Father Paul was the Pastor at St. Andrews when I first met him. He presided over my daughter's first communion. I will never forget his homily. It was perfect. Unfortunately, he was the Pastor when my father was murdered. But not really. He could not have brought more peace to our family at such a horrible time, especially to my mother. He was so kind. He came and check on my mother every day. He gave her comfort. We will be forever grateful for that comfort.
