Condit Proves Flowers As Usual In Practical Way

Successfully removing the impression that flowers were permanently scarce due to winter frosts of unusual severity, Monroe Condit, local florist, presented the women of the Times-Delta and the Morning Delta staff with gardenias this morning, and the editorial and business department heads with carnations. As a result the newspaper offices on Acequia street looked as though some sort of a party was in progress, if you judged only by the highly decorated staff.

Condit says that frosts had no lasting effect on the supply of cut flowers, and that the usual varieties at the unusual prices are available for all who want them. Most of these flowers are raised in hot houses, or in fields where frosts are unknown even in the severest winters.

Now if some business men, who feel that there is misunderstanding abroad about shortages in bread, butter, meat, fruit and vegetables, clothes, or money, will stage a practical demonstration such as was engineered by Condit, they will receive a hearty welcome and broad grins at the newspaper offices. Remember the location, 214 West Acequia.

Jaysee Play To Be Given Tonight

Subtle in satire, witty in dialogue and comical in actions will be "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," to be persented in the Visalia high school and junior college auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock by the junior college. Arthur Timothy, dramatics instructor, is the director.

Along with the main attraction there will be two short playlets, "In the Park" and "Medicine Show." The former utilizes a poet, a policeman and a business man in order to present modern problems. Parts are taken by Donald Ewing, Willard Johnson and Stanley Hill.

The other play is a skit of Mississippi river life, in which Dick Huth, Leon Coleman and Stewart Creek have the main parts.

comes from St. Louis, Missouri, has traveled all over the country giving special lectures and conducting mission services, and comes to Visalia with a message of interest to all.

Tonight the Rev. Fr. Darmady will speak on the constitution of practices. Rev. Fr. Geo. Doyle, pastor of the Visalia Catholic church, said, and this gives them an opportunity to learn the truth the Catholic church and will explain clearly why Catholics do not eat meat on Friday. There are a great many God-fearing people who have many false notions concerning Catholic worship and about the Catholic church.

Rev. Fr. Darmady will conduct a processional service Saturday night and will speak on the subject, "Why Catholics Honor the Mother of Christ." The evening services are held each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Instructions are given each morning at the 7 and 8:30 o'clock masses.

The mission services will come to a solemn close on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time Rev. Fr. Darmady will deliver an inspirational message and impart the Pontifical blessing of Pope Pius XI. A cordial invitation to all, both Catholics and non-Catholics, is extended by the Rev. Fr. Doyle, to attend these services.
