Pastor Draws on Pupils For His 75-Piece Band

CLEVELAND— (U. P.) — Having taken four violin lessons in his boyhood, the Rev. Protase Kuberek, pastor of St. Stanislaus Catholic church, undertook to teach himself the finer points of music.

Now, at 63, Father Kuberek has mastered all woodwind, brass and string instruments.

Since 1914, he has taught more than 2,000 Greater Clevelanders how to play various instruments.

From this imposing list of students, Father Kuberek recruits members for his 75-piece marching band, which is widely known in Polish circles throughout Ohio.
