

St. Jerome's Boy Scouts Plan Breakfast, Investiture

The annual Communion-Breakfast of the Scout family of St. Jerome's Church, Brooklyn, will be held Sunday, Feb. 2, in the school auditorium following the 9 a.m. Mass. The group consists of Cub Pack 666, Troop 666 and Explorer Post 666.

Rev. Theodore Tsiakalos is moderator. They are sponsored by the Holy Name Society of the parish. Al Gibb, chairman of the activities committee, is arranging the breakfast, assisted by the Mothers' Club and committeemen.

On the same day at 5 p.m. an investiture ceremony for the Scouts will be held in St. Jerome's Church. Harry Molony is in charge.