

Assistant named for St. Mary's

Berkshire Eagle, October 3, 1984

The Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, who worked for 12 years in the chancery office of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Springfield, has been appointed assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church.

Sullivan was chancellor for fiscal affairs for the diocese from 1975 to 1981. Previously, he had directed the Catholic Charities Appeal and the first annual Catholic Stewardship Appeal.

A native of Holyoke, he pursued his theological studies at St. Thomas' Seminary, Bloomfield, Conn., and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md. He has done graduate work in business administration at Boston College.

He began his priesthood as assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church, Springfield.

He was pastor of St. Matthew's Church, Indian Orchard, from 1980 to 1984. From January to September of this year he was on sick leave.

The post of assistant has been vacant for some time, although various priests have been in residence at St. Mary's.
