

BROTHER LUANUS

Brother Luanus, 56,
a Xaverian 37 years

A Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the chapel of the Xaverian Brothers High School, Westwood, for Brother Luanus, 56, C F X (Lawrence G. Meegan). He died unexpectedly Wednesday in Cardinal Cushing Hospital, Brockton.

Brother Luanus was born in Roxbury and graduated from Mission Hill Church grammar and high schools in Roxbury. A member of the Xaverian Brothers for 37 years, he received his bachelor's degree from Loyola College and his masters in education degree from Boston College. He did further graduate study at St. John's University, Brooklyn, and Fordham University in New York.

For the last 11 years he has been associated with St. Joseph Regional High School, Montvale, N.J., as a teacher and assistant principal. Previously he taught in Baltimore, Lawrence, Louisville, and Bangor, Maine.

He is survived by three sisters, Mary Manning of Rockland, Dorothea Brunswick of Dorchester, Margaret Toepfer of South Boston; two brothers, William and George of Quincy.

Burial will be in the Brothers Cemetery at St. John's Preparatory School in Danvers.
