

Spokesman Review, September 9, 1960

Pastor Honored by Congregation

QUINCY, Wash., Sept. 1.—The Rev. James Kovalik, assistant parish pastor of St. Pius X Catholic church for the last year, was honored at a reception given by the church members. Father Kovalik is leaving Quincy to become freshman football coach and teacher at Marquette high school in Yakima. B. F. Bates, president of the Holy Names society, presented Mr. Kovalik a gift from the congregation.