

Bishop Joyce to Preside

Rev. Roger W. Carlin, Ordination On Jan. 31

The Vermont Catholic Tribune, January 9, 1959

Burlington—On Saturday morning, January 31, at ten o'clock at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception the Most Reverend Robert F. Joyce will raise to the dignity of the priesthood the Reverend Roger W. Carlin. The new priest is presently completing his studies at St. John's Seminary, Brighton, Massachusetts.

Father Carlin was born in Malone, New York on September 14, 1929 the son of Arthur J. Carlin and the late Irva Maneeley Carlin. He received his early education in the public schools of Malone and graduated from Franklin Academy in that city. Further studies were pursued at Wadhams Hall Seminary in Ogdensburg and at St. Michael's College, Winooski Park.

Previous to entering St. John's Seminary Father Carlin taught at Brushton and Moira High Schools in New York. He also was employed as a social worker for Vermont Catholic Charities for a period of three years.

Father Carlin will sing his first Solemn High Mass at St. Joseph Church, Malone, New

Father Carlin

York on February 1 at eleven o'clock. The officers of the Mass will be Right Reverend Msgr. Edgar A. Gallagher, pastor of St. Joseph's, Assistant-Priest; the Reverend John P. Glancy, pastor of Our Lady of Good Hope, Brandon, Vermont, Deacon; the Reverend N. Joseph Pray, assistant at St. Michael's Brattleboro, Vermont, Sub-deacon. The sermon will be preached by the Very Reverend Msgr. Barry E. Fontaine, Chancellor of the Diocese of Burlington.

A reception will be held at St. Joseph's parish hall in Malone from two until five P.M., Sunday, February 1. Solemn Benediction will follow immediately after the reception in St. Joseph's Church.

A New First-Lay Instruction

Chicago — Publication of the instruction on lay participation in the Mass marks of the first time the Holy See has spoken "with such emphasis and such detail" about the external forms of the people's part in the Mass a priest-liturgist told a meeting of Chicago clergy.
