

Window Legislation

Charlotte Observer
October 3, 2021

State	Window	State Name	Year	Details
AL		Alabama
AK		Alaska
AZ	Y	Arizona	2019	Raised the statute of limitations up to age 30 and opened a 19-month window for expired claims against all types of defendants.
AR	Y	Arkansas	2021	Raised the statute of limitations up to age 55 and created a two-year window for expired claims against all types of defendants. The window opens on Feb. 1, 2022.
CA	Y	California	2003	Created a one-year window for claims against private organizations. In 2019 raised the statute of limitations up to age 40 and created a new three-year window for expired claims against all types of defendants.
CO	Y	Colorado	2021	Added a new civil cause of action for sexual misconduct against a minor with no statute of limitations. Also created a three-year window for filing lawsuits alleging sexual misconduct against minors that occurred from 1960 to 2021.
CT		Connecticut
DE	Y	Delaware	2007	Created a two-year window for claims against perpetrators, other individuals, private organizations and government. In 2010 added a two-year window for claims against healthcare providers because the original window did not apply to them.
FL		Florida
GA	Y	Georgia	2015	Created a two-year window for claims against perpetrators only.
HI	Y	Hawaii	2012	Created a two-year window for claims against perpetrators, others and private organizations. In 2014 extended the window for two years, expanding it to include claims against the government. Extended the window two years again in 2018.
ID		Idaho
IL		Illinois
IN		Indiana
IA		Iowa

KS		Kansas
KY	Y	Kentucky	2021	Opened a limited window that revived expired claims for child sex abuse if brought within five years of when the statute of limitations expired, clarified that the 2016 civil statute of limitations extension to age 28, 10 years from discovery or 10 years after conviction of the perpetrator is also applicable to claims against other individuals and entities and applies retroactively. The window opened on March 23, 2021.
LA	Y	Louisiana	2021	Eliminated the civil statute of limitations for child sex abuse lawsuits and opened a three-year window allowing expired claims.
ME	Y	Maine	2021	Opened a permanent window for expired claims against all types of defendants.
MD		Maryland
MA		Massachusetts
MI	Y	Michigan	2018	Created a 90-day window to file lawsuits that applied to victims of Larry Nassar only. Nassar, now a convicted sex offender, was team doctor of the United States women's national gymnastics team.
MN	Y	Minnesota	2013	Created a three-year window for claims against perpetrators, other individuals and private organizations.
MS		Mississippi
MO		Missouri
MT	Y	Montana	2019	Raised the statute of limitations up to age 27 and opened a one-year window for expired claims against perpetrators and entities.
NE		Nebraska
NV	Y	Nevada	2021	Opened a permanent revival window for expired claims against perpetrators and people criminally liable for sexual abuse or exploitation of a minor and promoters, possessors, or viewers of child sexual abuse material. Extended to up to age 38 the ability to file civil claims against other defendants, with treble damages recoverable for participating in or covering up abuse.
NH		New Hampshire

NJ	Y	New Jersey	2019	Raised the statute of limitations up to age 55 and opened a two-year window for expired claims against perpetrators, other individuals, private organizations and government. The window, which applies to child sex abuse victims and those sexually assaulted as adults, closes Nov. 31, 2021.
NM		New Mexico
NY	Y	New York	2019	Created a one-year window for expired claims against perpetrators, other individuals, private organizations and government. In 2020 extended the window by one year, to Aug. 14, 2021.
NC	Y	North Carolina	2019	Created a two-year window for expired civil claims and raised the statute of limitations up to age 28. The lookback window closes Dec. 31, 2021.
ND		North Dakota
OH		Ohio
OK		Oklahoma
OR		Oregon
PA		Pennsylvania
RI		Rhode Island
SC		South Carolina
SD		South Dakota
TN		Tennessee
TX		Texas
UT		Utah
VT	Y	Vermont	2019	Opened a permanent window for expired claims against all types of defendants.
VA		Virginia
WA		Washington
WV		West Virginia
WI		Wisconsin
WY		Wyoming		