

Staff Photo by Robert Stone

Sisters celebrated Golden Jubilee Thursday.

Sisters Digna Voegele, left, Casilda Pudei.

14 Wichita Nuns Celebrate Service

Fourteen nuns of the Sisters Adorers of the Most Precious Blood celebrated anniversaries Thursday at the Provincialate House, 1165 Southwest Blvd.

Two celebrated their 50th anniversary in community service and 12 their 25th anniversaries.

Celebrating golden anniversaries were Sisters Casilda Pudei and Digna Voegele. Both sisters received their bachelor of science degrees in education from St. Mary College, Xavier, Kan., with Sister Digna going on there to acquire a master of science in education in 1956.

THOSE CELEBRATING silver anniversaries in the profession were: Sisters Patricia Kenned, Alice Claire Basgall, Luella Herrman, Therese Stockemer, Joanella Rehmer, Dolores Thimmesch, Virginia Stoecklein, Linus Dinges, Paulette Schiffelbein, Mariyln Stegman, Madeleine

Kisner and Christella Timmermeyer.

The sisters form a group from the Midwest serving in elementary and secondary schools throughout Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Missouri, New Mexico, Colorado and Texas.

The hospitals staffed are St. Mary's, Enid, Okla.; St. Francis, Tulsa, Okla.; St. Francis, Carlsbad, N.M., and St. Luke's Marion, Kan.

NURSING AND domestic work extend to homes for the aged at Villa Maria, Mulvane, Kan.; Villa Madonna, Enid; St. Joseph, David City, Neb., and a health care center at the Provincialate House here.

A mass for the sisters was celebrated at 10 a.m. Thursday, and was presided over by the Most Rev. David M. Maloney, bishop of the Wichita Catholic Diocese. A dinner for relatives and friends of the nuns followed the service.