Doerflinger Wins With New Boat 8033

Chuck Doerflinger picked up his new boat last week and returned to his winning ways in the Sunday A. M. races. In No. 8033, he jumped into the lead at the start and was never headed although Frank Gottschalk was in hot pursuit all the way in No. 5331. One minute separated the two boats in the one hour and 20 minute race.

Bob Henderson finished in third place and Don Weller was fourth. It is hoped that there will be Saturday afternoon races during the month of August as well as Sunday mornings. All boats are invited to join in any of the races according to Frank Gottschalk's Fleet Captain.

ST. ROSE PARISH PLAN FESTIVAL

Monsignor John M. Ball, Pastor of St. Rose Parish, Lima, has announced that the Annual Festival will be held on Saturday, August 12th from 7:00 p. m. on the church grounds. Dr. Leo F. Smith, general chairman, will be assisted by the men and women of the parish. There will be special attractions for the children.

CARS SKID ON SLIPPERY ROAD

Salvatore Lodato, Hornell sustained a possible back injury and was sent to St. James Mercy Hospital at Hornell after treatment by Dr. Robert Yanowitch Conesus Lake Medical Center, following an accident on Rt. 256 about 1 mile south of Lakeville July 23rd. According to Deputy Clayton, Lodato was operating a car south on Rt. 256, when he came upon a car being driven in the opposite direction, passing another car, driven by Janet E. Gobel, Rochester. Both drivers attempted to get out of the way but due to the slippery pavement the Gobel car went into a skid and both collided.

LAKER BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Groveland are occupying the Kelsey Cottage at Wadsworth Cove this week.

Don't operate your boat without an approved life preserver for each person aboard.

Don't throw cans, bottles or other trash overboard. A floating bottle hit at high speed can sink a boat.

Members of the Conesus Lake Association still oppose the boat launching site on the East Lake Rd. Their opinions have been expressed to state officials.

Ways and means of handling the growth of weeds in the lake is being studied. Visits have been made to other lakes in the state checking on the methods used. The weeds are a hindrance to swimmers and a bother to boat operators.

Bela Szilagi, American-born Hungarian pianist, will present a concert at Geneseo State University Tuesday evening, Aug. 1, at 8:00 in Wadsworth Auditorium. Szilagi will play selections by Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin and Prokofieff.

Drag racing will resume at Canandaigua Fair Grounds on Thursday, July 27. Cliff Crandall of Geneseo won the top-eliminator and top-time at the last meet. John Turner of Victor won the little-eliminator.

Vic Kress of Livonia and Walter Sanders are at Camp Smith, Peeksville, where Kress is attending Leadership School and Sanders, Officers Candidate School.

William Welch returned Saturday after two weeks in camp with the U. S. Marines in Virginia.

BORN

A son to Mr. Frederick Laurin of Rochester, Mrs. Laurin is the former Miss Carol Hasler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hasler of Rochester, and niece of Mrs. Richard White of Geneseo.

TWIN HULLED custom craft and a Chris Craft are shown tied up at the dock of J and R Marine Base, East Lake Rd., Conesus Lake. Both of these boats, sold by J and R Marine Base, are in operation on the lake. Another boat is refueling at the end of the dock.

BOAT LAUNCHING site on the East Lake Rd., Conesus Lake. Workmen are shown building the docking facilities. Construction by the State is progressing. Lake residents have expressed their opposition to the project.

Kamp Kontent

The community service camp will be held at Kamp Kontent from Saturday, July 29 through August 8. The Baptist Temple underwrites this for the boys and girls of the settlement Houses of Rochester. Otherwise these young people could never have a camping experience.

CHILD STRUCK BY CAR SENT TO HOSPITAL

Karen Miller 6 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of Rochester was treated at the Lakeville Medical Center Monday afternoon. 40 stitches were needed to close cuts on her forehead and chin. She also suffered a possible concussion and several broken ribs and bones, transferred to Highland Hospital.

Deputy Clayton said the girl walked into the side of the car after passing behind a truck at 490 West Lake Rd. Conesus Lake.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL SATURDAY EVENING AT ST. MARGARETS

The grounds of St. Margarets Chapel at McPherson Point East Lake Rd. will be the setting for the annual festival of St. Joseph's Church of Livonia.

There will be a smorgasbord, games, concessions, prizes and fun for all the family on Saturday, July 29.

In 1890 the reappearance of sensationalism, the rise in prominence of evening papers, and great improvements in the mechanics of newspaper production marked a turning point in the evolution of the American newspapers.
