Fr. Allen was one of the few teachers I was fortunate enough to call a friend. Like so many others I learned so much from him and truly enjoyed his classes at Bona's.

I always used to see Fr. Allen on the bus when I had an internship at Walgreens. He would often ask me what I was up to. And we sat together on the bus. Fr. Allen also gave me a birthday blessing last year that I will never forget. RIP a wonderful priest.

We are so blessed to have had Al share in three of the most important days of our lives: he traveled 400 miles to marry us in 1969 and baptized our two girls when they were born. We know we and many others were always in his prayers , just as he is in our thoughts today and hearts always. With love to you, John, Barbara, and Family. Linda & Jim Di Giulio
