

Official

Second Annual Archdiocesan Development Fund

The Reverend Pastors are requested to send immediately to The Chancery the report requested on the Second Annual Archdiocesan Development Fund campaign.

Appointment

The following appointment has been approved by the Most Reverend Archbishop:
The Reverend Richard Stohr, Archdiocesan Moderator of the Christian Family Movement.

Clergy Retreat

The annual retreat for the clergy will open Monday, June 8, 1964 at St. Thomas Seminary, Kenmore. The Reverend Pastors will announce to their parishioners where priests may be obtained for sick calls during the retreat.

Episcopal Functions And Appointments

All requests for episcopal functions and appointments, that is, confirmation, dedications, jubilees, etc., in churches, institutions and for lay organizations during the period JULY-DECEMBER, 1964, should be made in writing to The Chancery, 907 Terry Avenue, Seattle 98104, before July 1, 1964.

THE CHANCERY

By Order of the Most Reverend Archbishop
June 5, 1964

Fr. Halpine Keynotes For Northwest CFM Meeting In Richland

RICHLAND—"The Christian Layman: Seeker of Justice" will be the inspiring title of Rev. James F. Halpine's Keynote Address at the Northwest Area CFM Convention here June 20 and 21. Father Halpine, Assistant National Chaplain of the Christian Family

Movement, from Chicago will be the featured speaker for the 300 husbands, wives, chaplains and others expected at the convention.

Father Halpine, a native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and priest of the Oklahoma City-Tulsa Diocese, is a former seminarian instructor and pastor, and was diocesan chaplain for the specialized movements CFM, Young Christian Worker and Young Christian Students.

In September 1963 he was appointed to his present post by Bishop Victor J. Reed of Oklahoma City-Tulsa and Albert Cardinal Meyer of Chicago.

The Richland Convention program of seminars, workshops and panels will have major emphasis on the discussion of Race and Politics. In the subject area of Race there will be

Other subjects of discussion during the convention include: CFM and Political Action, Family Life, Labor Relations, Church Liturgy, Social Welfare, Marriage Counseling, etc.—all of interest to Christian couples and effecting them and their family life.

A full program of worship, including a congregation sung Mass and a full dialogue Mass, vespers and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be celebrated. The hospitality events include a tour of the Hanford Atomic Energy Project, an Entertainment Night at the Desert Inn Hotel, a visit to the Richland Atomic Museum, and various other events.

The Rev. Richard Stohr,

Four Jesuits Plan Jubilee Rites; Six Others to be Ordained June 13

Jubilarians Ordinandi

Four Seattle University Jesuits will celebrate the 25th anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood Sunday, June 14. They are the Revs. Gerard M. Evoy, vice president for university relations; Engelbert M. Axer, associate professor of philosophy; Vincent M. Conway, university librarian, and William M. Weller, assistant professor of philosophy.

There will be a reception for the four jubilarians Sunday, June 14, from 2 to 4 p.m. in Bellarmine Hall, Seattle University campus. Father Evoy will offer a solemn Mass at Our Lady of Mt. Virgin Church at 11 a.m., Saturday, June 13, for all four priests. Father Axer will serve as deacon and Father Weller as sub-deacon.

Fathers Conway, Evoy, and Weller were ordained at the same time at Santa Clara, California, by the late Archbishop John Mitty of San Francisco. Father Axer, a native of Germany, who entered the Society of Jesus in Holland, was ordained at St. Mary's, Kansas.

Father Evoy attended Seattle Prep and has two brothers who are Seattle-area physicians and another who is also a Jesuit priest. He served as pastor of Mt. Virgin Parish for seven years and taught at Seattle Prep. He came to Seattle University in 1957 from St. Francis Xavier Church in Missoula, Montana.

After his ordination, Father Axer taught at Seattle University, then Seattle College, in the language and philosophy departments. He earned his doctorate in philosophy in 1949 from Georgetown University and taught at Sophia University in Tokyo from 1949 to 1955 when he returned to Seattle. He serves as faculty representative to the Alumni Association.

Father Conway enlisted in the U.S. Army as a private in 1917.

He entered the Society of Jesus in 1928, received a master's degree in history from Loyola University of Chicago in 1936. He has been on the faculty at Seattle University since 1941, and for the past ten years, its librarian.

Father Weller's first assignment as a priest was assistant to the pastor at St. Leo's Parish, Tacoma. He was dean of students at Gonzaga University for five years, and prefect of

Saturday, June 13, six Jesuits who have been intimately connected with the Archdiocese of Seattle will be raised to the dignity of the priesthood.

The Rev. Niels John Andersen, S.J., Rev. Thomas Hurley Greif, S.J., Rev. John Kevin Waters, S.J., and Rev. Arnold Roswell Beezer, S.J., are all former residents of Seattle.

The Rev. Roger Elton Blanchette, S.J., is a former resident of Tacoma, and Rev. John Selmer Nelson, S.J., spent three years as a teacher at Seattle Prep. All will receive the holy oils of ordination from the Most Rev. Bernard J. Topel, Bishop of Spokane, at St. Aloysius Church in Spokane. They will be among the 13 members of the Society of Jesus in the Oregon Province who will be ordained this year.

Father Andersen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Niels J. Andersen of Seattle, was born and raised in St. Joseph Parish. After graduating from St. Joseph Grade School, he attended Seattle Preparatory High School where, in his senior year, he was elected student body president.

Father went to Gonzaga University for one year and then, in 1951, entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Sheridan, Ore. After four years of study at Sheridan, and three years at Mount St. Michael's in Spokane, Father Andersen joined the faculty of Bellarmine High School in Tacoma.

While at Bellarmine, Father taught Latin, English, history, and religion and in his spare time directed the drama productions and helped coach athletics. In 1961 Father went to Alma College, Los Gatos, Calif., to study sacred theology. After ordination he will return to Alma for a final year of theology.

Father Andersen will celebrate his first solemn Mass at St. Joseph Church in Seattle June 21 at 11:45 a.m.

Father Greif is another St. Joseph's boy who will realize his life-long ambition to become a priest this month. After graduating from St. Joseph Grade School and Seattle Prep, he joined the Society of Jesus in 1951. In 1958 Father Greif spent three years at Loyola High School, Missoula, Mont., as a teacher.

REV. NIELS ANDERSEN, S.J.

REV. THOMAS GREIF, S.J.

After ordination, Father Greif will return to St. Joseph's to celebrate his first solemn Mass June 20.

Father Waters is a former member of St. Thomas Parish in Riverton Heights. He started his grammar school education under the Holy Names Sisters at Sacred Heart and completed it at Showalter Grade School.

Father attended O'Dea High School for one year, Seattle Prep for three years, and in 1951 entered the novitiate.

After completing his first seven years of study for the priesthood, he taught at Marquette High in Yakima and Gonzaga Prep in Spokane. For the past three years he has been at Alma College pursuing the study of theology and composing music for the vernacular liturgy in his spare time.

Father Waters will celebrate his first solemn Mass

REV. ARNOLD BEEZER, S.J.

REV. JOHN NELSON, S.J.

on the Seattle University campus at Marycrest Hall from 2:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Father Beezer is the third former member of St. Joseph Parish who will become a Jesuit priest this year. After graduating from Seattle Prep in 1951, he entered the Society of Jesus at Sheridan. From 1958 to 1960 he taught chemistry, algebra, and religion at Jesuit High in Portland and from 1960 to 1961 he taught the same subjects at Gonzaga Prep in Spokane.

For the past five summers Father has been studying science at Seattle University and the University of Detroit to better prepare himself as a teacher.

Father Beezer will celebrate his first solemn Mass at St. Joseph Church in Seattle June 28 at 11:45 a.m. On the same day, a reception will be held in his honor at the Society of Jesus from Holy Rosary Parish in Tacoma. Born in Aberdeen, South Dakota, Father attended grammar school at Sacred Heart in Aberdeen, Our Lady Star of the Sea in Bremerton, Washington, and St. Leo's in Tacoma. He graduated from Bellarmine High School in Tacoma in 1951 and then went to Sheridan.

REV. ROGER BLANCHETTE S.J.

REV. JOHN WATERS, S.J.

Father divided his three years of teaching between Jesuit High in Portland and Gonzaga Prep in Spokane. His main academic interest is sociology and he is doing graduate work in that field.

Father Blanchette will return to Tacoma for his first solemn Mass.

Father Nelson, a native of

Paulists Elect New Superior General

NEW YORK (NC)—The Rev. John F. Fitzgerald, C.S.P., is the 12th superior general in the 106-year history of the Paulist Fathers.

The Boston-born priest who for the last six years has been pastor of St. Paul the Apostle parish in Los Angeles was elected June 1 to the Paulists' top office at the triennial general chapter of the congregation here.

Father Fitzgerald succeeds Father William A. Micholl, C.S.P., who has been the superior general since 1952. Father Fitzgerald was elected for a six-year term.

An alumnus of Boston College, Father Fitzgerald was ordained in Rome in 1933. He made his studies for the priesthood at St. Paul's College and the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., and Gregorian University in Rome. He formerly was director of the Newman Club at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles.

Father Fitzgerald has four sisters who are Sisters of Charity serving in Halifax, N.S.

Billy Graham Backs Bishop

SAN DIEGO (NC) — Baptist evangelist Billy Graham said here he completely supports Bishop Fulton J. Sheen's criticism of the U.S. Supreme Court's rulings against prayer and Bible reading in public schools.

Graham made the statement at a news conference. Auxiliary Bishop Sheen of New York appeared recently before the House Judiciary Committee.

Graham pictured school prayers as a very important part of U.S. life. He said that if the Bible is kept out of classrooms, children would begin to believe that it has been disproved and rejected.

Catholic Editor Dies at CPA Meet

PITTSBURGH (NC) — Peter F. Clarke, former managing editor of two U.S. Catholic publications, was found dead in his hotel room here (June 1). He attended the sessions of the 54th national convention of the Catholic Press Association.

Clarke, 44, was believed to have died of natural causes.

The Richland Convention program of seminars, workshops and panels will have major emphasis on the discussion of Race and Politics. In the subject area of Race there will be four seminars, four workshops and two panels discussing Hiring of Minorities, Teaching of Catholic Church on Integration, How Far Do We Integrate? Getting to Know Minority Groups, etc. A featured film-side presentation "Because It's Light" describing the Portland CFM contribution to the March on Washington in August, 1963 will complete this topic area.

Richland Atomic Energy Project, an Entertainment Night at the Desert Inn Hotel, a visit to the Richland Atomic Museum, and various other events.

The Rev. Richard Stohr, moderator for the Diocese of Seattle, will attend.

CFM groups are organized in the Archdioceses of Portland, Seattle, and Vancouver, and in the Diocese of Baker, Boise, Great Falls, Helena, Juneau, Spokane, Victoria, B.C. and Yakima. Approximately 1100 couples and 80 priest-chaplains are active in CFM in the Northwest Area.

Negro Principal Has High Hopes For School

(Continued From Page 1)

inary of the Divine Word Fathers in Bay St. Louis, Miss., in 1936. He did his college work at St. Mary's Seminary, Techy, Ill., and returned to Bay St. Louis to be ordained in 1950. Father Francis received his MA from Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

The priest's father is a barber in Lafayette.

Owens No Car

"To this day, dad has never owned a car. Instead, he has spent what spare money he had making sure his children made it through college."

Father Francis' brother is an attorney and dean of Xavier University in New Orleans. He has a sister who is a teacher and two other sisters went through school but are now housewives.

Of the 140 Negro priests in this country, Father Francis said 30 are members of his order and 20 others had some of their training at the Mississippi seminary.

He said there has been a big increase in interest to study for the priesthood by young Negro boys in recent years.

"It is really quite incredible that in 1950 I was the 35th Negro to be ordained in this country but today there are 140 of us," he observed.

Of the roughly 20 million Negroes in the United States, 300,000 are members of the Catholic faith.—Charles Hillinger, Los Angeles Times.

Lay Retreat Schedule

The Palisades
(Men's Retreat House)

Visitation Retreat
(Women's Retreat House)

June 12-14

Chancellor Club, Seattle
St. Joseph, Seattle
(Supplemental)
Sacred Heart, Lacey
Sacred Heart, La Conner
St. Joseph, Lynden
St. Mary, Monroe
Cardinal Club, Tacoma
Our Lady of Lourdes,
Wilkeson

Holy Family, Auburn
St. Joseph, Tacoma

June 19-21

Assumption, Seattle
(Supplemental)
Holy Rosary, Seattle
(Supplemental)
Assumption, Bellingham
Sacred Heart, McKenna
Immaculate Conception,
Raymond
St. Peter, Suquamish

St. Mary, Anacortes
St. Monica, Mercer Island
St. Anthony, Renton

Father Weller's first assignment as a priest was assistant to the pastor at St. Leo's Parish, Tacoma. He was dean of students at Gonzaga University for five years, and prefect of studies for the Oregon Province of the Society from 1951 to 1959 when he came to Seattle University.

uating from St. Joseph Grade School and Seattle Prep, he joined the Society of Jesus in 1951. In 1958 Father Greif spent three years at Loyola High School, Missoula, Mont., as a teacher of religion, English, and Latin. While at Loyola, he was also active in athletics, sodality, and drama.

de at Aima College pursuing the study of theology and composing music for the vernacular liturgy in his spare time.

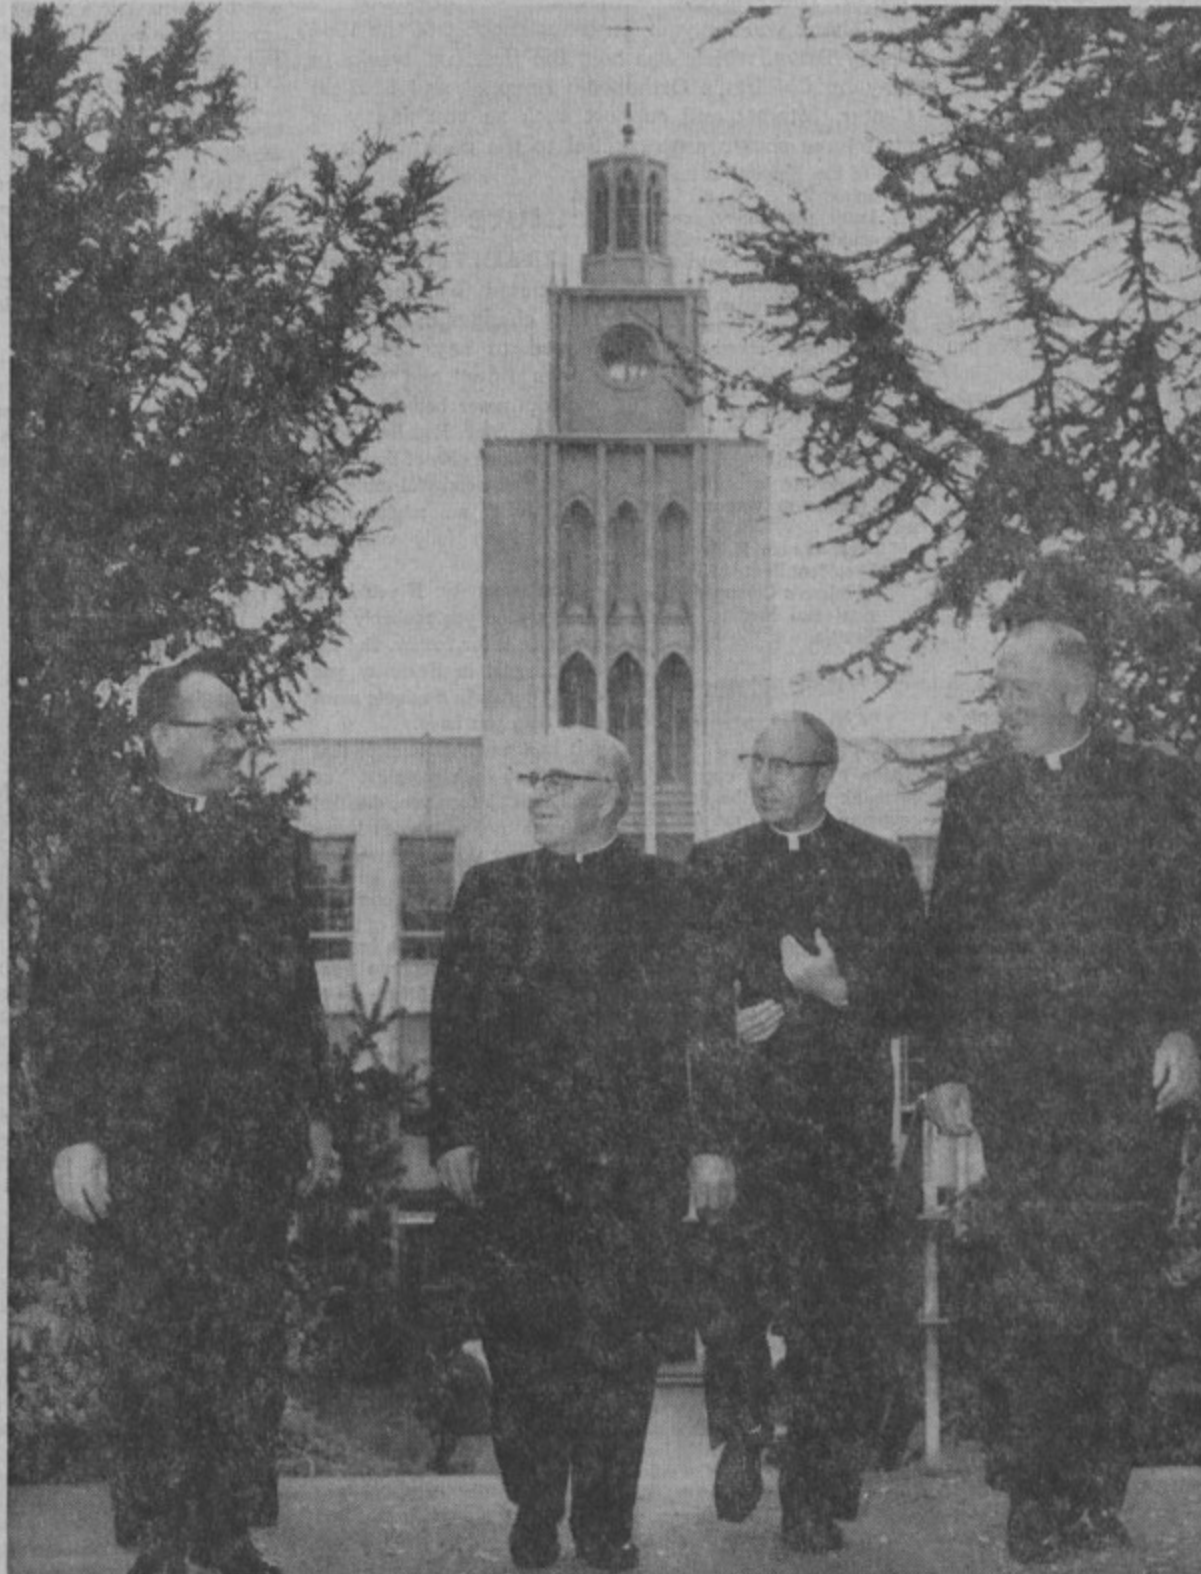

Father Waters will celebrate his first solemn Mass at St. Thomas Church in Riverton Heights at twelve noon June 21. Following the Mass, a reception will be held ate work in that field. Father Beezer will celebrate his first solemn Mass at St. Joseph Church in Seattle June 25 at 11:45 a.m. On the same day, a reception will be held in his honor at the Student Union Building on the Seattle University campus from 3 to 5 p.m. Father Blanchette came to hotel room here (June 1). He attended the sessions of the 54th national convention of the Catholic Press Association.

Clarke, 44, was believed to have died of natural causes. He had a history of a minor heart ailment. Clarke served as managing editor of the St. Joseph Magazine, St. Benedict, Ore., and in July, 1963, became managing editor of the Catholic Messenger in Davenport, Iowa, diocesan newspaper. He resigned this position in February of this year.

He leaves a wife, Betty, and seven children who are living in Davenport.

WITH SEATTLE UNIVERSITY in the background, four of its faculty members are seen above discussing plans for celebrating the silver anniversaries of their ordination.

They are, from left, the Rev. Fathers William M. Weller, S. J.; Vincent M. Conway, S. J.; Engelbert M. Axer, S.J.; and Gerard M. Evoy, S.J. They will observe the event jointly Sunday, June 14.

KIKKOMAN

ALL-PURPOSE SOY SAUCE

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Fish Fancier's Delight

You'll make friends of both fishermen and family with this favorite marinade:

¼ cup Kikkoman soy sauce
½ cup sherry wine 1½ tbs. salad oil
1 tbs. finely chopped green onion

Stir mixture thoroughly and let stand 20 minutes to blend flavors. Marinate whole fish about 1 hour, filet and fish steaks 10 to 15 minutes. Bake, broil, or pan fry as usual.

4%

At Prudential Mutual your savings earn 4% per annum, compounded and paid quarterly. And remember . . . savings deposited at Prudential Mutual by the 10th of the month will earn interest from the 1st.

Prudential Mutual Savings Bank

"At the friendly corner of Third and Spring" • Phone MA 2-3200

Free parking • Free postage both ways on mail deposits

Member F. D. I. C.