Catholic Women To Hold Day Of Recollection

The Montgomery Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women will sponsor a "Day of Recollection" Wednesday at St. Peter's Catholic Church. The day will open with mass at 10 a.m. and will close at 2:45 p.m.

The Rev. Joseph J. Hill, C. M., pastor of the church of the Holy Family in Lanett, Ala., will be guest speaker. The Rev. Father Hill was ordained a Vincentian Priest in 1943 and appointed to teach at St. John's University High School, Brooklyn, N. Y. After three years of teaching he was assigned to missionary work in China where he spent six years.

ESCAPES LIQUIDATION
He was "liberated" by the Communists, spent three and one-half years under their tyranny and escaped liquidation when expelled in 1953. Reassigned to St. John's, he again taught for three years. In August of this year he started a new field of endeavor as pastor of the Holy Family Church.

All women in the Montgomery Deanery are invited to attend this "Day of Recollection" at St. Peter's Church. St. Anne's Guild will be hostess at the luncheon.
