

Rev. Vincent A. Doyle, 59, ex-Waterford church pastor

CAMDEN — A Mass for Rev. Vincent A. Doyle, the former pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Waterford, will be held at St. Joan of Arc Church here at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Rev. Doyle died Sunday at St. Joan of Arc rectory where he had been in residence and ill for the last two years. He was 59.

A Mass of Jesus Christ the High Priest will be celebrated tonight at 8 o'clock at St. Joan of Arc Church.

Rev. Doyle, a native of County Cork, Ireland, was ordained to the priesthood in Carlow, Ireland, in 1949 after completing seminary studies at St. Patrick's Seminary.

A priest for 34 years, he served as assistant pastor at Sacred Heart, Vineland; Holy Name, Camden; St. Edward, Pine Hill; Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Berlin; St. George, Camden;

St. Francis, Barrington; St. Bridget, Glassboro; St. Nicholas, Egg Harbor and St. Anne, Westville.

He was administrator at St. Michael, Cedarville; pastor of Our Lady of the Angels, Cape May Court House, and most recently of St. Anthony's of Waterford before becoming ill in 1981.

A viewing will continue today at St. Joan of Arc Church from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m. when the Mass begins.

Burial will follow tomorrow's services at Calvary Cemetery, Cherry Hill.

Surviving are his four brothers: Kevin of Hillsdale, N.J., Matthew and Gerald, of Liverpool, England, and Christopher of Cork City, Ireland; a sister, Frances Keaney of Glenbrook Adrigole, Bantry, County Cork, Ireland.
