

Priest faces charges

SAN ANDREAS (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest has surrendered to face charges of committing lewd and lascivious acts with three children.

The Rev. Oliver O'Grady, who has served parishes in Turlock, Hughson and San Andreas, was booked into Calaveras County Jail Thursday in lieu of $50,000 bail.

O'Grady resigned as pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hughson in July 1992 and issued a statement saying he faced allegations of sexual misconduct.
