

Area priest will be feted on anniversary

MOUNT CARMEL — The Rev. Stanislaus Grondziowski, associate pastor of Our Mother of Consolation Church, Mount Carmel, will be honored by the members of the congregation, Sunday, to commemorate 35 years in the priesthood. The festivities will begin with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 3:00 p.m. in Our Mother of Consolation Church followed by a banquet at 5:00 p.m. in Feifer's Hall.

Father Grondziowski was born in Pittsburgh, Oct. 9, 1912, son of Nicholas and Angela Grondziowski. He attended Immaculate Heart of Mary Parochial School in Pittsburgh and in 1928 entered Holy Ghost Apostolic College, the Junior Scholasticate of the Holy Ghost Fathers, in Cornwells Heights, and graduated in 1934.

He entered the Holy Ghost Fathers' Novitiate in 1934 and made his Religious Profession of Vows on Aug. 15, 1935, and immediately thereafter went to St. Mary's Seminary, the Senior Scholasticate of the Holy Ghost Fathers for courses in philosophy and theology. He was ordained to the priesthood

Rev. Stanislaus Grondziowski

Nov. 11, 1940, shortly after the beginning of his fourth year of theology.

He was assigned to Our Mother of Consolation Church, Mount Carmel, Sept. 5, 1941 and has been involved in Scouting and youth work.

On Oct. 15, 1955, he was appointed to his home parish, Immaculate Heart of Mary, in Pittsburgh where he served as pastor until March 15, 1966 when he was reassigned to Our Mother of Consolation in Mount Carmel.
