

Father Tobin Sings First Solemn Mass

Brother of Newly
Ordained Assists,
Reception Follows

It was brother assisting brother in the first solemn high mass of Rev. Flavian Tobin, Order of Franciscan Missionaries, celebrated at St. Joseph's Church yesterday morning at 11. The newly ordainer priest, the second son of Mrs. Eleanor Tobin and the late William H. Tobin of 92 Seymour Street to enter the priesthood and the Franciscan order, was assisted by his brother, Rev. Bernard Tobin, O.F.M., as assistant priest.

Other officers of the mass were Rev. Mathew Miller, O.F.M., of Boston, deacon, and Rev. Michael Marin, O.F.M., of St. Bonaventure College, subdeacon. The sermon was preached by Rev. Edmund Murphy, O.F.M., of the Franciscan monastery, Washington, D. C., who spoke on the priesthood. He congratulated Mrs. Tobin on giving two sons to the priesthood and a girl to the sisterhood. He said "God Bless St. Joseph's Parish." Rev. Charles L. Foley, pastor of St. Joseph's, also spoke briefly and congratulated Fr. Tobin, an alumnus of St. Joseph's High and welcomed him into the priesthood.

Rev. Eugene F. Marshall, D.D., pastor of St. Mary's and Rev. Patrick F. Dowd, D.D., pastor of Sacred Heart attended within the sanctuary. The priests were robed
