

Five decades, hundreds of abused children

A grand jury report describes five decades of sexual misconduct – and hundreds of abused children – by priests in the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese. The abusers, their victims and the presiding bishops at the time of the abuses:

¹Time periods are approximate and only indicate which decade an offense or offenses occurred.

²Question marks indicate an indeterminate number of victims.