

THE REV. F. X. DARMADY,
REDEMPTORIST FATHER, DIES

St. Louis Post-Dispatch March 28, 1955

The Rev. Francis X. Darmady C.S.S.R., business manager of Perpetual Help magazine, published by the Redemptorist Fathers at Liguori, Mo., died yesterday at St. John's Hospital of a cerebral hemorrhage. Father Darmady, 50 years old, was stricken Saturday at his desk.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Alphonse (Rock) Church, Grand boulevard and Finney avenues, and the burial will be the first in the new cemetery at the pioneer community in Liguori.

Father Darmady, born in St. Louis, attended St. Joseph's Preparatory College in Kirkwood and entered the order in 1926, at Mount St. Clement's, DeSoto, Mo. He completed his studies for the priesthood at Immaculate Conception Seminary at Oconomowoc, Wis., and was ordained in June 1931. Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Leo Wever of 4025 Magnolia avenue.
