Dear Rev. Oates,

Rev. John Geoghan, a long-time friend and patient of mine, has recently terminated his ministry at St. Brendan's Parish, due to a rather unfortunate traumatic experience. Following a brief, but beneficial, respite from his duties, Father Geoghan has adjusted remarkably well.

In my opinion, he is now able to resume full Pastoral activities, without any need for specific restrictions.

Respectfully yours,
Robert W. Mullins, M.D.
