

The Catholic Advocate, Volume 13, Number 35, 28 August 1964

Issue PDF (14.54 MB)

Issue Article

Text

Why may this text contain mistakes?

Correct this text

Fr. Leary Assigned To Development Post

MYSTIC, Conn. — Rev. Edward A. Leary, S.S.E., of Edgewater has been appointed to take charge of the development program of the Society of St. Edmund, it has been announced by Very Rev. Eymard P. Galligan, S.S.E., superior general. Father Leary, ordained in 1953, has been secretary to the superior general for the past two years. He has also taught at St. Michael's College, Wincoski Park, Vt., served as an assistant vocation director and taught at St. Bernard's High School, New London, Conn.

Comments (0)

Please log in to add comments.

EARLY SAILING — Auxiliary Bishop Martin W. Stanton sailed Aug. 13 on the Mauretania for Ireland, where he will spend a short vacation before going to Rome for the third session of the Vatican Council. Seeing him off were, left to right, Joseph Stanton of Jersey City and the latter's daughter, Bernadette, and Judge and Mrs. Thomas J. Stanton of Morristown. The two men are brothers of the Bishop.

Departure Ceremony Set

PASSAIC — A departure ceremony will be held Sept. 13 at Mt. Carmel Church here for Rev. Eugene J. Catanzaro, O.S.F.S., who will leave Sept. 18 for missionary work in Brazil.

Father Catanzaro is a graduate of Pope Pius High School and entered the Congregation of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales in 1946. He completed his theological studies at Catholic University and was ordained in June, 1954, at Washington, D.C.

Father Catanzaro's assignments have been at Salesian High School, Detroit; DeSales High School, Lockport, N.Y.,

Judge Memorial High School, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Salesianum High School, Wilmington, Del.

During the past few summers, Father Catanzaro has been studying for his doctoral degree in political science at Notre Dame, Pennsylvania University and Fordham. He received a special grant for studies at John Carroll University in 1956 and was awarded a fellowship for special studies in journalism at Fordham in 1962.

Father Catanzaro is now studying Portuguese, the language of Brazil, at Columbia University.

Fr. Leary Assigned To Development Post

MYSTIC, Conn. — Rev. Edward A. Leary, S.S.E., of Edgewater has been appointed to take charge of the development program of the Society of St. Edmund, it has been announced by Very Rev. Eymard P. Galligan, S.S.E., superior general.

Father Leary, ordained in 1953, has been secretary to the superior general for the past two years.

He has also taught at St. Michael's College, Wincoski Park, Vt., served as an assistant vocation director and taught at St. Bernard's High School, New London, Conn.

the Franciscan... Conference of endorsement government and foreign private persons home and abroad. The conference at Bellarmine passed a resolution "the United States and its affiliate their efforts social principles enunciated the Holy Father's (Pope XXIII) encyclicals."

Delegates, largely representing many religious orders, heard discussion such varied subjects as private property, labor and wages, and birth control.

One round-table discussion concerned the Church's responsibility in social questions. Rev. Bertrand S. O.F.M., Cap., of Hudson, told the group the laity should be trained in "principles of virtue" to act "in their neighborhoods, in the civic community, in trades and professions, in education, in politics, in race relations, and in motion of peace."

The group, in discussion, said there was hardly any guidance available for laymen from Catholic moralists for

PRINTING HARRY F. MURPHY 78 CLINTON ST., NEWAI Phone: MArket 3-283

