

Msgr. Murray

Papal Chamberlain Tuesday

FALLS CITY — The investiture of the Very Rev. Msgr. Jerome E. Murray, superintendent of schools for the Lincoln Diocese, as a papal chamberlain will take place in Sts. Peter and Paul Church here at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Msgr. Jerome E. Murray

Papal chamberlains are officials whose duties lie in and about the pope's apartments. Outside of Rome, it is an honorary appointment made to priests as a reward for merit.

Msgr. Murray lives in Lincoln and has 34 schools under his charge. He is a native of Falls City and Sts. Peter and Paul is his home parish.

Bishop Louis B. Kucera of Lincoln will confer the honor on Msgr. Murray and will offer a solemn pontifical mass.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. G. Mock of Beatrice will be assistant priest. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William A. Murphy of Center and the Rev. Verness Ketter of David City will be assistant deacons; The Rev. Leander Ketter of Dawson, deacon; the Rev. Dr. Rawley Mye of Friend, subdeacon; and Rev. Dr. M. G. DeWitt and the Rev. Dr. R. F. Sheehy of Lincoln, masters of ceremonies.

A banquet for the clergy, honored laity, and out-of-town guests will follow the pontifical mass. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. L. F. Obrist of Falls City will be toastmaster.

Wahoo Jury Says Driver Innocent

WAHOO—A coroner's jury found Oral Constock, 35, of Wahoo, innocent of criminal negligence in a collision which resulted in the death of Floyd Klingensmith, 46, of Elm Creek.

Constock was driving a transport truck which collided with a road construction spreader on which Klingensmith, a flagman, was riding.

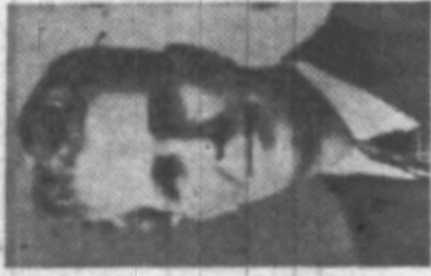

Klingensmith died immediately after being thrown about 40 feet from the point of impact. The accident occurred on Highway 30A, five miles here.
