

Two New Priests Assigned

Two newly ordained Catholic priests have received Valley assignments by James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles.

They are the Rev. Harold F. DeLisle and the Rev. Michael E. Killeen, who began their duties last week as assistant pastors.

Father De Lisle was assigned to St. Genevieve Church of Van Nuys as assistant to the Rev. Michael J. Ryan, pastor.

Father Killeen will assist the Rev. Francis M. Osborne, pastor of Our Lady of Grace Church, White Oak avenue and Ventura boulevard, Encino.

The new priests were ordained in St. Vibiana's Cathedral by Cardinal McIntyre and celebrated their first solemn mass on May 3.

Federation To Present Music Fete

The sixth annual festival of contemporary church music, sponsored by the Department of Worship and the Arts of the Church Federation of Los Angeles, will be held at 4 p.m. tomorrow in the First Methodist Church of Hollywood.

Participating in the choral presentation will be the choirs of St. John's Episcopal Church, James Vail directing, Los Angeles City College Madrigal singers, Dr. Francis X. Baxter directing, First Methodist Church of Hollywood, Dr. Nor-

REV. M. E. KILLEEN
Encino Assistant Pastor

REV. FREDERICK DE LISLE
Assigned To Van Nuys