preceded his admission to the rehabilitation house at Via Coeli. As part of our assessment of this matter we had correspondence with and talked on the telephone to the Chancery Office at Hartford, Connecticut.

Please be advised that Father Perrault came to the attention of his Chancery Office because of two alleged incidents of homosexual approaches to some of the young men with whom he was working. From our contacts with the Chancery Office I gather that they are convinced that these two incidents did indeed take place. My approach to this matter has been one in which we are not so much concerned with what may have happened in the past, but rather are acutely alerted to what Father Perrault will do in the future. As my report indicates, we find no evidence of pathological sexual disturbances in Father Perrault, and we did advise him to seek reassignment away from his diocese in Connecticut.

We believe that in Father Perrault we are dealing with an intelligent young man who has had some problems, but we do not believe that these problems need handicap nor incapacitate him in carrying out useful functions as a priest and as a teacher. We feel that his problems primarily stem from the fact that he is an only child, and the added fact that he needs further help to assure his continued emotional growth and maturity towards an effective life as a priest and as a person.

We would like to recommend that you consider him for acceptance to this Diocese and to permanent assignment to keep him at either the high school or college level. We believe that his present temporary assignment can serve as a good test period that will allow Your Excellency good opportunity to observe Father Perrault's behaviour and work outside the protective environment of Via Ceoli, and in this way be in a better position to determine the feasibility of a permanent assignment for Father Perrault by the new school term next fall.

Please be assured of our continued interest in Father Perrault and his work in the Church, and if there is any further information which we can provide to assist the Church in this matter, we will welcome your contacting us.

PSYCHOLOGICAL REPORT

The following will be a progress report on our therapeutic and diagnostic contacts with Father Perrault. As you will remember, Father Perrault first came to us on January 13, 1966. Subsequent to this first visit, we did request and have received copies of the medical, psychiatric and psychological reports of the examination of Father Perrault at St. Vincent's Hospital, West Chester Branch, Harrison, New York. It is our understanding that the reason for requesting examination of Father Perrault at St. Vincent's revolved around an alleged claim of psycho-sexual disturbances on his part. It was specifically indicated that Father Perrault had initiated homosexual behavior with some young men with whom he was working as a priest. In view of the above, it has been our objective to try to determine the extent to which psycho-sexual disturbances of any type are present in this man's personality structure, as well as to assist him in understanding himself better.

We have reviewed in some detail the psychological and psychiatric reports of St. Vincent's Hospital, which reports we understand to be inconclusive regarding any psycho-sexual pathology. It does appear that the reports indicate the presence of factors pointing to emotional immaturity. Our therapeutic conferences to date have centered around the latter problem.

Our best judgement to date does indicate the presence of some factors of emotional immaturity. This should neither be surprising nor unexpected in view of the fact that most young men who are ordained as priests have prior to their ordination experienced a prolonged period of life in a sheltered and protective environment, which may handicap them, at least in part, by limiting their exposure to some of the realistic problems of living. In addition, there are the special problems that generally occur in the rearing of any only child, and this is a part of the reality of Father Perrault's situation. Perhaps what we see in Father Perrault should not be seen as pathological immaturity, but rather as the expected results of some deprivation of opportunity. We would indicate that Father Perrault can function in the more mature way of priestly life, and we would ask that we not condemn him for something which is a normal product of a slightly abnormal situation.

Father Arthur J. Perrault

Another question that has arisen in this case is the matter of this person's self-assertiveness and liberalness of thinking. We find no evidence of any abnormality in this area. In assessing this characteristic of personality, we should perhaps recognize that self-assertiveness is a healthy and wholesome characteristic, as long as it can be kept within socially acceptable and reasonable limits. If it goes beyond these limits, we should perhaps understand it as an exaggerated mechanism of adjustment, or perhaps as an expected over-compensation on the part of young men going into established professions in their attempt to find for themselves a proper role within those professions. Rather than condemning this behavior on the part of these young professional men, it is our challenge to channel this motivation into healthy and constructive activities.

In summary, it is this examiner's opinion that Father Perrault's exposure to the spiritual, rehabilitative services and environment of Via Coeli, as well as the intensive psychotherapy which he personally requested and maintained, have been of much value and benefit to him. We find no present evidence of active or latent homosexuality in this man. Father Perrault does have the normal and expected physiological and psychological capacities for establishing meaningful emotional relationships with both people of the opposite sex, as well as his own. He will experience the normal and expected challenges that all young priests must feel in their social contacts with people to whom they must minister as priests. It is our further opinion that he possesses both the intellectual and psychological resources necessary to deal with these challenges if allowed a normal opportunity to do so.

This man is in our judgement now ready to assume the responsibility of the active ministry. He has expressed an interest in, and we have discussed at length, his desire to work with young people at the college level. His special interest seems to be in the area of teaching religion at that level. It would appear to us that his interests and abilities can best be utilized in the teaching field, and we would therefore recommend that consideration be given to this type of assignment. It would be our further thought that it is in the best interests of all concerned that Father Perrault be assigned to a diocese other than Hartford. It is our hope that this report serves to convey our clinical judgements and opinions on this matter. If there are any further questions, please communicate directly with us, and we shall be most happy to try to answer them. Please be assured of our continued interest in Father Perrault and the Church.

Dear Father Beno,

I am pleased to recommend the Rev. Arthur Perrault of this Archdiocese of Santa Fe for the office of Executive Secretary of the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions.

Father Perrault was ordained for the Archdiocese of Hartford, Connecticut on May 7, 1964. In March of 1966 he was appointed to the faculty of St. Pius X High School in Albuquerque to teach religion. He served for one year, June 1970 to June 1971, as Chaplain at the University of Albuquerque (a Catholic College); from June 1, 1971 to November 1, 1971 he was assistant pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Albuquerque. On November 3, 1971 he was appointed Archdiocesan Director of the Liturgical Commission of this Archdiocese.

Notable service in this latest assignment has been given in the publication of a monthly bulletin for the parish liturgy; and in the organization and direction of the Southwest Liturgical Conference Sessions held in Albuquerque in January of this year.

Father Perrault was canonically received into the Archdiocese of Santa Fe by incardination on August 14, 1973.

Re: John Does v. Roman Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, Inc., et al.

Dear Sr. Kazik:

I am writing to follow-up on Merit Bennett's request of February 14, 1995, regarding counseling for our new clients. It is my understanding that the Archdiocese is unaware of the claims of the five individuals about whom Mr. Bennett wrote you on February 14, 1995. This letter shall just serve to give you basic information regarding the dates the abuse started and the priests involved.

██████████ was born on ██████████. ██████████ was sexually abused by Father Arthur Perrault and the abuse started when ██████████ was approximately nine (9) years old in 1966.

██████████ was born on ██████████. His abuse occurred at St. Michael's in Santa Fe. The sexual abuse started in approximately 1964 and occurred periodically for many years. Several different Christian Brothers were sexually abusing ██████████. Brother Abdon was the first Christian Brother to sexually abuse ██████████. Brother Tom McConnell sexually abused ██████████ at the end of his ninth grade year at St. Michael's. Brother Luis Breausau sexually abused ██████████ in 1972. I would like to point out that the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is not the primary Defendant in the claims being brought by ██████████, but rather the Christian Brothers are the primary Defendants.

██████████ was born on ██████████. ██████████ is the older brother of ██████████. ██████████ was first sexually abused by Brother Abdon in approximately 1954. In approximately 1960 ██████████ was sexually abused by a Brother Alex with the Christian Brothers. As is the case with ██████████, I would like to point out that the claims of ██████████ are primarily against the Christian Brothers and the Archdiocese is only seen as a potential secondary Defendant.

Dear Archbishop:

(1) I just returned from the CYO convention where I taught the Guitar Mass to all the delegates; it was really inspiring. You couldn't help but be impressed with the sense of the Christian community. Many priests and sponsors had not sung it before and were most anxious to get all sorts of information on different Masses, what is good or not, how to get started etc. I thought that I could really be of assistance to the Archdiocese in getting stencils to them, along with guitar cords for various Masses and hymns. Then I would be happy to get together with the group they form and teach them the music. Would it be presumptuous of me to volunteer to head a department of liturgical music under the liturgical commission?

(2) Since I began teaching at Pius, I have been on temporary certification pending graduate credits. To fulfill this requirement, I will be a counselor in the "Upward Bound" program at the University of Albuquerque this summer. This was arranged by the Archdiocesan office of Education. It will provide me with 6 graduate credits and certification as a Guidance Counselor. I will continue my weekend services to Queen of Heaven Parish.

AFFIDAVIT OF [REDACTED]

Upon oath, I state that I am providing this testimony, that it is truthful, that I am over the age of 18, and that I am of sound mind and body.

1. I am a life long New Mexico resident. I was born in Bernalillo County in 1951.
2. I was raised in a traditional Roman Catholic and Hispanic family in New Mexico.
3. I was recruited as a teenager from within the Church and my Parish to participate in the Upward Bound program, which I believe was directly overseen by the University of Albuquerque, a Catholic University at the time within the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.
4. Upward Bound was a program that reached out to bright young men deemed to be college material, but from poor families. The program prepared young men for college. The Upward Bound program placed teenaged boys into dorms on the campus of the University of Albuquerque.

5. The University of Albuquerque campus is now in 2014 the St. Pius High School, the Catholic Center, and has offices of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.
6. When I was first recruited to be in the Upward Bound program, I moved in 1967 into a dorm on campus at the age of 15, where I turned 16. Some dorm proctors, I believe around age 18-20, mentioned in passing as I settled in, to watch out for Fr. Art Perrault while in the dorms or anywhere on campus. I had no idea what the warning meant, as I was a small and sexually naïve 15 year old.
7. The next summer, I returned at age 16-17. During this second summer in the Catholic program, the year was 1968. One day, Fr. Perrault knocked on my door and entered my dorm room, closing the door behind him. I was sitting on my bed reading.
8. In 1968, I believed Fr. Perrault was either a faculty member at the University of Albuquerque, or had been assigned to work within the Upward Bound program by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.
9. I did not know at the time, but now I know from what I have read, that Fr. Perrault had recently been treated at the Servants of the Paraclete in Jemez Springs, N.M., for sexual problems involving boys. At the time, it was a facility jointly operated and run by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and the Servants of the Paraclete. I did not know at the time the he had molested boys back east, nor that the Archdiocese knew that he had molested boys back east and hired him nonetheless.

10. When Fr. Perrault entered my dorm room in 1968, he sat on the edge of the bed. He brought up the sacrament of Confession, and he told me that he was my spiritual advisor. He wondered if I had ever had immoral thoughts about the girls, about their bodies, and if I masturbated. He wondered if I thought sex was a sin. While quizzing me about sex and sin and masturbation, he sat closer, and put his arm around my shoulders. Fr. Perrault then fondled me and touched me, in a sexual way, and was fondling my private parts. His touching me changed my life.
11. I became scared, and ran. I later found one of the RA's or 'proctors', and told him that a priest had come into my dorm room and molested me. He recommended that I go tell the Director of the Upward Bound Program, Musio Yslas, Jr. I did, and I reported the sexual touchings to Mr. Yslas.
12. I did not know whether to tell my dad what had happened, as he was an APD Detective. I was afraid to come out of my room for about three days. When I did, I was in the rec area by the gym with a female program student, playing shuffleboard. Suddenly, Fr. Perrault burst into the gym doors and yelled, "[REDACTED], get over here now!" It looked to all present that I was in big trouble. Fr. Perrault took me outside and verbally lit into me, in a raised voice, for reporting him to the program director. He said he was going to make my life miserable for telling someone that he had molested me, and that no one will ever believe me, and that I better never tell anyone ever again. He said he could make me the problem, not him, because he was a priest, and that all the priests know, and they all can do what they want.

13. I psychologically shut down at that point, and soon lost my faith completely. I got through the summer, and went to UNM. I have since obtained multiple degrees and have worked in government in the Albuquerque area for nearly forty years. I am now 62 years old, and still believe and know that my spirituality was severely torn and ruined by Fr. Perrault.
14. Over the years, I have met many Catholics and priests involved in one way or another in the so-called 'priest-abuse crisis'. One day in the mid-90's, I was in a room at the Law Offices of Bruce Pasternack as a potential client, when Conroy Chino walked past me with a camera crew from a local TV station. I watched the interview, which kept me rapt, because they mentioned by name Fr. Art Perrault. This event shook me deeply, and I left without becoming a client of Mr. Pasternack.
15. Since, then, I also have come to know men by name who have been lovers of local priests in this Archdiocese over the years, and know where and when 'gay priest parties' have taken place. In recent years, I began singing in a local parish choir. Recently, I went to confession for the first time in forever, specifically to tell the story of Fr. Art Perrault molesting me as a teenager in a dorm and me getting in trouble for reporting it. The current priest listened to the story, and then told me that it was I that should do penance, not the Church. I have not been back.

Re: [REDACTED] v. Archdiocese of Santa Fe, et al.

Mr. Beach:

As you have now completed your investigation of our client's claims and damages in the above-entitled case and are aware of the overwhelming evidence of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe's negligence that we have accumulated to date, our client, [REDACTED], has authorized us to make a demand for settlement in lieu of filing a lawsuit against the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.

[REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for the [REDACTED] annual conference of the United Methodist Church in Albuquerque, New Mexico, is married and has two children.

As you know, this is a case involving sexual molestation of [REDACTED] by Father Arthur Perrault while Father Perrault was assigned to Saint Pius High School in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

As you also know, this abuse occurred in February or March of 1969 while [REDACTED] was a senior at Saint Pius High School and consisted of masturbation and oral sex.

[REDACTED] has felt guilty and personally responsible for the sexual encounter with Father Perrault ever since and was unaware until recently that the incident was a perpetration of sexual abuse by an inveterate predator which caused [REDACTED] to suffer harm throughout his life. As you know, [REDACTED] is suffering from depression, has a severe pornography addiction and is confused about his sexual identity to the detriment of his marital and family relationships.

Based upon vocational evaluations and economic loss valuations we have commissioned on behalf of other clients who have been victims of clergy sexual abuse, it is clear that the damage to a life is insidious and pervasive and will be valued by a New Mexico jury well in excess of Redacted. See enclosed report of William E. Foote, Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist.

Please advise us how we are to proceed.

Thank you again for your consideration.

INTERVIEW WITH INVESTIGATOR CORDOVA
AND MR. [REDACTED]

CORDOVA: Today's August 31st, 1992. It's approximately 12:20 in the afternoon. I'm here to interview Mr. [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED], are you aware you're being recorded?

[REDACTED]: Yes.

CORDOVA: Do I have your permission to record you sir?

[REDACTED]: Yes you do, provided it's confidential and the information isn't released without my okay.

CORDOVA: Okay. Uh, like I said, let's go ahead and start 20 years ago. You...

[REDACTED]: Approximately 20 years ago I was on the St. Pius School Board. Uh, and I had children at St. Pius. In fact, I've had six children graduate from there. So I've been very, very deeply involved with that school. Uh, since on the school board I was pretty well known as one who uh, was out in the open and would take causes to whoever the cause needed to be taken to. I got a phone call one night from a, a gentleman. Should I mention his name?

CORDOVA: Yes you can.

[REDACTED]: Named [REDACTED]. And he uh, told me he had got a bomb shell news about a teacher at St. Pius.

CORDOVA: Excuse me, let's go off the record for a second. We're back on the record, go ahead.

[REDACTED]: He said it's something that uh, we needed to talk about in person. And uh, I don't think he was on the school board at that point, although he was later on. And he asked me to get a couple of other school board members that were trustworthy, to uh, meet with him and he would explain this bomb shell situation. So I called two close friends on the school board, [REDACTED], who is now deceased. He was a very close friend of mine and also [REDACTED]. Uh, he's still alive. And so [REDACTED] and myself and [REDACTED], [REDACTED] met at the (Inaudible) I think probably the following night.

CONFIDENTIAL

INTERVIEW

That's the place we used to go to after school board meetings a lot. And he then told us that he had information regarding Father Perault that he was a "practicing homosexual." Well, this certainly was a bomb shell. Father Perault was head of Theology. Led the choir. Was a very, very open and uh, well recognized leader at St. Pius High School. Uh, rather than just accept his information, because after all, what he knew was hearsay from a couple of other people. Uh, we decided to uh, ascertain the veracity of that uh, allegation. So uh, [REDACTED] took it upon himself to call now, Archbishop Sanchez, who was, was in Mosquito at the time. He was pastor up at a church up there. [REDACTED] was a good friend of the Archbishop. [REDACTED] was gonna call Father Don Barsak who was a teacher at St. Pius. And then I was gonna call Father Frank Edgar who has been a long long time friend of our family. And so we decided that we would make our phone calls and as soon as we'd all made them we would then get together again and uh, give our findings. Everyone of the three people then immediately acknowledged that they knew about Father Perault and his problem. In fact, Father Edgar, I remembered when I called him uh, up in Santa Fe, he was Director of the Seminary at the time. Uh, made sure that we were not being listened to by anybody else. And I just asked him point blank, "Father, is Father Perault a practicing homosexual?" And uh, his exact response, "Oh my God, yes, yes, yes." Uh, Archbishop Sanchez confirmed what Father Barsak, there was no question about it. So we were certain that this was the case. We then went to, I'm not sure in what order this was. But I think Father Scott was probably the first one. He was principal at St. Pius. And he refused to even listen to us. Said he just wouldn't discuss it with us.

CORDOVA: Okay, what year was this?

CORDOVA: So '72?

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: So our, our next step was, by the way we then agreed we would keep this quiet. That we didn't want to hurt Father Perault or anybody else. We just wanted him out of St. Pius, away from our kids. Priests are getting transferred all the time without no apparent reason known to other people. So we agreed we would not tell anybody what we knew. Uh, but that uh, we just, would get to the Archbishop and try to get rid of him.

CORDOVA: Let, let's stop right there just for a second, if you will.

[REDACTED]: Okay.

CORDOVA: What was Archbishop (Inaudible) at the time?

KOLLER: Well uh, alright, I'll, I'll come to that in just a minute.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: But we went to Father Paul Baca, who's a pastor at, well, he was at Queen of Heaven at the time.

CORDOVA: Right.

[REDACTED]: And Father Perault was a residence at Queen of Heaven at the time, I believe.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: Or maybe that was later. He may have been a residence at the Bacillian House, I don't think. I think he was at Queen of Heaven. Anyway, we went to him because he was head of the priest senate.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: We wanted to go through the channels, to the Archbishop. And he knew all about it. And he agreed that he would help get us to the Archbishop.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Then we also went to Father Hendron who was uh, Chancellor at the time. Because this was supposedly the chain of command we were supposed to follow. He agreed to help us get a, an appointment with the Archbishop. So, shortly after that we in fact did have an appointment with Archbishop Davis. And the four of us met with him and there may have been another one, Dr. [REDACTED], retired dentist. I'm not sure if he was there or not. He was on the (Inaudible) of this thing. So we went to Archbishop Davis and, and he immediately acknowledge this problem and said he had put him under psychiatric care. But that uh, Father Perault had himself voluntarily, removed himself from the psychiatric care.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: He said that uh, we must void publicity at all costs. And he said he would remove him from St. Pius. Some time went on after that. And uh, somewhere along the line uh, a fellow named [REDACTED] who just died a few months ago, I was at his funeral too. He had kids graduate from Pius. And how he found out about it I don't know. But he contacted uh, either me or [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. Wanted to talk to us. And he said that one of his sons, he had several sons. I'm not totally sure of the name. It could be [REDACTED] but I wouldn't swear to it. It's one of his sons that was at Pius had been involved with Father Perault. To what degree I can't recall after 20 years, but that he was a recipient of his uh, advances.

CORDOVA: Was it during the time when he was a student or there, thereafter?

[REDACTED]: When he was a student.

CORDOVA: Okay, when he was a...

[REDACTED]: Yeah.

CORDOVA: ...okay.

[REDACTED]: And uh, they had found out about it. I'm not even sure to this day if, if the mom knew about it. I know the dad did. In those days, you know, it's something you didn't talk about. And he said the son in fact uh, was so messed up that he had been thinking about suicide. And uh, [REDACTED] had gone to the Archbishop on this and the Archbishop said, "Look, we'll take care of it but we can't have any publicity. We must be Christian about this." And [REDACTED] emphasized that in order to be really Christian he would leave it at the hands of the Archbishop and, and not bring, he was gonna bring an action of sodomy uh, against him.

CORDOVA: Okay, how old, can you, more or less know how old was [REDACTED] at the time? Was he...

[REDACTED]: If, if it was [REDACTED] Cause there are about, at least [REDACTED].

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: I think it was [REDACTED] He would have been in my son's [REDACTED]'s class. So, gees, he'd be about 40 years old now.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: I think, roughly. And uh, so, uh, apparently that may be when the Archbishop put Father Perault under psychiatric treatment. There may have been other cases, I don't know. But uh, time went by and nothing happened. In the meantime, one day, I don't know how much of this is extraneous but I'm telling you what I told Father Wolfe. Uh, one day I got a call from uh, someone over at the school. I can't remember who it was. Someone on the faculty that, that word had gotten out that uh, Father Perault (Inaudible) in class. That there's a home and school tonight and I want you students to go to the home and school and ask [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], why they went to see the Archbishop. This (Inaudible) because I thought, my God he, why would he take a chance on saying that. He, unless he knew we would never spill the beans on him.

Uh, so I right away, I called Father Scott and said, "Father, tonight is home and school." In those days parents came out of the woodwork and there were all kinds of students and I mean it filled up the cafeteria at Pius.

CORDOVA: Hmm .hmm.

[REDACTED]: Big, big meetings. I said, "Father, I understand that this is uh, gonna happen tonight. So I just want you to know about it and, and don't tell them that you know why we went there."

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: Okay. [REDACTED] was uh, a Realtor. He was uh, head of us the school board. I called [REDACTED]. He knew nothing about this. I met with him at a restaurant, spent almost all afternoon that day with him. I said, "[REDACTED], for God sakes, don't tell them. They're gonna ask you and Father Scott maybe and us, why did we go to the Archbishop. I'm telling you why. Don't tell them why. We're not gonna." Okay. That night some girl got up and cussed me out and every other darn thing.

CORDOVA: A student?

[REDACTED]: Yeah, a student. And demanded to know why I went to the Archbishop.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: Well first they asked Father Scott. He didn't know. They asked [REDACTED] and he had no idea, knew nothing about it. I asked them to, by the way, to say when, if someone asked them, "Well, yes we do know but uh, it's for a good purpose for the good of the school but we can't say why." But they didn't say that, they said, they knew nothing. So they called upon me for, this girl, (Inaudible) case. Really kind of vicious. I said look, "You students and parents, if you knew why, you'd be behind us but I can't tell you, it's confidential." [REDACTED] stood up and said the same thing and so did [REDACTED], but we wouldn't tell them. Afterward this gal came up and cussed at me and swore at me and every other darn thing.

And kids were, you know how things were then. Anyway uh, boy then the word got around somehow and uh, got to where our, our name was mud. I had uh, a couple of priests call me. I, I think I knew who they were but I won't say because I, I can't be sure of their identity. But I'm pretty sure they were priests.

CORDOVA: If you knew would you tell me? If you knew?

: If I knew I would.

CORDOVA: Okay.

CORDOVA: Okay.

: Cussed me out uh, something awful. God! It was terrible. I mean, this was really a, a horrible time. And uh, but I, I'd never talked to Father Perrault about it. I might mention this. When uh, when we got together after being sure that he was doing these things. Father Edgar met with us a couple of times. And uh, I told him what I wanted to do. I said, "Father, I want to go with one witness to Father Perrault in private and say, Father, I know your problem. I'm sorry about it. Don't want to hurt you. Leave Pius. Get out of Pius." Father Edgar said, "No, John, don't do that because if you do, before you leave there, he'll have you as a homo to discredit you."

[REDACTED]: Uh, well, this [REDACTED] did.

CORDOVA: [REDACTED] okay.

[REDACTED]: About his son and one other party?

CORDOVA: Okay. But do they, are they parishioners of Fatima?

[REDACTED]: No. But the [REDACTED]'s were. But they live in Silver City now. [REDACTED] died.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Six months ago. And his wife [REDACTED] I'm not sure if she even knew about this. I'm not totally sure.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: But the dad, well I'll come to this in a minute here.

CORDOVA: Okay, go ahead.

[REDACTED]: But, uh, it's because of what [REDACTED] said, because of our calling Father Edgar, the Archbishop and Father Don Barsack and then [REDACTED] coming to us telling us about his son. You know, I mean we knew that he was doing this.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: We heard other rumors too. I don't know if I'll go into that cause they were just rumors.

CORDOVA: No, I, I want facts.

[REDACTED]: Okay. Uh, then let me see uh. Time went on, nothing happened. And uh, then one day I got a call from Marylou Scott. She was the secretary to Archbishop Davis and then the secretary to Archbishop Sanchez, and she retired about two years ago.

CORDOVA: Hmm hnm.

: And uh, she said, "The Archbishop wants to see you next Sunday over at Idlewilde," where I think the Archbishop still lives there, doesn't he, Idle, Idlewilde Lane?

CORDOVA: Yes.

: Yeah, when Archbishop Davis lived there before him. "Wants to see you there," just me. Well, I told uh, by this time [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was kind of in the group because of his son. I said, "Boy, I got to go over there and see the Archbishop. Wonder why." So uh, these guys and their wives came over to our house and sat there, including my wife, and waited for me to return. Wondering what has happened. As soon as I get in there, there was, I think Father Scott and there was maybe a Dr., about four of us and he gave us a drink and then, then he said, "[REDACTED], I want you to know that uh, I'm not gonna remove Father Perault from Pius." And I said, "Why?" He said, (Inaudible), "It's under control and it's our problem. Not yours. Now I just, we'll handle it."

CORDOVA: Hmm hnm.

: I tried to persuade him to do something different like remove him. I said, "You, but you promised you would." He said, "Well, no, we're gonna handle this in our way." He never did explain what his way was. But he was gonna leave him there. So uh, triggered with the information that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] gave me, before I went over there [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told me, he said, "[REDACTED], if per chance the Archbishop says he's gonna leave him there, you tell him this for me. Tell him, 'I am know gonna bring a sodomy suit.'" And I remember saying, "[REDACTED] you wouldn't do that." And he said, "I don't know, I think maybe I would." And so after the Archbishop told me that I asked him, I said, "Archbishop Davis, can I see you alone after (Inaudible) leave?" He said, "Okay." I just said, "A certain party who's son has been molested told me he's gonna bring a sodomy suit." And uh, I remember to this day what Archbishop Davis did. He put his right arm on my shoulder and said, "[REDACTED], we can't have that. I'll honor my commitment." He did, three days later Father Perault was gone. That's how he was gone.

CORDOVA: Do you know where he was sent to?

[REDACTED]: U of A. He went to U of A from there. Then he went to Guadalupe.

CORDOVA: Okay in, in what capacity?

[REDACTED]: I'm not sure exactly what he was doing at U of A. A counselor or a uh, teacher. I'm not really, Theology teacher, I'm not totally sure.

CORDOVA: He was allowed to be around kids again (Inaudible)?

[REDACTED]: Yeah. Yeah. That's where he went right straight from, to there. Another incentive uh...

CORDOVA: Hold on, you just said something important here. Then you said he went to our Lady of Guadalupe thereafter?

[REDACTED]: Hmm hmm.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Yeah, he did. And uh, he was also in residence at uh, sometime during this period at Queen of Heaven with Father Baca. And Father Baca kind of removed him from the residence there. Uh, allegedly I think because maybe this was happening. I, I don't know. But another incentive as to why I knew he had to go is because my wife's uh, sister married a fellow from [REDACTED], named (Inaudible) [REDACTED]. They had several children. They moved to [REDACTED]. But then, their son [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], go to school. We offered to have him come and stay with us during his senior year. INTERVIEW WITH INVESTIGATOR CORDOVA
AND MR. [REDACTED]

CORDOVA: Today's August 31st, 1992. It's approximately 12:20 in the afternoon. I'm here to interview Mr. [REDACTED]. Mr. [REDACTED], are you aware you're being recorded?

[REDACTED]: Yes.

CORDOVA: Do I have your permission to record you sir?

[REDACTED]: Yes you do, provided it's confidential and the information isn't released without my okay.

CORDOVA: Okay. Uh, like I said, let's go ahead and start 20 years ago. You...

[REDACTED]: Approximately 20 years ago I was on the St. Pius School Board. Uh, and I had children at St. Pius. In fact, I've had six children graduate from there. So I've been very, very deeply involved with that school. Uh, since on the school board I was pretty well known as one who uh, was out in the open and would take causes to whoever the cause needed to be taken to. I got a phone call one night from a, a gentleman. Should I mention his name?

CORDOVA: Yes you can.

[REDACTED]: Named [REDACTED]. And he uh, told me he had got a bomb shell news about a teacher at St. Pius.

CORDOVA: Excuse me, let's go off the record for a second. We're back on the record, go ahead.

[REDACTED]: He said it's something that uh, we needed to talk about in person. And uh, I don't think he was on the school board at that point, although he was later on. And he asked me to get a couple of other school board members that were trustworthy, to uh, meet with him and he would explain this bomb shell situation. So I called two close friends on the school board, [REDACTED], who is now deceased. He was a very close friend of mine and also [REDACTED]. Uh, he's still alive. And so [REDACTED] and myself and [REDACTED], [REDACTED] met at the (Inaudible) I think probably the following night.

That's the place we used to go to after school board meetings a lot. And he then told us that he had information regarding Father Perault that he was a "practicing homosexual." Well, this certainly was a bomb shell. Father Perault was head of Theology. Led the choir. Was a very, very open and uh, well recognized leader at St. Pius High School. Uh, rather than just accept his information, because after all, what he knew was hearsay from a couple of other people. Uh, we decided to uh, ascertain the veracity of that uh, allegation. So uh, [REDACTED] took it upon himself to call now, Archbishop Sanchez, who was, was in Mosquito at the time. He was pastor up at a church up there. [REDACTED] was a good friend of the Archbishop. [REDACTED] was gonna call Father Don Barsak who was a teacher at St. Pius. And then I was gonna call Father Frank Edgar who has been a long long time friend of our family. And so we decided that we would make our phone calls and as soon as we'd all made them we would then get together again and uh, give our findings. Everyone of the three people then immediately acknowledged that they knew about Father Perault and his problem. In fact, Father Edgar, I remembered when I called him uh, up in Santa Fe, he was Director of the Seminary at the time. Uh, made sure that we were not being listened to by anybody else. And I just asked him point blank, "Father, is Father Perault a practicing homosexual?" And uh, his exact response, "Oh my God, yes, yes, yes." Uh, Archbishop Sanchez confirmed what Father Barsak, there was no question about it. So we were certain that this was the case. We then went to, I'm not sure in what order this was. But I think Father Scott was probably the first one. He was principal at St. Pius. And he refused to even listen to us. Said he just wouldn't discuss it with us.

CORDOVA: Okay, what year was this?

CORDOVA: So '72?

CORDOVA: Okay.

: So our, our next step was, by the way we then agreed we would keep this quiet. That we didn't want to hurt Father Perault or anybody else. We just wanted him out of St. Pius, away from our kids. Priests are getting transferred all the time without no apparent reason known to other people. So we agreed we would not tell anybody what we knew. Uh, but that uh, we just, would get to the Archbishop and try to get rid of him.

CORDOVA: Let, let's stop right there just for a second, if you will.

: Okay.

CORDOVA: What was Archbishop (Inaudible) at the time?

KOLLER: Well uh, alright, I'll, I'll come to that in just a minute.

CORDOVA: Okay.

: But we went to Father Paul Baca, who's a pastor at, well, he was at Queen of Heaven at the time.

CORDOVA: Right.

: And Father Perault was a residence at Queen of Heaven at the time, I believe.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

: Or maybe that was later. He may have been a residence at the Bacillian House, I don't think. I think he was at Queen of Heaven. Anyway, we went to him because he was head of the priest senate.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

: We wanted to go through the channels, to the Archbishop. And he knew all about it. And he agreed that he would help get us to the Archbishop.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Then we also went to Father Hendron who was uh, Chancellor at the time. Because this was supposedly the chain of command we were supposed to follow. He agreed to help us get a, an appointment with the Archbishop. So, shortly after that we in fact did have an appointment with Archbishop Davis. And the four of us met with him and there may have been another one, Dr. [REDACTED], retired dentist. I'm not sure if he was there or not. He was on the (Inaudible) of this thing. So we went to Archbishop Davis and, and he immediately acknowledge this problem and said he had put him under psychiatric care. But that uh, Father Perault had himself voluntarily, removed himself from the psychiatric care.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: He said that uh, we must void publicity at all costs. And he said he would remove him from St. Pius. Some time went on after that. And uh, somewhere along the line uh, a fellow named [REDACTED] who just died a few months ago, I was at his funeral too. He had kids graduate from Pius. And how he found out about it I don't know. But he contacted uh, either me or [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. Wanted to talk to us. And he said that one of his sons, he had several sons. I'm not totally sure of the name. It could be [REDACTED] but I wouldn't swear to it. It's one of his sons that was at Pius had been involved with Father Perault. To what degree I can't recall after 20 years, but that he was a recipient of his uh, advances.

CORDOVA: Was it during the time when he was a student or there, thereafter?

[REDACTED]: When he was a student.

CORDOVA: Okay, when he was a...

[REDACTED]: Yeah.

CORDOVA: ...okay.

█: And uh, they had found out about it. I'm not even sure to this day if, if the mom knew about it. I know the dad did. In those days, you know, it's something you didn't talk about. And he said the son in fact uh, was so messed up that he had been thinking about suicide. And uh, █ had gone to the Archbishop on this and the Archbishop said, "Look, we'll take care of it but we can't have any publicity. We must be Christian about this." And █ emphasized that in order to be really Christian he would leave it at the hands of the Archbishop and, and not bring, he was gonna bring an action of sodomy uh, against him.

CORDOVA: Okay, how old, can you, more or less know how old was █ at the time? Was he...

█: If, if it was █ Cause there are about, at least █.

CORDOVA: Okay.

█: I think it was █ He would have been in my son's █'s class. So, gees, he'd be about 40 years old now.

CORDOVA: Okay.

█: I think, roughly. And uh, so, uh, apparently that may be when the Archbishop put Father Perault under psychiatric treatment. There may have been other cases, I don't know. But uh, time went by and nothing happened. In the meantime, one day, I don't know how much of this is extraneous but I'm telling you what I told Father Wolfe. Uh, one day I got a call from uh, someone over at the school. I can't remember who it was. Someone on the faculty that, that word had gotten out that uh, Father Perault (Inaudible) in class. That there's a home and school tonight and I want you students to go to the home and school and ask █, █ and █ and █, why they went to see the Archbishop. This (Inaudible) because I thought, my God he, why would he take a chance on saying that. He, unless he knew we would never spill the beans on him.

Uh, so I right away, I called Father Scott and said, "Father, tonight is home and school." In those days parents came out of the woodwork and there were all kinds of students and I mean it filled up the cafeteria at Pius.

CORDOVA: Hmm-hmm.

[REDACTED]: Big, big meetings. I said, "Father, I understand that this is uh, gonna happen tonight. So I just want you to know about it and, and don't tell them that you know why we went there."

CORDOVA: Hmm-hmm.

[REDACTED]: Okay. [REDACTED] was uh, a Realtor. He was uh, head of us the school board. I called [REDACTED]. He knew nothing about this. I met with him at a restaurant, spent almost all afternoon that day with him. I said, "[REDACTED], for God sakes, don't tell them. They're gonna ask you and Father Scott maybe and us, why did we go to the Archbishop. I'm telling you why. Don't tell them why. We're not gonna." Okay. That night some girl got up and cussed me out and every other darn thing.

CORDOVA: A student?

[REDACTED]: Yeah, a student. And demanded to know why I went to the Archbishop.

CORDOVA: Hmm-hmm.

[REDACTED]: Well first they asked Father Scott. He didn't know. They asked [REDACTED] and he had no idea, knew nothing about it. I asked them to, by the way, to say when, if someone asked them, "Well, yes we do know but uh, it's for a good purpose for the good of the school but we can't say why." But they didn't say that, they said, they knew nothing. So they called upon me for, this girl, (Inaudible) case. Really kind of vicious. I said look, "You students and parents, if you knew why, you'd be behind us but I can't tell you, it's confidential." [REDACTED] stood up and said the same thing and so did [REDACTED], but we wouldn't tell them. Afterward this gal came up and cussed at me and swore at me and every other darn thing.

CORDOVA: Do you recall who, what her name was?

[REDACTED]: No.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: I think I may know, but I don't want, I just don't know. I, I can't, too long ago. Those are the days of, you know, like the Vietnam War and everything. And kids were, you know how things were then. Anyway uh, boy then the word got around somehow and uh, got to where our, our name was mud. I had uh, a couple of priests call me. I, I think I knew who they were but I won't say because I, I can't be sure of their identity. But I'm pretty sure they were priests.

CORDOVA: If you knew would you tell me? If you knew?

[REDACTED]: If I knew I would.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: But I can't be sure so I don't want to say.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Cussed me out uh, something awful. God! It was terrible. I mean, this was really a, a horrible time. And uh, but I, I'd never talked to Father Perault about it. I might mention this. When uh, when we got together after being sure that he was doing these things. Father Edgar met with us a couple of times. And uh, I told him what I wanted to do. I said, "Father, I want to go with one witness to Father Perault in private and say, Father, I know your problem. I'm sorry about it. Don't want to hurt you. Leave Pius. Get out of Pius." Father Edgar said, "No, John, don't do that because if you do, before you leave there, he'll have you as a homo to discredit you."

CORDOVA: Can we stop just, (Inaudible) for just a second.

[REDACTED]: Yeah.

CORDOVA: Uh, how, how did you find out about Father Perault's problem? Because you, because, do you know anything personally or did someone come to you other than Mr. [REDACTED] and...

[REDACTED]: Uh, well, this [REDACTED] did.

CORDOVA: [REDACTED] okay.

[REDACTED]: About his son and one other party?

CORDOVA: Okay. But do they, are they parishioners of Fatima?

[REDACTED]: No. But the [REDACTED]'s were. But they live in Silver City now. [REDACTED] died.

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Six months ago. And his wife [REDACTED] I'm not sure if she even knew about this. I'm not totally sure.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: But the dad, well I'll come to this in a minute here.

CORDOVA: Okay, go ahead.

[REDACTED]: But, uh, it's because of what [REDACTED] said, because of our calling Father Edgar, the Archbishop and Father Don Barsack and then [REDACTED] coming to us telling us about his son. You know, I mean we knew that he was doing this.

CORDOVA: Hmm hmm.

[REDACTED]: We heard other rumors too. I don't know if I'll go into that cause they were just rumors.

CORDOVA: No, I, I want facts.

[REDACTED]: Okay. Uh, then let me see uh. Time went on, nothing happened. And uh, then one day I got a call from Marylou Scott. She was the secretary to Archbishop Davis and then the secretary to Archbishop Sanchez, and she retired about two years ago.

CORDOVA: Hmm-hmm.

[REDACTED]: And uh, she said, "The Archbishop wants to see you next Sunday over at Idlewilde," where I think the Archbishop still lives there, doesn't he, Idle, Idlewilde Lane?

CORDOVA: Yes.

[REDACTED]: Yeah, when Archbishop Davis lived there before him. "Wants to see you there," just me. Well, I told uh, by this time [REDACTED] was kind of in the group because of his son. I said, "Boy, I got to go over there and see the Archbishop. Wonder why." So uh, these guys and their wives came over to our house and sat there, including my wife, and waited for me to return. Wondering what has happened. As soon as I get in there, there was, I think Father Scott and there was maybe a Dr., about four of us and he gave us a drink and then, then he said, "[REDACTED], I want you to know that uh, I'm not gonna remove Father Perault from Pius." And I said, "Why?" He said, (Inaudible), "It's under control and it's our problem. Not yours. Now I just, we'll handle it."

CORDOVA: Hmm-hmm.

[REDACTED]: I tried to persuade him to do something different like remove him. I said, "You, but you promised you would." He said, "Well, no, we're gonna handle this in our way." He never did explain what his way was. But he was gonna leave him there. So uh, triggered with the information that [REDACTED] gave me, before I went over there [REDACTED] told me, he said, "[REDACTED], if per chance the Archbishop says he's gonna leave him there, you tell him this for me. Tell him, 'I am know gonna bring a sodomy suit.' And I remember saying, '[REDACTED] you wouldn't do that.' And he said, 'I don't know, I think maybe I would.' And so after the Archbishop told me that I asked him, I said, 'Archbishop Davis, can I see you alone after (Inaudible) leave?' He said, 'Okay.' They left and I said, pardon me, I didn't mention the name [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I just said, "A certain party who's son has been molested told me he's gonna bring a sodomy suit." And uh, I remember to this day what Archbishop Davis did. He put his right arm on my shoulder and said, "[REDACTED], we can't have that. I'll honor my commitment." He did, three days later Father Perault was gone. That's how he was gone.

CORDOVA: Do you know where he was sent to?

[REDACTED]: U of A. He went to U of A from there. Then he went to Guadalupe.

CORDOVA: Okay in, in what capacity?

[REDACTED]: I'm not sure exactly what he was doing at U of A. A counselor or a uh, teacher. I'm not really, Theology teacher, I'm not totally sure.

CORDOVA: He was allowed to be around kids again (Inaudible)?

[REDACTED]: Yeah. Yeah. That's where he went right straight from, to there. Another incentive uh...

CORDOVA: Hold on, you just said something important here. Then you said he went to our Lady of Guadalupe thereafter?

CORDOVA: Okay.

[REDACTED]: Yeah, he did. And uh, he was also in residence at uh, sometime during this period at Queen of Heaven with Father Baca. And Father Baca kind of removed him from the residence there. Uh, allegedly I think because maybe this was happening. I, I don't know. But another incentive as to why I knew he had to go is because my wife's uh, sister married a fellow from [REDACTED], named (Inaudible) [REDACTED]. They had several children. They moved to [REDACTED]. But then, their son [REDACTED], go to school. We offered to have him come and stay with us during his senior year. Now although he's not a Catholic, he went to St. Pius for his senior year. Uh, you know, there were conversations on the phone and stuff.

January 27, 1970.

Rev. Arthur Perrault,
7618 Euclid Ave., NE,
Albuquerque, New Mexico, 87110.

Dear Fr. Perrault:

When you moved back to the faculty house, you asked if you could continue to say one of the Masses here in the parish. As you well know, I was happy to have you because I have always felt that you have very much to offer in the service of the Lord. I believe you have brought many blessings to our parish and for this and your readiness to help, I am very grateful.

It will no longer be necessary for you to come on Sundays because as you know we have only six Masses on Sundays now and there are three of us living here in the parish. I feel a special responsibility to Fr. Atkinson for the many long years of service in the Archdiocese in difficult and remote places. He is eager to be of some service, though for reasons of health, this service is limited to saying Mass and helping a little with confessions. Then, too, I do get a little concerned from time to time about the persistent criticism that we the parish priests don't do too much. We here at Queen of Heaven would expose ourselves to this criticism if three of us would continue to get extra help for six Masses. I do want to assure you that when need arises, you will be our first consideration.

Knowing how anxious you are to keep contact with parish work, I would like to point out to you the fact that both Bernalillo and Alameda are now without assistants. Also Fr. George Boeninghauser, who was helping at Annunciation, is no longer able to help because of illness. Fr. Hammer has also been looking for a regular Sunday helper since Fr. Esquibel left.

Enclosed is the check for Sunday help during January.

Gratefully yours,

Rev. Paul M. Baca, Pastor.

Re: Archdiocese of Santa Fe
FR. ARTHUR PERRAULT

Dear Bishop Cronin:

I enjoyed our visit during the recent meeting of the National Conference of Bishops, and very much appreciated your expression of support to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe during these difficult times. The purpose of this letter is to provide additional information concerning potential claims arising from the alleged acts of sexual misconduct by Fr. Perrault, who came to New Mexico from the Diocese of Hartford, Connecticut. At this time, the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is aware of nineteen potential claimants:

[REDACTED], and [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] alleges that he was sexually abused by Fr. Perrault. [REDACTED] has been participating in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe's counseling program, and as of November 12, 1993, the Archdiocese has paid [REDACTED] on his behalf. [REDACTED] continues to receive psychological counseling. 1 Q How long were you in Scouting?

2 A I was in the Cub Scouts and then Boy Scouts. I went all the 3 way up to Eagle Scout.

4 Q Do you know what age you were when you were an Eagle Scout or 5 what grade you were in?

6 A Yes, I was in seventh grade. And then I quit Boy Scouts
7 because of this thing, too, because I wasn't going to go to Scouts
8 when it was at the same church.

9 Q Do you have any relatives that are members of the clergy?

10 A No. My mom and dad had close friends, and they would come
11 over for dinner, and I knew them, but they weren't -- I mean, I
12 just knew them because they associated with my parents.

13 Q Did Arthur Perrault ever come to your house?

14 A I don't think so, no. I think he had come after Father John 15 Rodriguez and Father Niemeyer. Those were the two priests that my 16 parents were very close with, and they were prior to Father
17 Perrault coming to the parish.

18 MS. KENNEDY: Okay. We're going to take a short
19 break, and then we'll start again.

20 (A brief recess was held.)

21 MS. KENNEDY: Thanks. It's still June 21st.

22 EXAMINATION BY MS. KENNEDY:

23 Q We're here after the break. [REDACTED] I'd like you to describe
24 for me what happened that day in December of 1971 with Arthur
25 Perrault.

1 A Well, I had been an altar boy, and Father Perrault was in
2 charge of the youth. I had known him for, I would say, maybe
3 three or four months that I can best recall right now. I know I
4 had known him ever since he got to the parish, anyway.

5 Q And during those three or four months, there was nothing
6 unusual that happened?

7 A Not that I can recall. I was just -- I would serve mass as 8 an altar boy. All I knew is I didn't know him as well as I had 9 some of the other priests. He hadn't been there as long, and I
10 hadn't served a lot of masses with him in particular. Well, 11 there's three priests, I believe, Father Mike, Father Perrault and 12 Father Cassidy, who was head of the church at Our Lady of 13 Guadalupe.

14 Q And Father Mike's last name was?

15 A I have no idea. I just know he was a little guy.

16 Q Okay.

17 A And on this one particular day, we were to have an altar boy
18 meeting, and, after that, I had been asked if I wanted to serve a 19 wedding. And all altar boys will jump at serving a wedding
20 because you always got five bucks or some type of money the 21 priests would give you, because they would pay the priest and the 22 priest would pay the altar boy some money, and it was kind of an
23 honor to be asked to do a wedding. And so we went to the altar
24 boy meeting, and he asked me and another little boy to go into the 25 rectory, and -- I think he had first asked us to go and get some

1 knives, and he also said he had something for me. And I'd gone in 2 the rectory several times as an altar boy, and they'd give us
3 trinkets, medals, sometimes Cokes. And on this occasion, I went 4 down -- it was down a long hall towards his room, and I had been
5 back there to Father Cassidy's room, even, to get trinkets before,
6 so I didn't think nothing of it. [REDACTED] and I went down there, and 7 then he had [REDACTED] stay in another room.

8 Q What's [REDACTED]'s last name?

9 A [REDACTED]. And he took me into his room. It's down the hall
10 to the left, and then you go down a real short hall and into the 11 back room where his bedroom was. We went in there, and he shut
12 the door and locked it, and that had never happened before. Then 13 he told me to sit down on the bed, and he went into the bathroom,
14 and he came out a short time later and laid me down on the bed.
15 And he started caressing me, and then he started gently kissing me
16 like on my shoulders and then on my chest and --

17 Q Were you clothed?

18 A At that time, I was. And then -- and then he started rubbing
19 my genital area, and then he unbuttoned my pants and unzipped
20 them, and then he started actually touching me underneath my 21 clothes. And he kept commenting on my -- on my body, saying that 22 I had strong legs and -- and then he asked me, he said, "It's 23 getting close to the wedding. Do you want to come back here
24 later?" And at that point in time, I was scared to death. I
25 wanted to run out. As a matter of fact, I even recall the

1 cleaning lady knocked on the door. It was a Spanish lady that 2 served them their food and cleaned the rectory, and she knocked on 3 it three times, and he told me to be quiet and not to answer her.
4 And then, when she went, he kept touching me for a little bit.
5 And, like I've told my therapist, thinking back now, when I got
6 that letter from my dad that I wrote that you have, I hadn't seen
7 that letter until last October. I didn't even know they had that
8 letter.

9 Q That they had kept a copy?

10 A Right. I didn't even know that they had received a letter on 11 that Our Lady of Guadalupe stationery till then either. It wasn't 12 until I was contacted by my mom that they found out Father
13 Perrault was still in a church setting. We had been told he 14 wasn't. When I read that letter, I had -- I had minimized
15 everything and thought it was just touching. I didn't even 16 remember the kissing part like I had in the letter or a lot of 17 that, and that was one of the reasons like, when I started having 18 all these memories, I didn't know whether -- like this one, when I
19 see him touching me with his mouth, I don't know whether this is a 20 fact or whether it's just -- I don't know what's going on in my 21 mind. So that's when I finally got the courage to go to the 22 therapist, was mainly because of that, because I didn't know if it
23 was true or fact or what was happening.

24 So he said that -- asked me if I would come back and also 25 mentioned going to a movie. And he made a big deal out of this

1 color TV they had, because, at the time, I only had a black and
2 white TV, and he made a big deal that, if there wasn't nothing on 3 at the movies, we could go watch his color TV. And so he said,
4 "Would you come back here after the wedding?" And I said,
5 "Sure."

6 And he said, "We need to clean up some of that wax on the 7 carpet," where the bride and groom were going to be kneeling, so
8 he gave me a knife to clean it up. And so I walked out, and, as 9 you come out the main doors, it's an L-shaped rectory, and I could 10 see him standing at the window, watching me, because I wanted to 11 run but I knew, if he saw me there, it was a pretty big, open
12 space and he'd find me. So I walked back to the church, and I
13 could see him watching me all the way as I walked from the south
14 to the north where the church was from the main door. As soon as 15 I hit inside of the door, there was about, I think, three other
16 altar boys there that were going to help serve the mass. I ran 17 straight across, threw the knife right near the altar area and ran 18 out the opposite door.

19 And I knew he knew where I lived, and so I ran to the 20 north and then ran east. There was a big drainage ditch that was 21 to the northeast of the church, and I was afraid that he was going 22 to look for me, so I ran to that drainage ditch. I ran and got 23 down in the drainage ditch, because it was winter, and I remember
24 there being ice and mud, and the reason I was down there is I knew
25 I could run down there and no one could see me from the street.

1 So I ran down that ditch for awhile until I came up to the street
2 called Cherokee, and I knew I could run straight down Cherokee
3 through the high school and go straight home.

4 And as I was running down Cherokee, I saw him -- what I
5 thought was his car. It was a greenish-blue car coming up. It
6 was kind of a small, compact car coming up going west, and I was 7 running east towards my house, and, when he got closer, then I
8 knew it was him. And he got out of the car and he said, "I'm 9 sorry, [REDACTED] Come on, get in." And I know I said -- I think I
10 said, "Fuck you." I was so upset, and I didn't think I could keep 11 away from him.

12 So I knew a [REDACTED] boy, and his name is [REDACTED]. I
13 didn't know him real well, but I had dropped him off at his house,
14 my mom had a couple of times, from basketball practice, and so I
15 ran up to his house. And Father Perrault followed me up in the 16 car, and he parked in front of the house and kept calling me back
17 to his car, and I knew he wasn't going to leave. So I just ran in 18 that house, and I remember being muddy and his mom standing there
19 when I burst in the door because it was like Saturday morning
20 about 9:00. I know everybody was asleep except her and her
21 youngest daughter, and I was -- I was crying and screaming, and I
22 told her that I needed to call my mom, that there was a priest
23 chasing me. And I know it probably sounded screwy to her.

24 And I called my mom, and my mom picked me up. And I told
25 her what happened, and then my mom kept saying, "Are you sure?"

Dear Archbishop;

After talking with you on the phone I spent a great deal of time considering my role here at the University. I believe that I can say in all honesty that Frank Kleinhenz has everything to lose and nothing to gain in my resignation. I have given myself as completely as possible to the Christian life formation of these students. We have a crowded chapel, a liturgy in which the young adults feel completely involved, and the beginnings of a beautiful Christian Community. I have done this without the support of the sisters or the administration.

True, I can say that I have not received open opposition from those in authority, but then their financial support has been virtually nonexistent.

There is no question in my mind that I have the enthusiastic support of the student body, or else I would not even desire to stay on.

But after considering my role as chaplain, I believe that we have a Christian community here despite the University - a community that could be formed anywhere; it just happens to be here.

If the opening presents itself, I would consider it a real honor to serve with Walter Cassidy at Guadeloupe. I regard him as one of the truly great men of the church and see the possibility of his parish becoming a model for the diocese. I believe I can offer him real talent in adult education and the Liturgy, properly celebrated, is the most important reality in my life.

Certainly, you may have other ideas for me; I merely offer this as a suggestion because I feel that I could learn parish life from a master, and I feel that I have talents to offer him.

Respectfully yours,

Arthur Perrault

Dear Father Beno,

I am pleased to recommend the Rev. Arthur Perrault of this Archdiocese of Santa Fe for the office of Executive Secretary of the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions.

Father Perrault was ordained for the Archdiocese of Hartford, Connecticut on May 7, 1964. In March of 1966 he was appointed to the faculty of St. Pius X High School in Albuquerque to teach religion. He served for one year, June 1970 to June 1971, as Chaplain at the University of Albuquerque (a Catholic College); from June 1, 1971 to November 1, 1971 he was assistant pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Albuquerque. On November 3, 1971 he was appointed Archdiocesan Director of the Liturgical Commission of this Archdiocese.

Notable service in this latest assignment has been given in the publication of a monthly bulletin for the parish liturgy; and in the organization and direction of the Southwest Liturgical Conference Sessions held in Albuquerque in January of this year.

Father Perrault was canonically received into the Archdiocese of Santa Fe by incardination on August 14, 1973.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

1 My mom couldn't believe that this had happened. And she says,
2 "You're telling the truth?" And I said, "Yes," and she said,
3 "Well, we need to go to your grandparents'," and that's where my
4 dad was because my grandfather had a stroke, and my dad was there
5 taking care of him. So we went to my grandparents'.

6 Q That same morning?

7 A Right, from that boy's house, yeah. I had to tell my dad.
8 And my dad, again, said, "Are you sure this is happening? He's 9 the head of the youth." And I said, "Yes." So then he said,
10 "Well, you have to go back with me, and we're going to confront
11 him." And I remember arguing with him because I didn't want -- I
12 didn't want to confront this priest again. I didn't want to look 13 at him face to face. And my dad said, "You have to go in there,
14 and I want him to admit it in front of you."

15 And so we went back to the church. We went in and Father
16 Cassidy was there, and he said he wanted to talk to my dad alone.
17 My dad said, "No, we're going to talk to Father Perrault." And we 18 went in his office, shut the door, and Father Perrault said he was 19 sorry that he had touched me, and, at that point, my dad says,
20 "Go, shut the door behind you."

21 So I went out through the office area, back down the 22 steps, and I stood at the sidewalk a little ways from my dad's
23 car. And I guess my dad talked to Father Perrault, and that's 24 when Father Cassidy came out, and he told me I needed to pray and 25 forgive, and he told me we needed to keep this within the church,

1 and he just said that what he had done -- he was just trying to
2 express love for me. And he kept saying, "You need to forgive and
3 forget and pray." And then I remember he tried to put his arm
4 around me, and that's the last thing I wanted him to do, and so I
5 shrugged away, and I told him to leave me alone.

6 And I went and stood by the car, and he told me, "Pray
7 and forgive and forget," and then my dad came out, and he took me
8 home. And he said write a letter so the Archbishop could read
9 it. I wrote the letter, and that's the last day my parents and I
10 basically spoke about this incident. My parents are the type that 11 it was over and done with, and they just told me that they would 12 handle things with the Archbishop, and we didn't ever go back to 13 that church again.

14 Q Did you change parishes?

15 A Well, they dragged me from parish to parish for six weeks,
16 about six weeks or even longer. I refused to go to church at 17 all. And then they told me that I had to go, so they took me to a
18 lot of churches, Catholic churches, trying to find a church that I
19 would approve of. And I remember hating them for it, and I still 20 don't have pleasant memories about that. And then they went to 21 the Newman Center, and they said, "Well, you've got to at least go
22 once in a while." And so the Newman Center was at least -- it
23 wasn't your traditional Catholic church. They played what my dad
24 called hippie music. It was just a different -- it was totally 25 different than the traditional Catholic church I had gone to, so I

1 would go once in a while, and I had to go on holidays. My parents
2 made me go. But that's about it.

3 Q Did your father tell you -- let me back up. When you first
4 get back to the church, there's a meeting in Father Perrault's
5 office that you're there, Father Perrault is there, and your dad
6 is there?

7 A (Witness nods head yes.)

8 Q Who says what during that meeting?

9 A I think my dad said, "My son is saying this happened," and 10 Father Perrault said, "Yes, I'm sorry. I was just trying to be 11 affectionate," or something like that, and, as soon as he made
12 whatever his admission was, my dad told me to leave.

13 Q Did you, in that meeting, have to describe what happened?

14 A No. I just told my parents he touched me, my privates, and 15 that's -- I didn't say a whole lot other than that.

16 Q And the chronology was, as soon as you ran away and called
17 your mom, she picked you up, and you told her. She then said,
18 "We're going to go to where your father is," your grandfather's
19 house, and you told your dad. And was it immediately after that 20 that you and your dad went back to the church?

21 A Yeah. It had only been an hour and a half, two hours, at the 22 most, because I remember arguing with him and crying that I didn't 23 want to go back to that church.

24 Q When, that day, does it come up about you writing down what 25 happened?

1 A That -- when we got back, my dad says, "I want you to sit
2 down, write out what happened, and I'm going to go to the 3 Archbishop, and we're going to make sure that he doesn't do this
4 anymore." And so --

5 Q I have that handwritten letter, and I wonder if you could 6 just read it for me since it's in your handwriting. This was 7 attached to your response to the First Request for Production.

8 A "On December 4th, 1971, 10:00 a.m., I had a meeting at Our 9 Lady of Guadalupe, altar boy meeting. I was sitting in the 10 rectory, and Father Perrault asked me to come into his room. I
11 just thought he wanted me to see something or give me something.
12 Well, before I knew it, he was hugging me and rubbing my thighs.
13 Then he said, 'We better go to the meeting.' It was a very short
14 one, and he had asked me to serve a wedding before everything
15 happened. Then he asked me and [REDACTED] to come and get a 16 knife. I didn't think nothing could happen, since [REDACTED] was going 17 to be there.

18 "Well, he asked [REDACTED] to leave, and I knew what was going
19 to happen. He took me to his bedroom and then hugged me and then
20 started rubbing my testicles. He asked me if I thought it was a 21 sin. I just went along with everything he said because he might 22 have gotten mad, and I would tell" -- "he might have gotten mad
23 and thought I would tell, so I didn't say nothing against him.

24 He then asked me, 'Do you want to go to the movies
25 tonight,' and if nothing is showing, he said we could watch his

2 grandfather was sick and I would have to watch my sisters. Then
3 he took me to bed and hugged me, and he was kissing me and asked
4 me if I wanted him to rub my testicles, and I said no because I
5 didn't like it. And he said, 'Okay, we better get over to the 6 wedding,' and he gave me the knife to clean the carpet. The knife
7 to clean the carpet had fallen. I left about three minutes before
8 him.

9 "I walked to the church, threw the knife on the carpet
10 and ran down the road the opposite way of my home. I ran about 11 one mile through the ditch and finally up the road, then I started 12 walking. I saw a light greenish-blue car. I didn't think it was 13 him, but it was, and he pulled up next to me and said, "I'm sorry,
14 [REDACTED]. Come on." I just turned around and ran five houses down
15 where my friend lived. He turned around and went, and he didn't 16 see where I went. I called my mom, and, while I was waiting, he 17 passed one time down the street, and that's all, and then my mom
18 picked me up."

19 Q The next attachment to that is a letter written by Arthur
20 Perrault. Did you ever see that letter?

21 A Not until October.

22 Q Of 1992?

23 A (Witness nods head yes.) And that's when I asked my parents
24 why I had never been told about this, and my mom said that she 25 just let it go, and I was too young to discuss this when it

1 happened. And then she told me that he came over several times
2 trying to convince her to not let me -- you know, to get out of 3 the parish and that he was sorry, and my mom had to lock the 4 screen door and told him to leave us alone. And she said she 5 didn't want to tell me that he was coming around because I would
6 have been more scared. And I didn't see this until last October.

7 Q When your mother picked you up that day, were you still 8 crying?

9 A Yeah. I didn't think anybody would believe me. I had never 10 heard of anybody touching a kid before, especially a priest.

11 Q Did your mom believe you?

12 A Yeah. She just kept asking me to make sure I was telling the 13 whole truth, because it was real important, and I told her it 14 was. And then my dad kept asking -- you know, made sure I was 15 telling the truth.

16 Q Did you believe, after they were questioning you, that your 17 mother believed you were telling the truth?

18 A After my mom took me to my grandpa's, she didn't talk to me
19 anymore, and then my dad told me to write the letter, and that was 20 it. The only other thing they communicated to me was they talked 21 to the Archbishop, and they were taking him out of the church and 22 he wouldn't bother anyone again, and that's the last I heard.

23 Q At the time you told your dad and mom, did you feel that they 24 believed you?

25 A Yeah. They're very stern parents, and they were -- it's not

1 like you sat there and discussed what you were going through and
2 how you felt. They just said, "It's over. We took care of it,"
3 and --

4 Q Did they ever talk to you about seeing a counselor or talking
5 to anybody professionally about it?

6 A No. As a matter of fact, my mom frowns on me going to a
7 therapist now, says it's a sign of weakness. And she's a very
8 predominant Spanish woman, and, in her mind, if you talk about it
9 once, it's over, and that's it.

10 Q When you were growing up, [REDACTED], were you the kind of kid that 11 told the truth to your parents?

12 A Yeah.

13 Q Did they have any reason to doubt that you were telling the 14 truth?

15 A I don't think so. They -- I mean, after I told my dad, he 16 immediately went over there to confront Father Perrault.

17 Q Was that one time the only day on which there was 18 inappropriate contact between you and Father Perrault?

19 A Yeah. When I read the letter, when I read it that one time,
20 that's why my mind is a little confused. It sounds like he 21 touched me once, and we went back. I mean, just briefly touched
22 me, and we went back a second time, and I don't know. And when I
23 keep thinking of this other stuff, I don't know. I just don't

2 having all these memories." What do you mean by that?

3 A Well, I told my therapist, when I got that letter -- it
4 wasn't until I actually got that letter and read it, and then I
5 started having dreams of me being a little boy at night, and 6 Father Perrault, being that -- I mean, he's a big man. At least
7 from my memory, he seems like a very big man. And I would have
8 those dreams at night and wake up sweating, and then I started --
9 I kept thinking about it and thinking about it after I got that 10 letter, and I keep seeing him doing stuff with his -- oral sex
11 with his mouth on my penis. And I've told my therapist -- that's 12 one of the first things I told her. I don't know whether I'm 13 making more of this than there is. I mean, I just don't know. I
14 don't know whether it happened or -- and then the letter, I
15 thought it sounded like I said that I knew it was going to happen
16 again, and I only think I remember one incident, but I don't know
17 why I would put in there we went back again and I knew it was 18 going to happen again." So I don't know.

19 Q How did you first get contacted in 1992 about Arthur
20 Perrault?

21 A My mom called me up, and she said that she had heard that 22 there was an attorney handling a case with Arthur Perrault and 23 that he was doing stuff, and then she says, "You're not going to 24 believe it, but he's been back in the church and, not only has he 25 been back in the church, but he's the head of this big church

1 called St. Bernadette's." And she said, "It's the largest parish
2 in the Albuquerque area." And she says, "I heard this attorney
3 was asking for information, if there was any other" -- "anybody
4 out there." And I just said, "Well, you've got to call him." I
5 said, "This ain't right."

6 And then my dad got on the extension, and he told me they
7 had these copies, and I didn't know they had these copies, and I
8 said, "Well, I'd like to look at them first." And I said, "If you
9 could give them to my sister so she could FAX them," because I
10 wanted to see them right away. And then I couldn't read my letter
11 on the FAX, because it's -- it's hard enough to read there, and so 12 he mailed me another copy, and that's when I said, "You need to 13 contact this guy and give him my number and give him these 14 letters."

15 Q In these answers to written questions we sent earlier, we 16 asked you who knew about this event that you've just described,
17 and one of the people you listed was Father Cassidy. Did you have 18 any discussion with Father Cassidy, other than his coming outside 19 and talking to you while you were waiting for your father to 20 finish his conversation with Arthur Perrault?

21 A He knew. He just said, [REDACTED], he says, "We're sorry.
22 Father" -- I think he said, "Father Art messed up." And I
23 remember my dad having me by the hand. He says, "I'll talk to you
24 later." And I remember Father Cassidy saying, "No, you're upset.
25 We need to talk and pray, and then you can talk to Father Art."

1 And then, when he came back, he gave me the impression that he
2 knew completely of what happened. And I even remember, while I
3 was talking to him, I said, here's this man trying to tell me to 4 pray and forget, and I can smell alcohol on his breath. And it
5 was -- and then, when he tried to put his arm around me, I
6 distinctly remember wanting to get away from him, too, because I
7 --

8 Q And this happened December of '71. You were 13 years old?

9 A Yes. I was in seventh grade, because I remember I had a lot
10 of friends that I was in Scouts with and also went to school with 11 that went to that church, and I just remember going to school and 12 wondering how many people are going to know about this. And I
13 didn't want no one to know nothing.

14 Q Did you ever talk to any of your friends about what happened?

15 A No, no. That's -- I didn't talk to anybody until right
16 before I got married, when I told my father-in-law and 17 mother-in-law that I didn't want to get married in that big 18 church, and I just told them it was because I was abused.

19 Q What did St. Therese have to do with this? I mean, was it
20 just because it was a Catholic church?

21 A Yeah, I didn't like it.

22 Q Okay. None of this happened at St. Therese?

23 A No, it's just another Catholic church, and the last place I
24 wanted to be was there, especially for my own wedding.

25 Q Did you tell -- what are your in-laws' names?

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Dec. 4, 1971

Dear [REDACTED] -

I'm sorry that you didn't come over with your husband. Maybe it would be easier for you to forgive me if I spoke to you. It's not enough to say I'm sorry, but there's nothing else I can say. When the Air Force doctors told me about the lung cancer and their doubts that an operation would do anything and that about it probably the only hope, I just fell apart and reached out to the first person. I don't think I've spoken more than 5 minutes before to [REDACTED].

I wish you could find it in your heart to forgive me and realize the sudden hopelessness and loneliness that hit me. I've tried to be a good priest. Don't let me fail in your eyes.

Sincerely-

ROMERO: Was there sex involved with the [REDACTED] kids or anything?

[REDACTED] No, no, no, not at their house. No, never.

[REDACTED]: Uh, I can't remember unless I see the calendar.

ROMERO: April 3rd, Art called.

[REDACTED] Uh, that, that probably was the day that he called me and, and had one of the boys over at the Archdiocese.

ROMERO: Okay. And what did Art tell you?

[REDACTED] Uh, probably, I believe he called me and we went to go pick up one of the boys.

ROMERO: Okay.

[REDACTED] And say we were gonna go meet him somewhere and pick him up.

ROMERO: [REDACTED] lives at, April 4th.

[REDACTED] Okay, April the 4th is when I believe it was [REDACTED] but it, it was, all I can remember is the [REDACTED] name is when Arthur Perrault brought one of the [REDACTED] boys...he was a teenager, to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and molested him there.

CONFIDENTIAL

And the boy was obviously upset. And I, I don't know if he told his mother or what happened with the [REDACTED] incidence.

ROMERO: Okay, and this is all 1973 is that correct?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

ROMERO: Okay, and uh, April 5th, [REDACTED] home two hours.

[REDACTED] Yeah. We went over one time. The mother wasn't there and we stayed there for two hours.

ROMERO: Did you know what he was doing?

[REDACTED] I did not see his every move, no. I remember spending a whole hour watching television with one of the boys.

ROMERO: And then the other boy was missing with...

[REDACTED] Two of the other ones were missing.

ROMERO: Two of the others?

[REDACTED] Yeah. But I don't know if uh, they were together or not.

ROMERO: April the 8th, Pearl Printing again.

[REDACTED] I was there the whole day.

ROMERO: Okay. And then April 13th, the mention of Northgate Apartments, what's that?

[REDACTED] Uh, uh, Arthur Perrault, rented a real nice beautiful apartment at the the Northgate Apartments on Montgomery Blvd. And that's when he wanted me to move in with him. So (Inaudible) instrumental, that I had mentioned the Northgate Apartment.

ROMERO: Okay. And do you know how long he was there?

[REDACTED] Uh, I don't know how long he was there.

ROMERO: April 29th, Jemez Mountains.

[REDACTED] Uh, him and I went for a ride up, that's one of the times we went up to the Jemez Mountains and I stayed out there.

ROMERO: Okay, and then he, he stopped where?

CONFIDENTIAL

[REDACTED] He stopped at the, it's the church places out there. The Paraclete or something like that, I...

ROMERO: Paraclete?

[REDACTED] Yeah, the Paraclete, yeah.

ROMERO: Okay. And May...

[REDACTED] It was a white building with the arches on it.

ROMERO: Uh, May the 6th problem with Perrault.

[REDACTED] That was uh, the time we had a huge, huge fight.

ROMERO: Over what?

[REDACTED] Uh, I wanted to leave him. I didn't want to be with him anymore or live...that, that was time when he wanted me to live with him in the apartment and I didn't want to. And we had a big fight and, and uh, he chased me all over the place and we end, we ended up at some park and he tore my shirt. We got in a really big fight that day.

ROMERO: Was it a fist fight?

[REDACTED] It, it wasn't really that physical. It's just that he tore my shirt because I was trying to get away from him.

ROMERO: Okay, May 7th you got it blank.

[REDACTED] I don't know if there was, I, he's just probably mentioned in there.

ROMERO: Okay, May the 11th, reference to party.

[REDACTED] That could have been, that was probably when he went down to [REDACTED] apartment, who used to live on [REDACTED] to be exact. Uh, uh, there was parties going on there and he would go down there and, and try to pick up one of the boys that were there.

ROMERO: On [REDACTED] ?

[REDACTED] On [REDACTED], yes.

ROMERO: Who lived on [REDACTED] ?

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] did. He lived on [REDACTED].

ROMERO: Do you remember his last name?

CONFIDENTIAL

██████████ INTERVIEW

RR: What were their names?

██████████ One was named ██████████ and one was named ██████████.

RR: Do you remember the last names?

██████████ Not for ██████████ but ██████████ his last name is ██████████

RR: Okay, and where, have you run into ██████████ or ██████████?

██████████ Well I, I talked to ██████████ oh, maybe ten years ago. He's since been married and had three kids himself and was in California.

RR: Do you know where I, we can reach him?

██████████ Oh, I have no idea.

RR: You know what town in California?

██████████ Colorado Springs.

RR: Colorado Springs, California.

██████████ No, no, Colorado Springs, in, in Colorado.

RR: Okay. Colorado Springs. And his name uh, his name again is...

██████████ ██████████

RR: Hang on, let me make some notes here. ██████████.

██████████ Hmm hmm. And they live in Black Forest actually, which is a suburb of uh, Colorado Springs.

RR: Okay, where else?

██████████ And, and the boy, the other one, ██████████.

RR: Yes.

██████████ I don't know anything, I just, all I know is that he was as buddy of mine briefly and I hung out with him. And, and, and we went to parties and stuff like that. And so I don't, I really don't know cause he, I introduced him to Perrault. And Perrault went out with him a couple of times and I don't know what happened after that.

CONFIDENTIAL

[REDACTED] INTERVIEW

RR: Did he have sex with either boy?

[REDACTED] He had sex with both boys.

RR: Okay.

[REDACTED] With boy of them. And he paid them for the sex. Because they were sort of on the streets and doing drugs and stuff like that. And they needed money. And he paid them.

RR: Okay. Anybody else?

[REDACTED] Uh, okay, and, and, you mean sex with other people?

RR: Yes.

[REDACTED] Well, I was involved, now this is, this is a really thing of my past that's really hard for me to talk about and stuff but...you need to know this. But he, I was involved with a bunch of, with a bunch of boys and in 1974. This is a little bit after '73. It could have been '73, '74 I don't remember. But uh, he was involved, I was involved with these boys. I was living in this house, in this apartment on [REDACTED] And I lived there with six other boys. And uh, they were involved in a burglary ring okay. And uh, they, Perrault knew them. And he had sex with two of those boys. And uh...

RR: Did he know that they were burglarizing?

[REDACTED] Yes he did. Because uh, they burglarized a couple of uh, the people that were going to the church that he knew very well. Their homes were burglarized. And the only reason why they knew those people weren't home is because Perrault...cause they knew Perrault must have told them. I mean, he didn't actually tell them to do anything like that but they just happened to know that this couple happened to be out with Perrault, you know somewhere in town that particular evening. But anyway, we all got arrested. They busted all of us. And at the time, which I didn't mention at first, I joined the Marine Corp. [REDACTED] Uh, after I got out [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I believe.

22 January 1975

Personnel Board:

I wish to apply for the pastorate of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish in Albuquerque.

Since October 1973, I have been music director at Assumption. Consequently I have led music at all the Sunday masses, and I feel that I have good rapport with the people.

Our Lady of the Assumption is a liturgically vibrant parish and I feel strongly that it must go forward in this direction.

The debt of the parish is extremely high and this is worrisome. However, the parish has a competent financial committee and if they are allowed to continue their projections and influence with the people, payment of the debt can be realized.

The parochial school is a vital influence in the parish; I feel that it should be continued and believe that the community will make the necessary sacrifices for this goal.

The deep spirituality of Assumption Parish is due in large measure to the charismatic prayer meetings. Pentecostalism along with numerous other prayer opportunities is well established and must not only be allowed to continue, but certainly should be encouraged.

Father Carl Hammer's influence in the Parish has been dynamic and extremely positive. I believe that the direction in which he has led the Parish should continue and I believe that I can give this direction.

The only area which I feel must be strengthened is a Parish Council which can unite the many varied activities and accelerate this positive direction.

I wish to be considered by the Board and Archbishop for this challenging opportunity.

Sincerely,

Arthur Perrault

Re: Additional Claims Against Arthur J. Perrault
and Archdiocese of Santa Fe

SIMONS, CUDDY & FRIEDMAN
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Dear Mr. Bardacke:

You have requested notification of additional claims that this office has been instructed to pursue with regard to Father Arthur Perrault and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. The purpose of this letter is to respond to your request and provide the factual background pertaining to the claims of these clients. This letter is submitted pursuant to the evidentiary restrictions of S.C.R.A. 11-408, and is not to be used for purposes other than settlement discussions.

With that preface, the following represents the identification of the individuals and the specifics of their abuse and injury.

I. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was born on [REDACTED], to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was born in [REDACTED], California. He has one (1) younger brother named [REDACTED] and one (1) younger sister named [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]'s younger brother, [REDACTED], is also a Perrault victim.

The [REDACTED] were a devoutly Catholic Family who taught their children to believe and have faith in the Catholic Church and the parish priest.

The [REDACTED] family left [REDACTED], California, in approximately late 1964, and moved briefly to New Jersey. After a few months in New Jersey, [REDACTED]'s father was transferred to Albuquerque to accept employment at [REDACTED] as a [REDACTED]. After arriving in Albuquerque, the family attended Annunciation Parish until approximately 1974 when the family began attending Assumption Parish. As soon as he was old enough, [REDACTED] became an altar boy and enrolled in CCD classes.

CONFIDENTIAL

In approximately September of 1974, Father Arthur J. Perrault was introduced to the [REDACTED] family by Father Carl Hammer. Father Hammer was another priest at Assumption who asked the family if they would befriend Perrault. What we know now in view of the discovery that has been done is that Father Hammer was often a conduit through which priest pedophiles were given parish assignments and ingratiated into parish families. At Father Hammer's request, the [REDACTED] family befriended Perrault, and he became a respected and honored guest at their home. The family would have Perrault over for dinner, and Perrault would take [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to various restaurants, outings to Kirtland Air Force Base, and even to engage in activities like viewing the bombs stored in the Manzano Mountains. The boys felt honored that such a powerful man wanted to be with them.

In November of 1974, when [REDACTED] was eleven (11) years old, Perrault began to sexually molest him. As is typical with pedophiles, this began with fondling outside of the clothes, proceeded to fondling inside the clothes, and progressed on to demands by Perrault that [REDACTED] masturbate him.

Perrault had a certain ritual with [REDACTED] that we have not seen before. As you may know from newspaper articles, Perrault was an advocate of "face to face confession". He would take [REDACTED] into [REDACTED]'s bedroom, confess to [REDACTED], have [REDACTED] confess to him, and then masturbate [REDACTED] while [REDACTED] masturbated him. [REDACTED] remembers that this ritual occurred numerous times, and often while Perrault was wearing a clerical collar.

[REDACTED] estimates that Perrault engaged in the fondling/absolution ritual, and other episodes of fondling, on at least fifty (50) occasions from November of 1974 through the end of 1976.

[REDACTED] did not want to say anything to his parents about the fondling because he was afraid that they would not believe him and that he would go to hell if he said these things about a priest. However, on one occasion, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] did tell their parents that they each had been fondled once. They did not tell their parents what really happened. Shortly after they disclosed this, Perrault came again to the family home and the parents confronted Perrault. As you know, [REDACTED] later confronted the Archbishop.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were very embarrassed about what had happened, felt that they had done something wrong by getting Perrault into trouble, and were impacted by the advice given to their parents by the Church that this matter should be maintained confidentially within the Church and should not be disclosed. Neither the family nor the boys were offered any counseling or assistance, and obviously the Church did nothing to curb

Perrault's appetites or activities. The Archbishop denies remembering the conversation with [REDACTED].

After the parents confronted Perrault and [REDACTED] confronted the Archbishop, neither [REDACTED] nor [REDACTED] ever discussed between themselves or with anyone else what Perrault had done to them.

Over the years, [REDACTED] had been very shy, aloof and unable to socialize. He saw several mental health practitioners for this problem including Dr. Ruth Mondlick in the Fall of 1983, Dr. Penny Clemens, a psychologist in Santa Barbara in 1984, and Dr. Harold Cohen in January of 1992, in Albuquerque. With none of these mental health practitioners did [REDACTED] ever disclose the abuse by Perrault because he did not believe it had injured him and because he had repressed most of the recollections about it.

In the Spring of 1993, [REDACTED] began seeing Dr. Edward Snyder, an Albuquerque psychologist. By June of 1993, he had switched to Dr. Carolina Yahne, also an Albuquerque psychologist. Both Dr. Yahne and Dr. Snyder will testify that [REDACTED] did not know and could not have known of his injury and its cause until their therapy with him began in 1993.

[REDACTED] has had a very difficult life. After the molestation by Perrault, he became socially isolated. He never had a date in high school, rarely dated in college, and now lives with his mother in Albuquerque. He works at [REDACTED] as a part-time [REDACTED], although he has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Advertising and Photography from [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is an isolated and lonely young man who cannot have relationships, and the mental health practitioners attribute this to the abuse by Perrault.

[REDACTED] has never had a substance abuse problem. He describes himself as heterosexual by orientation, and would like to have a relationship with a woman, but finds himself unable to do so. He tells us that he feels as if he does not deserve a wife, children and a happy family life. As with most priest pedophile victims, [REDACTED] has left the Catholic Church.

II. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was born on [REDACTED], in Union, New Jersey, where the family was stationed in between San Pablo, California and Albuquerque. [REDACTED] is two (2) years younger than [REDACTED].

In Albuquerque, [REDACTED] was five (5) years old when the family began attending Annunciation Parish, and nine (9) years old when the family began attending Assumption. Like his brother [REDACTED], [REDACTED] became an altar boy and enrolled in CCD classes as soon as he was old enough.

At the same time that Perrault began his numerous molestations of [REDACTED], he started engaging in similar activities with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] remembers he was nine (9) years old when Perrault began molesting him, and that the molestation, generally fondling, often occurred in the presence of the family with Perrault's hands exploring [REDACTED]'s genitals under a blanket while the family was watching television.

Perrault was always at the family home, and would come into [REDACTED]'s room to talk to him after he went to bed, masturbate [REDACTED], and ask [REDACTED] to fondle him. [REDACTED] estimates that there are approximately three (3) dozen episodes of mutual masturbation and fondling. As with [REDACTED], these acts of sexual abuse occurred from November of 1974 to the end of 1976.

[REDACTED] recalls what we would now describe as a pattern of psychological abuse also perpetrated by Perrault, and presumably done to keep the boys in line and intimidated. One morning, while the family was at breakfast with Perrault after Mass, Perrault presented the boys with a present, an industrial retractable razor blade. The boys thought that was a peculiar gift and apparently were unenthusiastic about it whereupon they were chastised by Perrault for not expressing their thanks. After breakfast while Perrault was driving them home, he asked the boys if they had the razor blade, and they were ashamed to tell Perrault they had left it at the restaurant. Once they arrived at their home, Perrault pulled the razor blade from his coat, confronted the boys with it, and lectured them on the importance of being truthful and moral. These staged reprimands from Perrault were designed to create a psychologically intimidating environment which would keep these little boys in line during the sexual abuse, and both boys recall other, similar episodes of it. Perrault essentially lived with the family for this period of time, was apparently at the house almost every day, and was molesting the boys almost every time he was there.

[REDACTED] was a very bright student even after the molestation by Perrault, although also socially isolated. After graduation from high school with very good marks, he attended [REDACTED] in San Antonio where he graduated with a degree in Comparative Religion in 1987.

After graduation, [REDACTED] worked for a short time in Albuquerque, and then moved to Washington, D.C. He has worked as a technical writer for a civil engineering firm, and now is [REDACTED] of an organization called [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] also describes himself as heterosexual, but seems to be unable to start a relationship with a female. He has never been married. He says he would like to meet a girl and get married some day, but the relationship difficulties which Perrault inflicted on his life have crippled him from being able to do so.

In 1989, [REDACTED] began receiving counseling from Dr. Harold Goldstein in Silver Spring, Maryland. The counseling began because [REDACTED] was suffering from suicidal ideation and depression. During the first four (4) years of therapy, [REDACTED] never disclosed what Perrault had done to him because he did not realize that was the cause of his injury. However, in approximately October of 1992, [REDACTED] disclosed to Dr. Goldstein the fact of the sexual abuse by a priest. Both [REDACTED] and Dr. Goldstein will describe the therapy as having vastly improved after that disclosure. [REDACTED] has to pay for the therapy himself, and the therapeutic expenses are approximately $300.00 a month. He has been on anti-anxiety medication, and continues to suffer from depression and sexual identity issues. Dr. Goldstein will testify that [REDACTED] did not discover his injury or its cause until approximately 1992 when he disclosed the abuse by the priest, and that the issues pertaining to sexual identity, isolation and depression are directly related to what Perrault did.

As with almost all priest victims, [REDACTED] has left the Catholic Church and does not believe in God. He is an intelligent and likeable young man who will make an excellent witness.

III. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was born on [REDACTED], in Albuquerque. His parents are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has a brother three (3) years older, and a sister one (1) year younger. The family were devout Catholics, and attended St. Charles Borromeo Church in Albuquerque from the time [REDACTED] was in the first grade through the middle of his eighth grade year. In the fourth grade, [REDACTED] became an altar boy.

[REDACTED] was molested not only by Perrault, but also by another priest whose name he does not remember. While an altar boy at St. Charles Borromeo, and in approximately 1966 when he was twelve (12) years old, [REDACTED] recalls that he was fondled by a priest at St. Charles Borromeo. He does not remember any other sexual contact, nor does he remember the name of the priest. [REDACTED] left St. Charles Borromeo in the middle of the eighth grade and finished the school year at Jefferson Junior High.

In 1968, he enrolled at St. Pius High School for ninth grade, and noticed almost immediately that Arthur Perrault, then a teacher at St. Pius, was interested in him. In about the seventh week of the school year, and therefore approximately November of 1968, Perrault introduced himself to [REDACTED], and then began ingratiating himself with [REDACTED], ultimately proceeding on Confirming my conversation with Debbie Manchester of your office on August 4, 1993, it would appear that Mr. [REDACTED] was first sexually molested by Father Arthur Perrault in approximately November of 1974. The abuse continued until approximately September of 1975. These dates are subject to change.

Re: Additional Claims Against Arthur J. Perrault
and Archdiocese of Santa Fe

SIMONS, CUDDY & FRIEDMAN

Dear Mr. Bardacke:

You have requested notification of additional claims that this office has been instructed to pursue with regard to Father Arthur Perrault and the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. The purpose of this letter is to respond to your request and provide the factual background pertaining to the claims of these clients. This letter is submitted pursuant to the evidentiary restrictions of S.C.R.A. 11-408, and is not to be used for purposes other than settlement discussions.

With that preface, the following represents the identification of the individuals and the specifics of their abuse and injury.

I. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was born on [REDACTED], to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was born in [REDACTED], California. He has one (1) younger brother named [REDACTED] and one (1) younger sister named [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]'s younger brother, [REDACTED], is also a Perrault victim.

The [REDACTED] were a devoutly Catholic Family who taught their children to believe and have faith in the Catholic Church and the parish priest.

The [REDACTED] family left [REDACTED], California, in approximately late 1964, and moved briefly to New Jersey. After a few months in New Jersey, [REDACTED]'s father was transferred to Albuquerque to accept employment at [REDACTED] as a [REDACTED]. After arriving in Albuquerque, the family attended Annunciation Parish until approximately 1974 when the family began attending Assumption Parish. As soon as he was old enough, [REDACTED] became an altar boy and enrolled in CCD classes.

CONFIDENTIAL

In approximately September of 1974, Father Arthur J. Perrault was introduced to the [REDACTED] family by Father Carl Hammer. Father Hammer was another priest at Assumption who asked the family if they would befriend Perrault. What we know now in view of the discovery that has been done is that Father Hammer was often a conduit through which priest pedophiles were given parish assignments and ingratiated into parish families. At Father Hammer's request, the [REDACTED] family befriended Perrault, and he became a respected and honored guest at their home. The family would have Perrault over for dinner, and Perrault would take [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to various restaurants, outings to Kirtland Air Force Base, and even to engage in activities like viewing the bombs stored in the Manzano Mountains. The boys felt honored that such a powerful man wanted to be with them.

In November of 1974, when [REDACTED] was eleven (11) years old, Perrault began to sexually molest him. As is typical with pedophiles, this began with fondling outside of the clothes, proceeded to fondling inside the clothes, and progressed on to demands by Perrault that [REDACTED] masturbate him.

Perrault had a certain ritual with [REDACTED] that we have not seen before. As you may know from newspaper articles, Perrault was an advocate of "face to face confession". He would take [REDACTED] into [REDACTED]'s bedroom, confess to [REDACTED], have [REDACTED] confess to him, and then masturbate [REDACTED] while [REDACTED] masturbated him. [REDACTED] remembers that this ritual occurred numerous times, and often while Perrault was wearing a clerical collar.

[REDACTED] estimates that Perrault engaged in the fondling/absolution ritual, and other episodes of fondling, on at least fifty (50) occasions from November of 1974 through the end of 1976.

[REDACTED] did not want to say anything to his parents about the fondling because he was afraid that they would not believe him and that he would go to hell if he said these things about a priest. However, on one occasion, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] did tell their parents that they each had been fondled once. They did not tell their parents what really happened. Shortly after they disclosed this, Perrault came again to the family home and the parents confronted Perrault. As you know, [REDACTED] later confronted the Archbishop.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were very embarrassed about what had happened, felt that they had done something wrong by getting Perrault into trouble, and were impacted by the advice given to their parents by the Church that this matter should be maintained confidentially within the Church and should not be disclosed. Neither the family nor the boys were offered any counseling or assistance, and obviously the Church did nothing to curb

Perrault's appetites or activities. The Archbishop denies remembering the conversation with [REDACTED].

After the parents confronted Perrault and [REDACTED] confronted the Archbishop, neither [REDACTED] nor [REDACTED] ever discussed between themselves or with anyone else what Perrault had done to them.

Over the years, [REDACTED] had been very shy, aloof and unable to socialize. He saw several mental health practitioners for this problem including Dr. Ruth Mondlick in the Fall of 1983, Dr. Penny Clemens, a psychologist in Santa Barbara in 1984, and Dr. Harold Cohen in January of 1992, in Albuquerque. With none of these mental health practitioners did [REDACTED] ever disclose the abuse by Perrault because he did not believe it had injured him and because he had repressed most of the recollections about it.

In the Spring of 1993, [REDACTED] began seeing Dr. Edward Snyder, an Albuquerque psychologist. By June of 1993, he had switched to Dr. Carolina Yahne, also an Albuquerque psychologist. Both Dr. Yahne and Dr. Snyder will testify that [REDACTED] did not know and could not have known of his injury and its cause until their therapy with him began in 1993.

[REDACTED] has had a very difficult life. After the molestation by Perrault, he became socially isolated. He never had a date in high school, rarely dated in college, and now lives with his mother in Albuquerque. He works at [REDACTED] as a part-time [REDACTED], although he has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Advertising and Photography from [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is an isolated and lonely young man who cannot have relationships, and the mental health practitioners attribute this to the abuse by Perrault.

[REDACTED] has never had a substance abuse problem. He describes himself as heterosexual by orientation, and would like to have a relationship with a woman, but finds himself unable to do so. He tells us that he feels as if he does not deserve a wife, children and a happy family life. As with most priest pedophile victims, [REDACTED] has left the Catholic Church.

II. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was born on [REDACTED], in Union, New Jersey, where the family was stationed in between San Pablo, California and Albuquerque. [REDACTED] is two (2) years younger than [REDACTED].

In Albuquerque, [REDACTED] was five (5) years old when the family began attending Annunciation Parish, and nine (9) years old when the family began attending Assumption. Like his brother [REDACTED], [REDACTED] became an altar boy and enrolled in CCD classes as soon as he was old enough.

At the same time that Perrault began his numerous molestations of [REDACTED], he started engaging in similar activities with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] remembers he was nine (9) years old when Perrault began molesting him, and that the molestation, generally fondling, often occurred in the presence of the family with Perrault's hands exploring [REDACTED]'s genitals under a blanket while the family was watching television.

Perrault was always at the family home, and would come into [REDACTED]'s room to talk to him after he went to bed, masturbate [REDACTED], and ask [REDACTED] to fondle him. [REDACTED] estimates that there are approximately three (3) dozen episodes of mutual masturbation and fondling. As with [REDACTED], these acts of sexual abuse occurred from November of 1974 to the end of 1976.

[REDACTED] recalls what we would now describe as a pattern of psychological abuse also perpetrated by Perrault, and presumably done to keep the boys in line and intimidated. One morning, while the family was at breakfast with Perrault after Mass, Perrault presented the boys with a present, an industrial retractable razor blade. After graduation, [REDACTED] worked for a short time in Albuquerque, and then moved to Washington, D.C. He has worked as a technical writer for a civil engineering firm, and now is [REDACTED] of an organization called [REDACTED].

Personnel Board:

I wish to apply for the pastorate of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish in Albuquerque.

Since October 1973, I have been music director at Assumption. Consequently I have led music at all the Sunday masses, and I feel that I have good rapport with the people.

Our Lady of the Assumption is a liturgically vibrant parish and I feel strongly that it must go forward in this direction.

The debt of the parish is extremely high and this is worrisome. However, the parish has a competent financial committee and if they are allowed to continue their projections and influence with the people, payment of the debt can be realized.

The parochial school is a vital influence in the parish; I feel that it should be continued and believe that the community will make the necessary sacrifices for this goal.

The deep spirituality of Assumption Parish is due in large measure to the charismatic prayer meetings. Pentecostalism along with numerous other prayer opportunities is well established and must not only be allowed to continue, but certainly should be encouraged.

Father Carl Hammer's influence in the Parish has been dynamic and extremely positive. I believe that the direction in which he has led the Parish should continue and I believe that I can give this direction.

The only area which I feel must be strengthened is a Parish Council which can unite the many varied activities and accelerate this positive direction.

I wish to be considered by the Board and Archbishop for this challenging opportunity.

Sincerely,

Arthur Perrault

[REDACTED] alleges that he was sexually abused by Fr. Perrault in 1974. [REDACTED] has not been participating in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe's counseling program. While additional investigation is needed, given the nature and duration of the alleged abuse and our experience with other claims of this type, we estimate the settlement value of [REDACTED]'s claim in the range of [REDACTED].

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe would like to settle these claims and thus begin the process of reconciliation with the victims, as well as close off any possible liability to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe or the Diocese of Hartford, Connecticut. Accordingly, we are requesting that the Diocese of Hartford, Connecticut assist us financially in our efforts to reach settlements of these claims.

Summary Phone Conversation

██████████ & Sr. Nancy Kazik, OSF

Phone: ██████████, (W) ██████████ (Use only if absolutely necessary)
██████████ is currently in the military; a ██████████.

██████████ alleges sexual abuse by Fr. Art Perrault. The abuse occurred in 8th or 9th grade, at age 13 or 14 in 1975 or '76. The abuse occurred twice; one time was very extreme, sodomy, oral sex; occurred in Fr. Perrault's apartment on Montgomery for 2 to 3 hours, ██████████ left and he said nothing to his mom about this. His mother asked what's wrong? She suspected something and called Fr. Hendricks. (Archdiocesan records show Fr. Hendricks was at Assumption from 11/19/67 - 1/20/80.) The other occurrence was two days later in a car. (They were going to work on a model (?)) Fr. Perrault left Assumption soon after. (Fr. Perrault's CV does not list an assignment at Assumption Parish nor does the Parish Assignment file list Fr. Perrault as being assigned there.) However, Fr. Perrault assisted in forming the choir, with masses and baptisms. There is one baptism recorded on November 29, 1975 in the parish records.

Twenty years of his life was destroyed, his trust and faith. ██████████ spoke with a Deacon about it after twenty years; did not know who the Deacon was. Recently he spoke to Fr. Jaramillo about it. Fr. Jaramillo called the Case Manager's office about this and said ██████████ would be calling.

██████████ is divorced has three children to support and can no longer afford to pay his counseling bills. He does not wish involve the military in the counseling because he does not want it to get on his record. He has counseled with John Humphreys (884-9411) for one year. He has told the counselor and his former wife about the abuse by Fr. Perrault.

He has read about priest sexual abuse cases in the newspapers.

Sr. Nancy informed ██████████ that the Archdiocese would provide counseling for him in accordance with Archdiocesan policy. His counselor will be contacted and given the necessary information.

THIS SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND RELEASE (hereafter "Agreement") is entered into this 18th day of July, 2017 by and between [REDACTED] and the Roman Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, a corporation sole and Our Lady of Assumption Parish (hereinafter collectively the "Archdiocese") and [REDACTED] and the Archdiocese to be hereafter collectively referred to as the "Parties"), in order to bring the matter in controversy between the Parties to a full and complete settlement.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, [REDACTED] has made certain claims against the Archdiocese for personal injuries arising from incidents alleged to have taken place in New Mexico in a lawsuit styled *John Doe 63 v. 1 privileges that surround it. So it is Father Starkey who 2 will alert us if he feels there's privilege, because of the 3 confidential relationship between the person speaking to him
4 in his role as a priest. It's not something I have personal
5 knowledge of either, because of that confidentiality
6 relationship.

7 MR. BLAKE: I'd like to take a break for just a minute.

8 (THEREUPON, a recess was taken.)

9 Q Father, have you read the New Mexico statutory 10 evidentiary privilege that concerns communications between 11 parishioners and clergy?

12 MS. KENNEDY: I'm going to put in an objection. This 13 man is obviously, from his testimony, not qualified as a 14 lawyer. I don't think having him comment on the legal 15 aspects of the evidentiary rules is a proper line of 16 questioning.

17 Q I just want to know if you have read it. Have you read
18 it?

19 A No.

20 Q Why don't we go ahead and talk about the second
21 incident.

22 A Well, the reason I mentioned the word "confidential" is 23 in reference to the name of person, because the person
24 approached me, not in connection to Father Perrault
25 specifically, nor in relationship to the civil law in any

1 way. The person approached me with the question, "How can I
2 make Archbishop Sanchez do what he promised to do?"

3 That was the basis of the conversation, seeking my 4 private advice.

5 Q What had Archbishop Sanchez promised to do?

6 A I have no idea. We never discussed it.

7 Q In what context was this conversation between you and
8 this individual that you won't give me the name?

9 A The context was the fact that she alleged Father
10 Perrault had -- and I use the term in a very wide possible
11 meaning -- molested her two sons. And she had gone to Bishop
12 Sanchez privately and discussed this, and they had come to 13 some kind of agreement. And some three to four months after 14 this, she felt he had not kept the agreement. And her
15 question was, "What should I do? How can I motivate him?"
16 These are not her exact words, but as I generally remember
17 it, "How can I motivate him to do what he promised or agreed
18 to do?"

19 Q Let me just stop. Are we speaking of [REDACTED]

20 [REDACTED]?

21 A Yes. You said her name, I didn't.

22 Q Can you give me a date when these conversations took 23 place?

24 A It would probably have been in the late 1970s. I don't 25 specifically remember.

1 Q Did the conversation take place in your office?

2 A No. I believe I met her the first time in front of the 3 church.

4 Q What church was that?

5 A I believe it was Annunciation church where I sometimes
6 went to help out when a priest was sick or something.

7 Q You say the first time you spoke with her?

8 A I don't remember the first time.

9 Q But you spoke with her on more than one occasion
10 concerning the archbishop's promise; isn't that correct?

11 A There was an occasion when she brought this matter up.
12 The conversation was primarily about what to do to get Bishop
13 Sanchez to keep his agreement.

14 Q Was that the first conversation?

15 A This was each and every conversation. There was only 16 about two of them.

17 Q Tell me about the first one. Where did that take place?

18 A I don't specifically remember. It was probably in front
19 of the church. It may have been in the chancellor's office.
20 I don't remember exactly.

21 Q Was there a conversation in the chancery office between
22 you and [REDACTED]?

23 A No. She didn't particularly come there. She has a
24 problem with authority. That's my opinion. She asked me to 25 lunch one day. I think that's where one of the conversations

1 took place.

2 Q Where did you have lunch?

3 A It was probably --

4 MS. KENNEDY: If you recall, Father. Please don't 5 speculate.

6 A Wyatt's, I think, on San Pedro and Lomas, or whatever
7 that restaurant is there. It's not Wyatt's, it's Furr's.

8 Q Would that have been the first or second conversation?

9 A I don't remember. She spoke with me several times on 10 separate occasions. I don't remember the order.

11 Q Three, four, five, six, approximately?

12 A Three, four, five times. She'd still discuss with me
13 about it today, probably.

14 Q This was before or after you had spoken with the father
15 and the son in your office in the late 1970s?

16 A It was probably before that.

17 Q This was before that?

18 A Probably so. It would probably go back to the mid 19 1970s. You'd have to ask her the precise dates. I don't 20 know.

21 Q Tell me what you spoke of.

22 A What we spoke of?

23 Q Yes.

24 A It generally revolved around, "I took this matter to 25 Bishop Sanchez, and I don't think he's kept his agreement

1 that he made with me. Now, how do I get him to keep his
2 agreement?" This was in reference to Father Perrault having
3 molested her boys over a period of time.

4 "What is it you wanted the bishop to do?"

5 "That is not your concern."

6 "What help do the boys need? We can take care of it."

7 "I'm studying psychology. My husband is a scientist.

8 We're quite able to handle our affairs."

9 "Do you want to go public with this?"

10 "No, I don't."

11 "What do you want?"

12 "We want Father Perrault to receive proper treatment and 13 be removed from the ministry with children, and Bishop
14 Sanchez hasn't kept that agreement in the way I want him to."

15 That's the general gist of all of our conversations.

16 Q Did you ever tell [REDACTED] that, "The Archdiocese had to 17 do something about Father Perrault, or they would be sued out
18 of existence"?

19 A No, I didn't.

20 Q Have you ever told [REDACTED] that Perrault was ruined?

21 A No, we never discussed him in any detail. She's not a
22 vindictive person. She wanted him to be treated.

23 Q Did you ever speak with the archbishop about [REDACTED]'s
24 conversations with you?

25 A No, not that I recall.

2 [REDACTED]'s conversations with you?

3 A No.

4 Q Did you ever investigate [REDACTED]'s allegations?

5 A No.

6 Q Did you ever speak with [REDACTED]'s children?

7 A I met her two sons many years ago at Christmastime, I
8 think, at a Sunday service.

9 "These are my two sons, X and Y."

10 "How do you do, boys. Have a nice Christmas."

11 That was about the extent of it.

12 Q Do you know if Archbishop Sanchez ever investigated
13 [REDACTED]'s allegations?

14 A No, I don't.

15 Q Do you know if Father Perrault was ever put into 16 counseling or therapy of any kind because of [REDACTED]'s
17 allegations?

18 A No.

19 Q Do you know if Father Perrault was in counseling at this 20 time; i.e., when [REDACTED]'s children were allegedly molested?

21 A It's my impression he was still in counseling from 22 Bishop Davis' time, 1973 or so, with Mr. VanDenHeuvel. Now,
23 how long he remained his patient, I don't know. I assume 24 about eight, 10 years.

2 A No.

3 Q Do you know if Archbishop Sanchez participated in any
4 way in Father Perrault's psychological counseling?

5 A How do you mean that?

6 Q Did the archbishop make sure that Arthur Perrault was 7 going to counseling? Did he check up on him?

8 A Well, since we paid the bills, I assume he did.

9 Q The Archdiocese paid the bills for Father Perrault's
10 counseling?

11 A They had to at the time.

12 Q Do you know that for a fact?

13 A No.

14 Q Did you ever speak with the archbishop about Father
15 Perrault's counseling?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you ever speak with anybody about his counseling?

18 A No.

19 Q Did Father Perrault ever speak with you about it?

20 A No.

21 Q Did [REDACTED] ever ask you to do anything about Father
22 Perrault?

23 A No. Her persistence was to make the bishop do what she 24 wanted him to do. My constant answer to this day, "You have 25 to go to the district attorney and file civil charges if you

 2 other than whatever counseling he might receive."
 3 Q Is there any particular reason why allegations of this
 4 nature would warrant the removal of Father Perrault?
 5 A At this time, he wasn't in his pastoral ministry.
 6 Q Would it warrant the suspension of his faculties?
 7 A Only if the matter could be proven.
 8 Q Allegations would not be enough; is that what you're 9 saying?
 10 A Allegations would be the reason for prudent care and 11 some watchful concern.
 12 Q Do you know if there was ever watchful concern over
 13 Father Perrault?
 14 A No, I wasn't privy to that. I don't know what the 15 bishop did.
 16 Q Was the bishop aware of the allegations concerning
 17 Father Perrault, that you know?
 18 A No, I don't know what the bishop would know.
 19 Q What's the third occasion?
 20 A The parents of Ms. [REDACTED].

1 Q Are you aware of the complaints made against Father
2 Perrault concerning misconduct of any type?

3 A Mental reservation. No. Okay, I'll tell the truth.

4 Q You said, "Mental reservation." You're not going to 5 employ it now, are you?

6 A No, I'm going to tell the truth. In reference to Father
7 Perrault, on four occasions, people approached me on an 8 advisory situation seeking my advice. And I can't exactly
9 give you the chronological order. One is in reference to an 10 error in this letter that you have sent.

11 Q Why don't you give me the four occasions, and then I'll 12 get into what you brought today.

13 A I can't give the exact chronological orders. One day, a 14 man in his early 60s, I would guess, and his son, who was 15 about 19 or 20, came rather suddenly into the office on 16 Morningside and wanted to see the bishop.

17 Q Which bishop?

18 A It must have been Bishop Sanchez. It would probably be 19 in the late 1970s. They were rather pushy, obnoxious. Kind 20 of an impolite situation. And I wound up talking to them and 21 inquired what the purpose of this intrusion was, because I
22 felt they were intruding, in the sense of just, "Uh-huh,
23 okay, but what is your problem?"

24 "We came to tell you something."

25 "Okay. You mean me personally?"

1 "No, the catholic church. The bishop, all of you
2 people."

3 "What is it?"

4 "Well, my son can speak for himself."

5 "What's your problem?"

6 "Father Perrault made sexual advances to me when I was a
7 teenager."

8 "Well, why are you telling me this?"

9 "We want you to know about it."

10 "Are you willing to go to the district attorney's 11 office?"

12 "No, we're just telling you this."

13 "Why are you telling me this?"

14 "Because I just came from boot camp at San Diego, and I
15 learned in boot camp that there are certain people that were 16 queers that have to be dealt with harshly, and I didn't know
17 that before I went to boot camp."

18 So this would have to be an attitude before the military 19 to deal with homosexuals -- well, nobody did, I guess, with 20 understanding.

21 "Well, do you want to file charges?"

22 "No. We just want you to know."

23 "Do you want something done about it?"

24 "No, we just want you to know we think some priests are

1 And they left.

2 Q Did they tell you how old the son was when Perrault made
3 sexual advances?

4 A No, they didn't give me any specifics. Then the second
5 time --

6 Q Well, let's talk a little more about the first occasion.
7 You asked them if they wanted to file charges?

8 A That's right. I do every one.

9 Q You do each and every one?

10 A That's right. It's a policy.

11 Q Did you mean with the police, or did you mean within the 12 Archdiocese?

13 A I mean it this way: These people come in accusing us of 14 a civil crime. We're talking civil law. They have a
15 responsibility under civil law. If a crime, misdemeanor,
16 felony or crime is committed, they have to go to the district
17 attorney and file charges. If they won't do that, then I
18 tend to dismiss it, because we're not -- we're talking
19 separation of church and state.

20 And you lawyers have set up -- not you personally, but 21 you as a class -- there are civil laws -- I'm very hot about 22 this, so you have to -- civil laws pertaining to human 23 conduct are penal. If you get caught, you take the 24 punishment. If you don't get caught, nothing happens.
25 That's the way we have to deal with these subjects.

1 When people come in and make allegations, and they're
2 not willing to take the matter to civil court and pursue it
3 under civil law -- because we cannot do that. And it's been
4 alleged that this is a coverup on our part. But we must work
5 on the principle that a person is innocent until proven
6 guilty. That is the civil law.

7 Q Did you take any notes?

8 A No, I never did, because I was in a consulting -- I was 9 not an official that could act on any of this information.
10 People consulted me because they couldn't get to the bishop,
11 probably.

12 Q You asked the son if they wanted something done about 13 this?

14 A That's right. They're accusing him of a crime.

15 Q They said no?

16 A They said, "No, we just want you to know that this man 17 in some way needs to be watched," or -- I don't know the 18 specific statement.

19 Q They said, "This man may need to be watched"?

20 A I don't remember specifically. The purpose was, "We're 21 bringing this to your attention. Then our obligation and 22 duty is fulfilled. What you do with it is your concern," is 23 what I got out of it. They were trading the responsibility,
24 is what they were doing.

25 Q Do you know what the man's name was?

1 A No, they didn't give me their names. They came in,
2 stayed about 10 minutes, and left.

3 Q Did they ever see the archbishop?

4 A No, they didn't want to see him.

5 Q Did you ever speak with the archbishop about these 6 particular individuals?

7 A No.

8 Q Why didn't you?

9 A Probably he wasn't there, or they didn't bring any
10 specific allegation or charge against ^{Father Perroult} him. They didn't want 11 to pursue it. What's freely said is freely denied.

12 Q Did you take this as a serious matter?

13 A Not in that particular instance, no.

14 Q Why not?

15 A Because they didn't want to do anything about it. They 16 wouldn't make any charge. They wouldn't specifically state
17 what he had done or where he had done it. I deal many times
18 with people that have visions or -- all manners of 19 statements, all manners of things.

20 Q Did you believe what they were telling you?

21 A As a fact, no. As an allegation, possibly.

22 Q As an allegation, did you think it was something worth
23 looking into?

24 A Not if they didn't, no.

25 Q Why do you think they came to you?

1 A Because he had an experience in boot camp, and the
2 training that they got at that time was offensive to people
3 that were considered sexual misfits. There was kind of an
4 idea that they should be beaten up, they're to be mistreated
5 or punished or persecuted. That was an attitude of the 6 military and society 30, 40 years ago. That was just the 7 first occasion.

8 Q Did you follow up on this meeting in any fashion?

9 A No way. No. I dropped it. Totally forgot it.

12 somewhat simultaneous -- this is why I say -- they say I told
13 them about a case of a man and his daughter.

14 Q We'll come back to that.

15 A Well, that's why I brought that up, because of that.

16 Q Had anyone ever come to you before alleging that one of 17 the priests in the Archdiocese had made sexual advances
18 towards them?

19 A I have never had any discussion with anyone concerning 20 priests in the Archdiocese, other than Father Perrault. And 21 that was on four separate occasions. I have narrated one.

Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Paul:

Thank you for your letter of February 1, 1994. I am sure that you meant, in good faith, the things that you said, but it is clear to me that they are a reflection of your belated entry into these cases. The fact of the matter is that [REDACTED] is damaged far worse than [REDACTED], something that I am sure you would have known if you would have attended the [REDACTED] interview and been given more access to the factual materials.

For example, although both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] only received one (1) episode of oral sex, [REDACTED]'s damages have been remarkably more profound. [REDACTED]'s school performance, relationship with his family, and other life dynamics, did not appear to change markedly after the abuse by Perrault. On the other hand, [REDACTED]'s life took a pronounced turn for the worse with which he has only been able to cope through sheer strength of will.

[REDACTED], for example, is heterosexual, is quite comfortable with the fact that he is heterosexual, and suffers from no traumatic sexualization. [REDACTED] does not know whether he is a boy or a girl. Since Perrault molested him, he has only had one (1) relationship with a woman, and that was just a few brief dates while he was in college. Since that time, and prior to that time, he has never been with a woman. He has engaged in sex with men as a sexual outlet, but he feels he cannot have a relationship with a woman - although he would prefer to do so - because he feels that he would be molesting a woman as Perrault molested him. As a result, and because of his feelings of guilt about acting out homosexually when he is not truly gay, he tends to lead an asexual lifestyle and practice obsessive masturbation.

Indeed, during his interview, when [REDACTED] was asked about his sexual orientation, his answer was "I am confused." [REDACTED], on the other hand, has never had any confusion about his sexual identity.

The fact of the matter is that Arthur Perrault put [REDACTED] into a lifetime of sexual confusion and dysfunction. He will not be able to have a trusting relationship with a woman. He will not be able to have children. He will not be able to have a loving, trusting relationship with anyone. He will lead a life of loneliness and isolation where his only outlet is to throw himself into his work. You seem to think that because he makes a living, he was not injured. There is a lot more to life than having a job, and [REDACTED] will never have those things.

Another thing you need to keep in mind is that [REDACTED] met Perrault in confession. As so many of these sexually abusive priests do, Perrault asked [REDACTED], then a devoutly Catholic child, whether he masturbated. When [REDACTED] confessed to the priest that he did, the priest began grooming him for his own sexual pleasures. When Perrault finished his sexual escapades with [REDACTED], he said "Now isn't that better than masturbation?" Therefore, the isolation which [REDACTED] feels, the lack of ability to have relationships, and the rest of the damages he has suffered, are compounded by the fact that he can no longer have a relationship with God. God betrayed him, and that completely eliminated his ability to have faith in the Catholic church. Maybe you do not think that is bad damage. I disagree. Loss of religious faith is a profound injury.

After Perrault directly sexually abused [REDACTED], he began to call [REDACTED] at home on the phone and ask [REDACTED] to engage in phone sex with him. Perrault's charming idea was that they should both masturbate while speaking to each other on the phone. On one final occasion, Perrault insisted that [REDACTED] come over to his house, and while there Perrault began to attempt to masturbate him claiming that there was nothing wrong with such activity, and that he used to do it with the [REDACTED] brothers all the time back in Massachusetts. [REDACTED] is one of several people to whom Perrault alleged that he was a child molester because he had been sexually abused by the [REDACTED], and the fact that they are Democrats lends some credibility to that allegation.

If you view [REDACTED] as being less injured than [REDACTED], you need to spend some more time evaluating. Now that Neil and I have gone through our notes, we think his damages may match those of [REDACTED].

Since we are now reevaluating cases, let us talk about [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is in a mental institution as we speak for ongoing, inpatient care directly pertaining to the abuse Sigler did to him. Prior to his current institutionalization, he has been in every inpatient care facility in New Mexico, and failed at each of them. He has numerous episodes of suicidal ideation, physical abuse perpetrated upon others, depression, substance abuse and traumatic sexualization. He is a laundry list of the worst things that can happen to people who are sexually abused by priests.

The same goes for [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has flunked out of fewer mental institutions than [REDACTED], but on one charming entry in his medical records, he is found smearing his feces on the wall in what appears to be a ritual of expiation for what Sigler has done to him. Surely, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have far greater damages than [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. [REDACTED], don't you think? Why don't we put them up at [REDACTED] each, and let us only double [REDACTED] to [REDACTED].

Thank you for sharing your thoughts with me.

Very truly yours,

Bruce E. Pasternack

10 Parrot taught, I believe some how or another he was suppose to be in the 12 he had. I am very active in Alcoholics Anonymous. I have not had anything to 13 drink in many years, since 1971 actually. And at the time I became acquainted

14 with people in the Albuquerque area. Young men and going to some AA
15 meetings and stuff or their families, and being helpful for them in recovery, this 16 was about 1980. And these young men and their families actually would raise
17 an eyebrow when Father Parrot's name was mentioned. And I, two different
18 families that I knew that the families were aware of some thing that Father Art
19 Parrot had been involved with boys, alter boys or kids at the school or

6 had some sexual contacts with kids under age. Not adults.

7 BR: Okay.

8 JL: I know some priests that had this.

9 BR: Now he was chosen by Fully, Art Parrot was.

10 JL: Yes.

(1 BR: Okay and was Fully aware of Art Parrot's problem?

(2 JL: Oh yes. If I became aware of it, how I found out about via Jerry, via Ed

15 BR: And if you knew about it, was there any doubt in your mind that the doctors

17 JL: Correct. I have no doubt in my mind that the doctors knew about this.

18 BR: How can we prove that Dr. Joe Vandenheuvel, Annette M.D. and Dr. Feerman

7 JL: Exactly.
8 BR: Instead he was on the staff too.
9 JL: Right.
10 BR: And he was counseling people for their problems when in fact he had problems
11 of his own is that correct?
12 JL: Yes, yes. And I wasn't sure to what degree Art Parrot had problems other than 13 the fact there were a couple of families that, and I'm not sure if I talked to Father
14 Ron about this or if I had this on tape where the two families specifically here in 15 Albuquerque that knew Father Art Parrot and would raise their eyebrows when 16 I had mentioned their friends in the family here that Art Parrot was on our staff

I obtained a possible home phone number for Father Kempter. I called the number and spoke to an individual who identified himself as Father Kempter.

Father Kempter was informed of my investigation and the fact that his name was mentioned by several of the victims and their family members during this investigation. Father Kempter stated that he would prefer not to be involved in this matter; however, he did agree to speak with me briefly about Father Perrault.

Father Kempter said that Father Perrault worked as his assistant at Annunciation church for approximately ten years. Father Kempter said that he and Father Perrault didn't get along with one another, especially when they were dealing with issues concerning the church.

Father Kempter said that he did recall several of his parishioners telling him that Father Perrault was sexually abusing their children. I asked Father Kempter if he recalled the ■ and the ■ families. Father Kempter said that he did recall both families. He also said that

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT TO BE USED BY PROFESSIONAL STAFF ONLY. TO PREVENT POSSIBLE PSYCHOLOGICAL DAMAGE, THIS REPORT MUST NOT BE SHOWN TO THE PATIENT.

Dear Archbishop:

This is in response to your request for a comprehensive assessment of Fr. Arthur J. Perrault's personality functioning. Fr. Perrault was seen for purposes of this evaluation on May 19.

PROCEDURES

To promote the accuracy and completeness of the diagnostic conclusions, standardized psychological test instruments, in addition to interview, were used, and procedures were selected to yield data from a variety of sources. Thus, procedures used included the following:

1. History.
2. Extended clinical interview.
3. Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory.
4. Hand Test (a projective instrument which is particularly sensitive to both environmental and interpersonal action tendencies which play a major role in everyday living).
5. Interpretation and integration of the complete range of data.
6. Development of recommendations.

The conclusions presented are based on an analysis of the body of data as a whole, rather than on any single test or procedure.

Response Set

Initial rapport was somewhat marginal, primarily because this man felt that "the Archbishop sent me for a psychological evaluation to cover himself." In this connection, he made mention of the fact that he had "been in trouble" because of illicit sexual activities with students. Response set was characterized by a tendency to minimize or overlook personal shortcomings and to present himself in a more favorable light in regard to human frailties than warranted. However, this tendency was not so severe as to invalidate the data obtained.

INITIAL OBSERVATIONS AND HISTORY

Initial Observations

Appearance, dress and behavior were within normal limits, although an overweight condition was noted. There were no obvious physical impairments.

Identification

This is a single, 43-year-old Catholic priest, who was born on March 5, 1938. He is 6' tall and weighs 220 lbs.

Present Situation

As indicated above, this gentleman came for a psychological evaluation, not because he was personally motivated to do so, but because he was instructed by you. He states that he has not been "in trouble" because of homosexual activity for a period of approximately six years. He further states that he feels that it is "safer emotionally" to be homosexual, even though he also believes that he "could have been heterosexual just as easily." Yet, he further indicates that he has no desire to change his sexual orientation and would like to engage in further homosexual activity, but is aware of the danger. Inquiry showed that the term "homosexual" is used in a rather restricted sense since this man has apparently acted out his homosexual orientation only with youngsters and has never had an ongoing, adult homosexual relationship.

He lives by himself in a townhouse. He holds various part-time positions in the Archdiocese, including National Guard Chaplain, director of a center for education and spiritual direction, and director of liturgy. In addition, he offers Masses at a local parish and writes a Sunday bulletin.

He enjoys painting. Though he used to play the organ, he does not do so presently. He reports no outdoor hobbies.

Social life appears to be somewhat restricted. He does not enjoy associating with priests who, in his estimation, complain too much and are excessively "turned inward." As a result, he prefers to socialize with lay people.

He reports no difficulties in performing the work associated with the positions listed above.

Family History

He is an only child, who was born when both of his parents were in their forties. He describes early family life as "difficult." He states that his father, who died a few months ago, was a carpenter and that his mother was an inspector in a factory. He describes his mother as "overprotective" and feels that he had a somewhat better relationship with his father, though he really did not know either parent very well at all. Personal experiences were not readily shared in the family.

School History

In addition to his training as a Catholic priest, he reports having completed a Master's Degree in psychology approximately ten years ago and, more recently, near completion of a Doctorate in ministry.

Physical Health

Complaints presented include an overweight condition, occasional dizziness when he gets up too quickly, intermittent back pain, and occasional headaches.

He reports no accidents leading to injuries or surgical procedures. Except for a brief period of time in the hospital for traction in connection with his back problem, he reports no periods of hospitalization.

He reports no fainting, seizures, grogginess or numbness. Neither does he report problems with coordination, vision, hearing, touch, taste or smell.

Concerning drug use the following information was obtained: he smokes a pipe. He uses a couple of cups of coffee per day. In the past he has used diet pills (amphetamines) and on rare occasions (such as with his mother's death), he reports having used tranquilizers. He reports no use of cocaine, barbiturates, narcotics, hallucinogens, inhalants or other street drugs. In regard to alcohol, he reports using "maybe a drink per day on the average."

PERSONALITY FUNCTIONING

These findings are based on integration of data from all procedures used, as listed earlier. Except for "a couple of counselling sessions" in the past, this man reports no previous psychotherapy or hospitalization for reasons of severe psychological disturbance.

Thought Processes

Though this evaluation was not designed to assess intelligence, clinical impressions are that intelligence falls in the bright-normal range and that he is quite imaginative and can probably be quite creative. There are no gross impairments in the ability to concentrate, remember, reason logically and realistically, and to form appropriate concepts.

Relation to Reality and Judgment

Orientation as to time, place and person is intact. Though there is no evidence of gross perceptual distortion or misjudgment of reality, such as hallucinations or delusions, he does experience some difficulty at times in coming to grips with practical matters and tends to focus on abstract interests and fantasy life, at times to the neglect of people and practical matters.

The self-concept is underdeveloped and characterized by immaturity, excessive self-centeredness, dependency and a basic passivity. In addition, there is a tendency toward self-dramatization which is often attention-seeking and seductive.

As you know, judgment is intermittently impaired, even though he has adequate awareness of the consequences of his actions.

Interpersonal Relations

The ability to form and maintain lasting, satisfying relationships with others is chronically impaired. In large measure due to deficits in the self-concept, he tends to limit interpersonal functioning to a superficial level and shys away from emotional involvement. Functioning in this area is further characterized by a well-developed suspiciousness and distrust of others. He is likely to be stubborn, touchy, and oversensitive.

Control and Integration of Thought, Mood and Impulse

Frustration tolerance and impulse control are somewhat impaired. He tends to overreact to difficulties and is easily excitable. He has long had difficulty in effectively resolving emotional conflicts, tends to make excessive use of denial and repression and, as a result, is vulnerable to somatization and the development of non-specific, functional physical complaints. There is, however, no indication of depression.

Mastery-Competence

When properly motivated, interaction with the environment is quite effective. Energy level is excellent and, as noted above, he has the ability to be quite creative and imaginative in his approach to tasks. However, he does not have a well defined and consistent life goal. Thus he tends to live from day-to-day, rather than planning his life.

DISCUSSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS

On May 29, the results of this evaluation were conveyed to this gentleman in language manageable by him, rather than the direct clinical modes of expression used in this report to you. Fortunately, he was able to accept the findings as accurate and rapport was considerably better during this second session than during the initial evaluation session. Thus, though he was quite reluctant at first to participate in this undertaking, he now expresses a definite interest and a desire to see me again, in order to explore in further detail the deficits in personality functioning enumerated above and to develop ways of improving.

Though he expressed no interest in changing his sexual orientation, it is not outside of the realm of possibilities that he might manage to make some changes in that area after all, particularly since his sexual orientation is not of a well-developed adult nature and instead represents primarily an expression of lack of development in the self-concept and, as a result, in the area of interpersonal functioning generally.

Though there are a number of aspects of personality functioning which warrant improvement, with emphasis on the under-developed self-concept and deficits in interpersonal functioning, there is no indication of gross pathology.

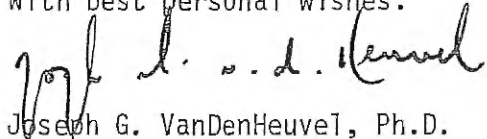

Finally, it is noted that, during the second session, this gentleman stated that he has complete confidence in you, even though he distrusts members of your staff.

Accordingly, I would recommend psychotherapy on a once-every-two-weeks basis initially. Assuming that this recommendation is acceptable to you, we will not be able to implement it immediately since we presently have no openings and are struggling with a rather extensive waiting list. However, I may be able to see him at least on an occasional basis when we get cancellations.

Thank you again for your referral. As always, it is a pleasure to work with you. If you would like to receive further information about any aspect of these findings, please be sure to let me know.

Please let me know your reaction to my recommendation concerning psychotherapy, so that we can make the necessary arrangements.

With best personal wishes.

It was the month before we saw the Pope in 21 Phoenix, so it would have been in August of '87. 22 Q. All right. 23 A. Sometimes three times a week, sometimes 24 five times a week, sometimes five times just on a 25 Sunday.	Page 56 1 A. In the next couple weeks, when I'd come to 2 see him, he'd kind of pull on my pants and say, "Oh, 3 I'm just trying to see if you have underwear." Or 4 he'd reach over and say, "Are you excited to see 5 me?" and grab me and say, "Are you excited to see 6 me?" 7 And I'd say, "Yeah, I'm excited to see 8 you." 9 And he'd say, "I'm excited to see you, 10 too." 11 Q. When you say "grab" you -- 12 A. Grab my penis. 13 Q. Over your clothes. 14 A. Yes, sir. 15 Q. All right. 16 A. And this went on. We talked about -- 17 There was a case he was working, he was -- somehow 18 worked with other priests in their assignments or 19 something to control where they were at. One of the 20 priests had a doctor's appointment, and I think his 21 name was Father Rodriguez; I could be wrong. And he 22 said, "Oh, Father Rodriguez has this problem. 23 Believe it or not, the doctor said that he doesn't 24 have enough sex. He said he's having a prostate 25 problem because he doesn't have enough sex. And he

And he gave me like a kiss with his 18 tongue. And I was kind of like, "What's up?" It 19 was, you know, I'd move my head to the side and gave 20 him a hug. And I said, "I'll see you later," and -- 21 Q. Left? 22 A. Yeah, and I left. 23 Q. Do you remember the next time you had 24 some kind of contact with him, that you remember, 25 sexually?	Page 57 1 told him, 'I'm a priest.' And he said, 'Well, 2 priests, they have to masturbate.' He said, 'It's 3 the only way they can take care of this natural 4 problem.'" So he said this thing on masturbation. 5 He said, you know, "It's important for young men to 6 masturbate. It will help you sleep better. And I 7 know you're thinking about sex because I know you 8 better than you know yourself, and I can tell what 9 you're thinking because I've been there." 10 And so he said, "This is okay. And if you 11 need to do this," he said, "in my bathroom on top of 12 the -- there's a toilet and a little cabinet for 13 towels." He said, "I have some magazines in there." 14 He said, "If you need to," he said, "just go in 15 there and," you know, "take care of business." 16 Q. Okay. What did you do in response to 17 that? 18 A. I said, "Okay." And the next time I went 19 to the rest room, I checked; and sure enough, there 20 was Playboy magazines and Hustler magazines in 21 there. And I kind of fingered through the magazines 22 and, you know, "It's cool." So I remember next time 23 I went there, I wanted to go to the bathroom to see 24 magazines. 25 And just from there, it led to, "If you

Dear Father Perrault,

May God's Peace and Love be with you!

Please accept my sincere apologies for the tardiness of this letter. With the holidays and a very busy schedule I simply have neglected writing to you.

In any event, I am pleased herein to assign you to St. Bernadette Parish for weekend assignments to assist the pastor, Rev. Msgr. James Rabbitt, effective December 1, 1981. Also, I would ask, Father Arthur, that you would assist Monsignor Rabbitt when necessary during the week upon his request. No doubt there will be times when Monsignor will require your assistance on special occasions.

Accordingly, please know that your salary will be paid as follows:

For the month of December - one-half by the Chancery Office - $122.50 plus car allowance of $95.00 ($217.50), and one-half by St. Bernadette Parish ($217.50).

As you know, effective January 1, 1982, the car allowance has been increased. Thus, you will receive a check from the Chancery for one-half of your salary ($230.00) and one-half of your salary ($230.00) will be provided by St. Bernadette Parish.

Thanking you, Father Arthur, for your service to the good people of St. Bernadette Parish, and to the Pastoral Center, while wishing you all the Lord's Blessings throughout this New Year, I am,

Dear [REDACTED]:

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe is attempting to meet the needs of survivors of clerical sexual abuse. The purpose of this letter is to maintain a sense of personal contact and sensitivity to your needs.

I understand that it is especially difficult to discuss such matters with a priest, but I am a willing listener. In specific cases, counseling is provided by the Archdiocese. All that is asked that you contact me first and that a simple intake form be completed. If you have completed such a form counseling fees will be paid by the archdiocese. The psychologists are independent of the archdiocese or you may choose your own counselor. The counselor must be certified.

Finally, I don't want to neglect your needs, if I can provide specific information for an interim report about an on-going investigation, I will give you such information. I am concerned about your welfare. Please feel free to contact me. I wish to thank you for your concern and for your cooperation concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

The purpose of this letter is to provide additional information concerning potential claims arising from the alleged acts of sexual misconduct by Fr. CONFIDENTIAL REPORT TO BE USED BY PROFESSIONAL STAFF ONLY. TO PREVENT UNDESIRABLE
PSYCHOLOGICAL COMPLICATIONS, THIS REPORT MUST NOT BE SHOWN TO THE PATIENT.

Dear Archbishop,

This is in response to a request by Fr. Arthur J. Perrault that I give you a brief summary of his present status.

As you know, I evaluated his personality functioning in May of 1981 and reported the findings to you in my report, dated June 1, 1981.

Though attempts were made to see Fr. Perrault on a regular, i.e. once-every-two-weeks basis, this turned out not to be possible due to conflicts with Fr. Perrault's own schedule of activities. Thus, I was able to see him for purposes of psychotherapy on seven occasions during the second half of 1981 and on nine occasions during all of 1982.

I'm happy to report that Fr. Perrault has been quite straightforward with me and has the psychological mindedness and motivation required to benefit by psychotherapy. As a result, he has made significant progress in the development of the self-concept which, in turn, has made possible an improvement in interpersonal relations. Thus, he now functions at a less superficial level, has become somewhat less suspicious and over sensitive, and is more prepared to take risks in the interpersonal sphere. In addition, frustration tolerance and impulse control have improved. Finally, his ability to come to grips with emotional conflicts and to resolve them effectively has increased significantly.

In view of chronic deficits in the personality functions enumerated above, more work remains to be done. However, indications are that he will make further progress especially if he can see his way clear to come on a regular basis. Furthermore, indications are that his growth will be further promoted by increased opportunities to interact with adults on a regular, on going, one-to-one basis. Thus, I would recommend that full-time parish work would be considered at this time.

Finally, it is noted that Fr. Perrault denies any homosexual activity for six years and has no longer any interest in working with youngsters.

If you would like to discuss these findings in further detail, please be sure to let me know. In the meantime, I will assume that you wish me to continue to see Fr. Perrault in psychotherapy, unless I hear differently from you.

Thank you again very much for the opportunity of working with you and Fr. Perrault.

With warm regards and best personal wishes for a fulfilling 1983.

1 Q Do you remember an interpreter being present at the
2 meeting between you, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]?

3 A No. There was only three of us.

4 Q Let's go to the meeting with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]'s parents.
5 Where did that take place, Father Starkey?

6 A In the same office in the chancery at 201 Morningside.

7 Q Did they call ahead to make an appointment?

8 A I don't believe so.

9 Q Who was present at the meeting?

10 A Just the three of us.

11 Q What was talked about at the meeting?

12 A Essentially, they wanted my advice about what to do
13 about a problem.

14 Q What was the problem?

15 A In some manner they alleged, and I underline "alleged,"
16 that their daughter had been molested by Father Perrault, and 17 what they wanted to do about it. The second question was,
18 "How could a priest do this?" And the third question was,
19 obviously, "What could be done to prevent this from happening
20 again?" That was the general gist of our conversation, those 21 three subjects, as reflected in their letter that they wrote
22 to their children.

23 Q Let's take the first question first. What could be 24 done? What did you tell them could be done about the fact
25 that their daughter had allegedly been molested by Father

1 Perrault?

2 A My policy has ever been the same, and I learned it in
3 the Navy in 1941 to 1946, that when persons come to a
4 superior and they allege moral turpitude, sexual misconduct
5 against an equal or a superior, they're stating that this 6 person has committed a crime.

7 Under civil law, the laws of the Navy, that must be 8 substantiated by an affidavit or a claim or an indictment or 9 whatever the law requires. Then the persons in authority
10 take that, they arrest the accused or they take them into 11 custody. Then there is an arraignment, then a presentation
12 and a court martial, in the court, of a proof, pro or con.
13 Then the individual is either declared free, or he's sent to 14 the proper punishment.

15 Now, with Mr. and Mrs. [REDACTED], they say, "Father
16 Perrault has in some way molested our child. How could a
17 priest do this?" My answer is there. It was an opinion.

18 "What can be done about it?"

19 "You have several options. First, you must go to the 20 district attorney, since a crime has been committed, by your 21 statement." Secondhand knowledge, by the way. They chose 22 not to do that because they didn't want to be involved in any 23 public scandal or have any shame brought to this family name.
24 I understand that.

25 So, fine. "You're not going to go to the police or to

1 the civil authority. All right. Then your second
2 alternative is to hire a lawyer, take the matter to our
3 lawyer and see if it can't be adjudicated privately without a
4 jury, without publicity." They didn't feel they could afford
5 a lawyer.

6 The third question is, "You can go and discuss the 7 matter with our lawyer privately and seek his advice, because 8 I'm not a lawyer." Now, that was misconstrued in the letter.
9 I did not tell them that our lawyer could handle their case
10 as a lawyer. That's obviously a conflict of interest. But 11 A, they didn't want to go to the district attorney or police.
12 B, they didn't feel they had the money to hire a lawyer. C,
13 "Then go talk to our lawyer to seek his advice in reference
14 to some private settlement between yourself, the bishop and 15 our lawyer."

16 Q Did they tell you they didn't have the money to go to a
17 lawyer?

18 A I don't specifically remember, but they did not wish to 19 hire a lawyer. They didn't state why. Then the next thing
20 comes up.

21 "Since you have not seen the bishop, then the final 22 choice is to write down a letter, sign your name to it, and 23 send it to him or give it to him privately. Since you
24 haven't been able to see him -- because the matter must be 25 adjudicated by him -- you only seek my counsel or advice,

1 because I have no direct authority on any of this matter."
2 Then we chatted awhile. But that was the gist of the 3 conversation.

4 And then I told them, "If you do not go to the civil
5 authorities, if you do not talk to a lawyer, or our lawyer,
6 if you do not write a letter and sign your name, then nothing
7 can be done." That's the conclusion. And the reason I say
8 to these people and to them, nothing can be done because a
9 person is innocent until proven guilty.

10 Q You keep referring to that, that "A person is innocent
11 until proven guilty."

12 A Because that's my thinking.

13 Q Is that the policy that you operated under when you were 14 chancellor?

15 A No, that's my personal policy.

16 Q Concerning allegations against priests, that you would 17 take no action unless, in other words, they were innocent
18 until proven guilty?

19 A No, no. I object to your assumption that I could take 20 any action in the case one way or the other. I cannot,
21 because I wasn't bishop. That's the thing that you don't 22 realize. You're dealing with an absolute dictatorship in a

8 A Yes. No more could fit in there. It was very small.

10 A No.

11 Q What did [REDACTED] tell you?

12 A Primarily that he had been living in Denver, that this

14 he wanted the matter to be handled in some way properly, that 15 he had spoken to a lawyer in Denver about prosecution of 16 Father Perrault, that the lawyer had told him that he did not 17 think they had a very strong case in evidence; two, that the 18 statute of limitations would probably interfere on a criminal 19 charge; three, that if he wanted some kind of treatment or --
20 I don't want to use the word punishment -- to Father
21 Perrault, they would have to take it to the Archdiocese of 22 Santa Fe. And I assume that was the reason he came down from

1 Q What could you do about it, Father?

2 A I personally could do nothing about it.

3 Q What could you do about [REDACTED]'s allegations?

4 A I personally couldn't do anything about it. I could

6 attorney.

7 Q You couldn't personally go to the bishop?

8 A Yes, I told him about it.

9 Q You told the archbishop?

10 A I presume so.

11 Q What did you tell him?

12 A I don't recall. Just generally the problems, "These 13 people had allegations of Father Perrault," and he ought to 15 Q What allegations of Father Perrault?

16 A They didn't state. As I said earlier, I have no

7 A Yes, it's a serious matter.

8 Q Would it be correct to say that that's why you went to 12 a delegate, would act as a mouth, as a tape recorder, so to 13 speak, and at the first opportunity, relay to him what 14 occurred or what happened or what was said. And then he, as 15 the responsible authority, it's his conscience to take it

17 Q Do you know if the archbishop investigated the 18 allegations that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] made?

19 A No, I don't know what he did about it.

20 Q Did you ever undertake an investigation?

21 A No. That wasn't my function.

Dear [REDACTED]:

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe is attempting to meet the needs of survivors of clerical sexual abuse. The purpose of this letter is to maintain a sense of personal contact and sensitivity to your needs.

I understand that it is especially difficult to discuss such matters with a priest, but I am a willing listener. In specific cases, counseling is provided by the Archdiocese. I was most delighted to see that you are availing yourself to such a service.

Finally, I don't want to neglect your needs. If I can provide specific information for an interim report about any on-going investigation, I will give you such information. I wish to inform you that Fr. Perrault is still missing and contrary to what others may say, I absolutely do not know where this man is. I personally feel that if I knew where Fr. Perrault was, it would certainly help our situation in the Archdiocese because then we would be able to interview him concerning the facts of these many cases.

I am concerned about your welfare and please feel free to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,

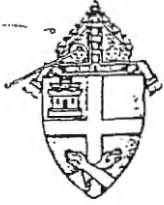

Fr. Ron Wolf

FR. ARTHUR PERRAULT

Dear Bishop Cronin:

I enjoyed our visit during the recent meeting of the National Conference of Bishops, and very much appreciated your expression of support to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe during these difficult times. The purpose of this letter is to provide additional information concerning potential claims arising from the alleged acts of sexual misconduct by Fr. Perrault, who came to New Mexico from the Diocese of Hartford, Connecticut. At this time, the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is aware of nineteen potential claimants:

[REDACTED] has been participating in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe's counseling program, and as of November 12, 1993, the Archdiocese has paid [REDACTED] on his behalf. [REDACTED] continues to receive psychological counseling. While additional investigation is needed, given the nature and duration of the alleged abuse and our experience with other claims of this type, we estimate the settlement value of [REDACTED]'s claim in the range of [REDACTED].

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT TO BE USED BY PROFESSIONAL STAFF ONLY. TO PREVENT UNDUE PSYCHOLOGICAL COMPLICATIONS, THIS REPORT MUST NOT BE SHOWN TO THE PATIENT.

Dear Archbishop:

This concerns Fr. Arthur J. Perrault. I am continuing to see him in psychotherapy approximately once every six weeks to two months.

I am happy indeed to report that he has benefited significantly by psychotherapy in that frustration tolerance and impulse control have improved significantly, even though there was one episode at the end of last year when he shouted at one of the sisters in his office. However, episodes like this have become very rare indeed. In general, he is able to modulate his emotions and the expression thereof much more effectively.

In addition, he has learned more effective ways of resolving emotional conflicts and, as a result, has become much less vulnerable to somatization.

Though interpersonal relations continue to be somewhat superficial, he has also made progress in that area in that he is less apt to shy away from emotional involvement, and has become somewhat less suspicious and dis-trusting of others. More progress can obviously be made in this area, particularly since the self-concept plays such a crucial role in this regard. In that connection, it is noted that he continues to feel (as he has since grade school days) that he is "on trial" and is at risk of "being thrown out of the ball park" at any time. He attempts to compensate for this existential uncertainty by working very hard and attempting to attain
"good marks."

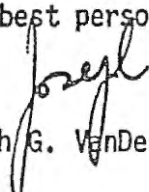

In a word, he is quite uncertain about his acceptability to and his place in the larger society simply on the basis of being a person created and maintained in life by God. Existentially he believes that he will probably be "kept around" as long as he performs well but is apt to be "sent into the desert" if he does not.

diagnostic evaluations

Given his true loyalty, especially to you, his many talents and hard work, and finally the fact that there has been no indication whatsoever of homosexual activity or even ideation, it is indeed sad that he should continue to feel so unsure about his worth qua person. Anything you can do to build his sense of worth and his importance to you will be most helpful.

In the meantime, I would like to thank you again most sincerely for the opportunity of continuing to work with Fr. Perrault and you. I will continue him on this schedule of visits, unless I hear differently from you.

With best personal wishes and warm regards.

Dear Father Perrault,

May God's Peace and Love be with you!

As you have already been informed the Archdiocesan Personnel Board has unanimously recommended that you be appointed pastor of St. Bernadette Church in Albuquerque. Accordingly, I am pleased to accept their recommendation and herein appoint you as pastor of St. Bernadette effective May 1, 1985.

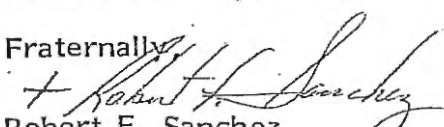

As you know, this will be a very challenging assignment to you, both because of the size of the parish, as well as its diverse composition. I would ask you to call a meeting of your staff (priests, religious, deacons, lay leaders) in the near future so as to receive from them their advice and guidance in establishing a proper procedure in ministering to these fine people. I would also ask you to meet with Mr. Tony Salgado in the Archdiocesan Offices so as to familiarize yourself with the financial situation of the parish. I would also ask that the sacramental books be properly signed, indicating the transfer of pastoral responsibility from Monsignor Stadtmueller (pro tem administrator) to yourself. A formal installation with the priests of the Deanery in attendance can be planned in the near future.

I would also like to meet with you personally in the near future so that I might have an opportunity to share with you my own thoughts and reflections on St. Bernadette Parish and offer to you some advice.

Before closing, I want to extend to you my sincerest appreciation for the splendid leadership which you have offered to the various programs and offices at our Centro Pastoral. As you know, Father Jack Oster, S.J. will be replacing you in that position. I am expecting that you will continue to edit the Archdiocesan Catholic Newspaper, "People of God." I would like to discuss these details with you when we are able to get together.

In closing, thank you once again for having accepted this major responsibility for our Archdiocese. Wishing you the Lord's blessings in your future life and ministry, I am,

Fraternally,

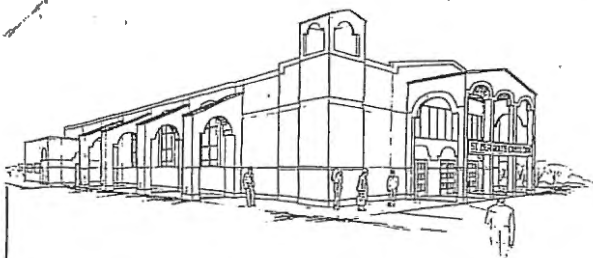

Robert F. Sanchez

ST. BERNADETTE
CATHOLIC CHURCH

29 April 1988

Dear Archbishop:

I am writing to you again because the situation with Ray Bouffard has changed dramatically since my last letter. I think that a little background is important. When I first became pastor, Ray made it very clear that pastors can come and go, but he has lived in the parish for years, and he intended to stay! I think it is safe to say that I have been pretty intimidated by him; he has a very strong personality. I also have respected his age. For three years at Deanery meetings and "Monday Club", he has frequently alleged that my priorities are the newspaper, the Air Force, and if time is left over, the parish. He indicates that he carries the load. I have kept my mouth shut, because I felt that it should be obvious to people the amount of work I do.

Two weeks ago on Saturday, shortly after Ray was appointed to the Budget Committee of the Archdiocese, he asked me how much Las Cruces is subsidizing Santa Fe for the time I spend doing their newspaper. That really pulled my cork! I informed him that I spend only an hour and a half a month, and that should be no concern of his. I also informed him that I have not appreciated the above comments which he has been making. The following Wednesday was the day he told me that he had asked you for another assignment. It was at this time that I wrote the first letter to you. During the conversation with Ray, he told me that he would accomplish the weddings he has scheduled for himself. Thursday, the next day, however, he informed the receptionist that May 1st. would be his last day, and he would no longer take any telephone calls. On Saturday he cleared out his office. He did not show up for Sunday Mass or Baptisms. On Monday, I had two funerals and Ray simply sat in the office.

ST. BERNADETTE CATHOLIC CHURCH

I have treated Ray very well. In fact, the main fault in all of this, is that I have allowed him to walk all over me. He never asked regarding time off or vacations; he just informed me when he would be gone. Most days, he spent three hours, four the most, on the job. I never complained. In fact, he was given the same salary as myself, and I split all the stipends down the middle. Deacons Blea and Martinez have had a rather difficult time in that Ray did not allow them to take any weddings; people were told that they did not do marriages.

This week I have found out something which still has me stunned. Tom Urioste, our custodian told me that whenever there was a new member added to the staff, Ray pointed to my office and said: "You know he's a queer"! This is totally reprehensible. Thank God, I was unaware of this for three years. He told me that the Janitor he fired when I was on vacation was let go because he failed to obey him. Tom informed me that Ray told the staff he was fired because he was a queer. I had never heard this version. Ray has some kind of an obsession in this area.

I cannot allow to have this white washed, or have holy water sprinkled upon our relationship. In all justice, Ray simply cannot be allowed to return as associate pastor. He is a negative influence upon the parish and certainly destructive towards me. The greatest sadness is that after ten years, no one is disappointed by his absence. His negative attitude about everyone and everything, plus his gruff manner in dealing with people has caused him to stand out in a very detrimental way in an alive Christian community.

I'm typing this myself because I don't want any more people involved than is absolutely necessary. It is most painful to put this in writing.

Respectfully,

Art

DEAR SIR,

I AM WRITING THIS LETTER TO EXPRESS
SERIOUS CONCERN IN REGARD TO FATHER
ARTHUR PERRAULT, PASTOR AT SAINT
BERNADETTES CATHOLIC CHURCH AND COLLEGE
IN THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE STATIONED AT KIRTLAND AIR FORCE BASE IN ALBUQUERQUE,
NEW MEXICO. FOR YEARS FATHER PERRAULT HAS BEEN FRIENDS WITH MY GRANDPARENTS [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] OF ALBUQUERQUE AND HAS BEEN CONSIDERED "FAMILY" BY ALL EXCEPT
MY GRANDPARENTS GRAND SONS. ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS AT FAMILY GATHERINGS FATHER
PERRAULT HAS MADE EXTREME SEXUAL ADVANCES
TOWARD MYSELF AND ALL OF MY MALE
COUSINS. THIS IS A SITUATION WHERE ALMOST EVERYONE KNOWS ABOUT FATHER PERRAULTS
ADVANCES, BUT NO ONE TALKS ABOUT IT. I REFUSE TO BE QUIET ANY LONGER AND WANT TO EXPRESS MY ABSOLUTE DISGUST, ANGER, AND PITY!
WHAT ANGERS ME EVEN MORE THAN HIS ADVANCES TOWARD ME IS THE THOUGHT THAT HE COULD VERY POSSIBLY HAVE GOTTEN EVEN FURTHER & WITH SOME OTHER TRUSTING CHILD!! AS A MAN OF
GOD I FEEL FATHER PERRAULT SHOULD BE ABOVE
THE TYPICAL GARBAGE THAT GETS STICK, SEXUAL KICKS FROM CHILDREN, HOWEVER I KNOW FOR A
FACT THAT HE IS NOT. I UNDERSTAND THAT THESE ARE SERIOUS ACCUSATIONS AND BELIEVE ME
WHEN I SAY I KNOW THE SERIOUSNESS OF THIS LETTER.

WE LOOK TO OUR CHURCH FOR A SENSE OF BELONGING AND FAITH AND IN OUR PRIEST A SENSE OF STRENGTH AND GUIDING. I SEE THIS MAN PREACH THE WORD OF GOD AND FEEL SICK INSIDE, THE THOUGHT THAT THIS "MAN OF GOD" CAN CONTINUE TO LIVE A LIFE AND PREACH THE "WORD" TO GOOD, HONEST, LOVING PEOPLE SEEMS TO ME TO BE TOTALLY OUTRAGEOUS, AND ABSOLUTELY UNACCEPTABLE! MAYBE SOMEONE SHOULD CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MAN'S LIFE, IN AND OUT OF CHURCH. ALTHOUGH FATHER PERRAULT IS A POWERFUL MAN IN MY COMMUNITY I REFUSE ANY LONGER TO SIT QUIETLY BY WHILE HE TAKES TOTAL ADVANTAGE OF GOOD, RESPECTABLE PEOPLE. IN CLOSING I WOULD LIKE TO SAY THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME, UNDERSTANDING AND ANY EFFORT YOU MAY MAKE TO HELP.

SINCERELY,

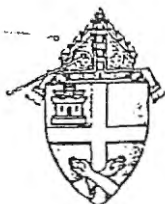

I met w/ Fr. Perrault on June 9th and confronted him w/ this letter. He informed me that the boys had given him a similar letter in april + he had called their parents, their other brother and their grandparents. He has also advised the police. He denies these allegations. He had also spoken w/ his therapist about it. + LSS.

WHEREAS, [REDACTED] claims are disputed by the Archdiocese, and the Parties desire to terminate and settle any and all Claims arising from the allegations, as defined hereinbelow;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, conditions and mutual promises contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Definitions

1.01 As used herein, [REDACTED] shall include:

A. [REDACTED] personally and individually, and his heirs, successors, assigns, spouse, family or anyone claiming through them or by virtue of an intimate relationship with [REDACTED] affiliated business entities, trustees, partners, insurers, guarantors, creditors, employees, agents, attorneys, and other representatives, executors, administrators, personal representatives,

1 church, have you attended other denominations,
2 churches from other denominations, since that time?

3 A. Only Lutheran for my wedding.

4 Q. Is your wife, [REDACTED], still a practicing
5 Lutheran? Does she still go to services?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did she stop going -- well, prior to your 8 marriage, if you know, did she regularly attend the 9 Lutheran church?

10 A. No.

11 Q. And so, since you've been married, neither 12 one of you are churchgoers?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Do you still have a belief that there's a 15 God?

16 A. No.

17 Q. And at what point in time did you basically 18 lose your faith that there was even a God out there to 19 go to church to worship?

20 A. It spiraled out of control approximately in 21 1992 with Perrault.

22 Q. Okay. When was the -- well, let me ask you
23 first, have you ever drank alcoholic beverages in your 24 life?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. When was the earliest time that you ever
2 consumed alcohol?

3 A. Altar serving with Father Perrault.

4 Q. And how old would you have been at the time?

5 A. Approximately 10, 11.

6 Q. And as far as the alcohol, was it altar wine
7 or some other type of alcoholic beverage?

8 A. It was altar wine.

9 Q. Okay. And that was provided to you by
10 Father Perrault?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. Was there ever a point in time where he
13 provided you with other types of alcoholic beverages?

14 A. Not that I'm aware of.

15 Q. And when he would give you the altar wine, 16 would it -- was it in connection with his abuse of 17 you, or was it, like, in the sacristy after mass, or 18 before mass, or how did that work?

19 A. It was after mass.

20 Q. And I guess that's -- what I'm trying to 21 understand is, did his providing you alcohol have some 22 role in his abuse of you? In other words, would he 23 try to get you drunk or intoxicated on altar wine, and 24 then that would lead to something else?

25 MR. MONAGLE: Object to form. You can

1 answer.

2 A. There was a lot of groping and touching, but,
3 normally after mass is when I would meet up with my
4 mother, which would have been waiting for me outside.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. And the occasions occurred when there were --
7 when one of the deacons was absent.

8 Q. When you say "the occasions," are you
9 talking about with the alcohol, or are you talking
10 about the abuse, or both?

11 A. Both. They kind of stemmed together.

12 Q. Okay. Do you remember who was the -- what's 13 the name of the deacon that you're referring to?

14 A. There was a few of them, but there was 15 Deacon Al.

16 Q. Is Al his first name?

17 A. Oh, yes. Al McClain.

18 Q. Okay. Any other deacons that you can recall
19 from that time period?

20 A. No, not at this time.

21 Q. Okay. And if I'm understanding, then, when 22 Deacon Al was not around is -- on those occasions is 23 when Father Perrault would give you wine, and also 24 when he would commit abuse on you; is that right?

25 A. Correct.

MEMORANDUM

Date: September 14, 1992

To: Archbishop Robert F. Sanchez
Mr. Tony Salgado

From: Fr. Ron Wolf fw

Subject: Salary for Fr. Perrault during sabbatical

1. On September 12, 1992, Archbishop Sanchez, Fr. Wolf and Fr. Perrault met to negotiate Fr. Perrault's salary.
2. Archbishop Sanchez carefully reviewed existing Archdiocese guidelines with Fr. Perrault.
3. Fr. Perrault's social security (half), health insurance and car allowance will be paid by the Archdiocese.
4. In the computation of Fr. Perrault's salary Archbishop Sanchez indicated that Fr. Perrault has given considerable financial assistance to the Archdiocese. He has made great efforts to cooperate in FIA and parish assessments. Fr. Perrault will still be responsible for the newspaper (People of God). To hire some person to edit the paper would cost easily $20,000 - $25,000 per year.
5. Archbishop Sanchez decided that a fair and just salary for Fr. Perrault (that would include editor of the newspaper) would be $18,000 (take home) plus benefits.
6. I have discussed the matter with Mr. Salgado and the money would come from Priest Subsidy and "People of God" funds.
7. Could this matter be immediately approved. Fr. Perrault will need notification.

INVESTIGATION

MONDAY OCTOBER 10TH, 1992 - 1100 HOURS

I received a telephone call from Bruce Pasternack, who is a local attorney. Bruce informed me that he was contacted by [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] wished to file a police report regarding Father Arthur Perrault. Pasternack told me that he is currently representing several individuals who claim to be victims of Father Arthur Perrault's sexual improprieties. Pasternack said that he is concentrating on the civil aspect of the case only and that he would send all victims who wished to file police reports to me. Pasternack told me that [REDACTED] was instructed to come to the main police station at 1400 hours and contact me in order to file a police report.

1400 HOURS

I met with [REDACTED] at the main police station. I wrote an initial report, case number [REDACTED], and obtained a formal statement from [REDACTED]. The statement and report contain the following information:

[REDACTED] said that he first met Father Arthur Perrault at his grandparent's house. [REDACTED] said that he lived with his grandparent's, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], while he attended high school and that it was during his sophomore year in school that Perrault sexually abused him.

Prior to [REDACTED] moving into his grandparent's home, he visited them on a regular basis. [REDACTED] said that Father Perrault was always at his grandparent's home and that he was treated as one of the family.

[REDACTED] recalled that on one particular evening, after he had moved into his grandparent's home, Father Perrault invited him to his home. [REDACTED] stated that Father Perrault was living on Thomas Street at this particular time. [REDACTED] agreed to go to Perrault's home and was driven there by Perrault.

Shortly after they arrived at the home, Perrault invited [REDACTED] to take a hot tub bath with him. [REDACTED] said that the hot tub was set up in the garage at Perrault's house. Prior to entering the hot tub, Perrault told [REDACTED] that he had to remove all of his clothes. Perrault told [REDACTED] that if they didn't remove their clothes the hot tub jets would clog. [REDACTED] and Perrault removed their clothes and entered the hot tub. While sitting in the hot tub, Perrault put his arm around [REDACTED]. Perrault then started to fondle [REDACTED]'s penis. After exiting the hot tub, [REDACTED] and Father Perrault went into the bedroom. [REDACTED] said that Perrault performed fellatio on him while in the bedroom. [REDACTED] said that after Perrault had finished, he gave [REDACTED] fifty dollars and drove him home.

Approximately one week later [REDACTED] went back to Father Perrault's house. [REDACTED] said that Father Perrault showed him pornographic movies on the television. [REDACTED] stated that the movies contained sexual acts involving homosexuals. [REDACTED] smoked a marijuana cigarette while he watched the pornographic movie. After smoking the marijuana cigarette, [REDACTED] and Father Perrault proceeded into the bedroom where Perrault performed fellatio on [REDACTED].

Approximately two weeks later, [REDACTED] visited Father Perrault at his home. [REDACTED] said that on this particular occasion he didn't watch pornography movies or take a hot tub bath. [REDACTED] said they went directly into the bedroom where Perrault again performed fellatio on him. [REDACTED] said that this was the last time he had sexual contact with Father Perrault.

[REDACTED] said that shortly after his last sexual encounter with Perrault, his grandparent's made him move out of their home. [REDACTED] said that his relationship with his grandparent's had deteriorated, so he decided to move to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said that he never discussed these incidents with anyone until he heard that other victims had come forward. [REDACTED] then contacted Bruce Pasternack and was referred to the police to file a report.

For additional details refer to [REDACTED]'s statement.

TUESDAY OCTOBER 13TH, 1992 - 0959 HOURS

Officer Robert Valtierra was dispatched to 3135 Comanche N.E. to meet with [REDACTED]. When Officer Valtierra arrived at this location, [REDACTED] advised him that in 1980 Father Perrault had sexually molested him. Officer Valtierra documented the following information in the police report:

█████ said that Father Perrault was in charge of █████ during these years. █████ recalled that on one afternoon, Father Perrault asked him if he was interested in █████. █████ said that he agreed to assist Father Perrault with the █████. █████ stated that Father Perrault performed all of his █████ work at █████ which was located near Montgomery and Louisiana N.E.. This business is no longer in existence.

█████ started working in the █████ in the summer of 1978. █████ worked on numerous tasks while at the █████. All of his activities were closely monitored by Father Perrault. █████ said that Father Perrault was extremely critical of all the work he did. █████ said that Perrault was very intimidating at work and constantly criticized █████'s work. On one particular day, possibly in July of 1978, █████ was working in the █████. Father Perrault entered the █████ and examined █████'s work. █████ stated that Father Perrault started to fondle his genital area. Perrault then unzipped █████'s pants and removed his penis. Father Perrault then performed fellatio on █████.

Following this incident, █████ left the business and he never returned. █████ said that none of the other employee's at the █████ knew what had happened in the █████.

Later in the evening, Father Perrault called █████ at his home. Father Perrault asked █████ to come to his home, so they could discuss the incident that had taken place earlier in the day. █████ said that he went to Father Perrault's home, which was located at the Landmark Apartment complex next to Winrock Shopping Center.

█████ said that he went to Father Perrault's and met with him at his home. █████ said that Perrault was casually dressed when he arrived at the home. Perrault then blamed █████ for what had happened at the █████ earlier in the day. While █████ was sitting on the couch and talking with Father Perrault, he (Perrault) started to fondle █████'s genital area. █████ told Perrault, "You have to stop." At this point, █████ stood up from the couch and exited the home.

█████ said that he had several future contacts with Father Perrault. All of these contacts were either at school or at church. There were no additional sexual contacts.

TUESDAY OCTOBER 20TH, 1992 - 0900 HOURS

I conducted a background check on Father Arthur Perrault. The background check was conducted through the Albuquerque Police Department's Identification Unit and the Albuquerque Police Department's Records Section.

The check through the Identification Unit was negative. The check through the Records Section revealed three past reports filed by Father Perrault. The reports all list Perrault as either the victim or the reporting person. The case numbers are [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. These reports did list Father Perrault's date of birth and social security number. The reports also identify Perrault at two different churches in Albuquerque. Copies of these reports are included with this case for review.

TUESDAY OCTOBER 27TH, 1992 - 1444 HOURS

I obtained a statement from [REDACTED]. The statement contains the following information:

[REDACTED] said that he met Father Perrault in either 1976 or 1977. [REDACTED] said that he was an alter boy at Annunciation Church when he met Father Perrault. [REDACTED] said that Father Perrault was a very intimidating individual and was very strict with the alter boys.

[REDACTED] said that his first "undesirable contact" with Father Perrault occurred at his (Perrault's) home, which [REDACTED] said was located on Thomas N.E.. [REDACTED] said that he rode his bicycle to Father Perrault's residence. When [REDACTED] arrived at Father Perrault's home he was invited in. Dear Father Perrault:

May God's Peace and Love be with you!

There are no words to describe my distress over the allegations of sexual misconduct in our Archdiocese. The pain inflicted upon victims, families, and clerics greatly affects me.

Given the allegations that presently exist, your faculties are hereby suspended until further notice. However, you may celebrate the Eucharist privately with no parishioners present. Hence, you may not exercise your ministry in parishes or in other ministerial situations. If for any reason your ministry is required in another context, you may seek specific permission from my office.

I am aware that this restriction may be difficult for you to accept. I have a pastoral and canonical concern for your welfare. You know that I stand ready to assist you in any way possible. However, I do have a mandate to safeguard the common good of the Archdiocese. I must never lose that focus. It is in such a context that this action is taken. Thank you for understanding.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am,

Re: [REDACTED] v. Perrault, et al.

Dear Mr. Pasternack:

This is a response to your letter of October 19, 1992, concerning Father Perrault. We have lost contact with his whereabouts at the present time. His last attorney of record was Nancy Hollander. I do not know if this association continued. This situation was primarily facilitated by you and your partner Mr. Art Geiselman in your alleged arrangement for public trial, conviction and sentencing via the media. Again, this is only alleged by a victim who described your procedure to me. It was after that media blitz that contact with Father Perrault was lost.

I feel sorry that you interpret the law to mean "public exposure" of sexual abuse means public destruction of the person prior to the judicial process.

Sincerely,
