

REV. W. C. DODGSON

Rev. W. G. Dodgson Is Named Assistant At Catholic Church

The Rev. William C. Dodgson was appointed assistant pastor of the St. Joseph Catholic Church by the Most Rev. Aloysius J. Willinger, bishop of the Monterey-Fresno Diocese. The announcement was made by the Rev. Amancio Rodriguez, pastor.

Father Dodgson is a native of Philadelphia, Pa. He attended the St. Charles Seminary at Overbrook, a suburb of Philadelphia and was ordained in May 1950 at the St. Peter and Paul Cathedral by the late Cardinal Dougherty.

Following his ordination he served as assistant pastor at an Italian Mission church in South Philadelphia for eight years. In February 1958, he transferred to the Monterey-Fresno Diocese and was assigned to the St. John Cathedral and St. Therese's parish until his appointment to Selma. Father Dodgson assumed his duties here April 30.
