

NATIVE OF PALMYRA GIVEN COLLEGE POST

Courier Post, July 29, 1946

Rev. Jerome M. Prisco to Direct Clerics at St. Anthony's, N.Y.

The Rev. Jerome M. Prisco, OFM, a native of Palmyra, has been appointed master of clerics and procurator of St. Anthony's Seraphic College, Catskill, N.Y.

Father Jerome is the former Dominique Prisco, son of Mrs. Carmela Prisco, 376 Arch street, Palmyra. He was graduated from the Palmyra public schools in 1928, and entered a seminary in 1933. Ordained on June 7, 1942, he celebrated his first Mass at Sacred Heart Church, River-ton, a week later.

He was named to his new post at a recent provincial chapter of the Franciscan Superiors of the Province of the Immaculate Con-ception, at Mt. Alverna Monas-tery, Wappingers Falls, N.Y.

Father Jerome has served as assistant pastor of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, East Boston, and at Our Lady of Pity Church, Bronx, N.Y. He studied philoso-phy and received his college edu-cation at St. Anthony's, where his new appointment returns him in an administrative capacity in addition to teacher of ecclesiasti-cal chant, art and science.

Father Jerome assumed his duties at the college July 19. His appointed is for three years. He succeeded the Rev. Paschall J. De Canio, of New York City, named to the provincial commis-sary in Honduras.
