

Kossuth County Advance (Algona, Iowa), March 11, 1974

MICHAEL Geilenfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geilenfeld, who has been at the Trappist Monastery in Huntsville, Utah, arrived in Algona March 1 for a visit with his family and friends. Michael, having dedicated himself to a life of selfless service to those in need, will be leaving by plane from Minneapolis March 12, his destination Saigon, Vietnam. Upon arrival there he will enter the order of the Missionary Brothers of Charity and will spend at least a year in that area working with the refugees. His address will be: Michael Geilenfeld, Missionary Brothers of Charity, 102/33 Cong Quynh, Saigon, Vietnam. His parents and many friends wish him well in his chosen life's work.
