

Armstrong receives Mount's Distinguished Alumnus Award

The Rev. James L. Armstrong, assistant pastor at St. Elizabeth's Church in Pittsburgh, was recently selected to receive the seventh annual Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater, Mount St. Mary's Seminary.

Armstrong, a 1977 graduate, received the award at the annual Alumni-Senior Class Dinner April 29, at the Emmitsburg, Md., campus of Mount St. Mary's College.

Assistant principal at his parish's high school, St. Elizabeth's, Armstrong has taken a special interest in athletics for young people.

He serves as a certified high school referee in baseball, basketball, and hockey. He also serves as chaplain for officials in the National Hockey League, according to a seminary spokesman.

He holds a bachelor's degree in education from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh.

Armstrong serves Mount St. Mary's National Alumni Association as a member of the Priests' Homecoming Committee and the Cardinal McCloskey Award selection committee, and as vice president of the college's Pittsburgh Alumni Chapter.
