

EX-CITY PRIEST TO BE HONORED

HADDON HEIGHTS —
The Rt. Rev. Francis A. McCloskey, a priest who began his career as a curate at Holy Spirit Roman Catholic Church, Asbury Park, 50 years ago, will be honored at a Golden Jubilee reception and dinner tomorrow, at Ivystone Inn, Rte. 130, Pennsauken.

Msgr. McCloskey, who is 76, has been pastor for the past 20 years of St. Rose Church, here. He will be honored by state, county and local officials and prominent figures of the sports world. For 45 years he served as a basketball coach and official and many of the youngsters he trained went on to become high school and college stars. He carries the gold card of life membership in the South Jersey Coaches Association.
