Sister Mary Margaret Taught for 43 years

A Mass of Christian burial for Sister Mary Margaret Flood, S.S.N.D., an elementary school teacher for 43 years, will be offered at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Villa Assumpta, the mother house for the School Sisters of Notre Dame, 6401 N. Charles Street in Baltimore.

Sister Mary Margaret, who was 76, died Thursday of heart failure at Villa Assumpta.

Formerly known as Sister Mary Theonilla, Sister Mary Margaret had lived at Villa Assumpta, where she did community service, since 1983.

Sister Mary Margaret taught the first through sixth grades at eight schools, seven of them in Hagerstown, Baltimore, Westminster, Annapolis and Riviera Beach.

Born in Annapolis, Sister Mary Margaret attended St. Mary's School there, a school where she later taught from 1971 to 1974.

She received her bachelor of arts degree in education from the College of Notre Dame in Baltimore in 1971.

She is survived by two nieces, J. C. Hofman Jr. of Sanford, N.C., and Mary Louise Kauffman of Severna Park.
