

Father Dusold, Priest 50 Years, Dies at Oshkosh

MANITOWOC — The Rev. August G. Dusold, 80, a Catholic priest for more than half a century, died Tuesday afternoon at Alexian Brothers Home, Oshkosh, where he had resided since 1951.

The native of Manitowoc was born Nov. 25, 1879, son of the late August and Mathilda Riflinger Dusold, and became the first son of St. Boniface Parish to be ordained a priest.

Serves Green Bay

Following his ordination June 10, 1906, at St. Francis Seminary by the late Bishop Fox, he served as an assistant at St. Francis Cathedral at Green Bay and Holy Cross Church at Kaukauna before his assignment as pastor at St. Mary Church, Glenmore, and the mission at Stark. In 1912, he was transferred to St. James at Cooperstown and given the mission at Denmark.

Subsequently he served as pastor at St. Mary Magdalen at Wau-paca and St. Patrick at Lodi. He retired to Manitowoc in 1947 but continued to serve as a chaplain at Langlade Memorial Hospital. He retired from priestly duties in 1951 and established residence at Alexian Brothers Home.

After his elementary education at St. Boniface School, he attended First Ward High School here and then enrolled at the University of Wisconsin Law School for a year, transferring to St. Francis Seminary at Milwaukee.

New Church

During his pastorate he supervised building of a new church at Glenmore, new church, school and rectory at Cooperstown, completed a new church and rectory at Briggsville and organized a new parish at Denmark. He was the author of a number of short stories and worked for years with youth.

The Rev. Aug. Dusold

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Joseph Degenhardt, and a brother Albert M. Dusold, of this city. A