

Rev. Eugene Comiskey

Services were at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. today at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Boyd for the Rev. Eugene A. Comiskey, 64, who served as assistant pastor at St. John's Catholic Church here from June 9, 1949 to Feb. 18, 1954 and also was an instructor at Columbus High School. He died Saturday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Chippewa Falls.

Father Comiskey was born in Tomah and graduated from Tomah High School, St. Nazianz Seminary, St. Nazianz; Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis, Mo.; and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md. He was ordained to the priesthood Dec. 8, 1945 at La Crosse and read his First Solemn High Mass in his home parish church at Tomah several days later.

Following his ordination and prior to coming to Marshfield, he was an assistant pastor at Holy Trinity in La Crosse. He was pastor at Christ the King Catholic Church at Spencer from Feb. 18, 1954 until June 24, 1954, when he was named administrator of St. Joseph's parish at Adams and the missions of St. Anne's at Brooks and St. Methodius at Pilot Knob. He was well known in the Diocese for his work in organizing "The Christian Family Movement."

In 1957 he was appointed pastor of St.

Patrick's Catholic Church at Halder and was celebrant at the Mass in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the dedication of St. Patrick's church building in 1958. He also served Holy Ghost parish in Chippewa Falls and at the time of his death was pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Boyd.

Survivors include a sister, Beatrice Uptmor, Great Falls, Mont.

The Leiser Funeral Home in Cadott was in charge of arrangements.
