
James E. “Jim” Hagan

James E. “Jim” Hagan passed away on July 20, 2021 at Forest Park Health Center, Carlisle PA, at the age of 89. He was born in New Haven KY. He was a graduate of St Mary’s College (KY) and of St Meinrad Theological School (IN). He was a priest for the Archdiocese of Louisville for 17 years, faithfully serving several parishes in the area during his tenure. His second profession was as a licensed electrician. He was known for his love of family, music, and singing in the choir at Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, Mechanicsburg, Pa. for many years. He was known for being ahead of his time by thinking outside the box. He was preceded in death by his parents Joseph Preston and Lucille Boone Hagan and by his wife of 46 years Martha Pfalzer Hagan. He is survived by brothers Harold (Julia) and Albert (Fritzi); sisters Mary White, Patsy (Charles) Cooper, Peggy (Jim) Sohan, and Cathy (Phil) Fister, and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will take place at 10:00 AM August 9 at Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, Mechanicsburg, Pa. with burial following at Gate of Heaven Cemetery.