AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to extending the statute of limitations for certain child sexual abuse cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 214-q of the civil practice law and rules, as added 2 by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: § 214-g. Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, 10 or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 11 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, 13 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law 14 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 15 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 16 17 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this 18 19 section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or 20 the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of 21 intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be 22 commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than [ene 23 year] two years and six months after the effective date of this section. 24 In any such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and 25 affirmative defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule 26 or the common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action 27 are of the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the
