

AWARD WINNER—The Rev. Victor J. Sepsi, center, assistant pastor of St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church, was presented the Zonta Club of Shreveport's Amelia Earhart Aviation Service Award last night at a banquet in the Skyliner Room of the Howard Johnson Motor Hotel on Monkhouse Drive. Presenting the plaque was Mrs. Elsie Ellis, Zonta service chairman. Father Sepsi was the fourth recipient of the awards

since its inception in 1962. At left is Col. Kelly Womack, chairman of the award committee. The award is given to the person who has made the greatest personal contribution to aviation in the Ark-La-Tex area during the preceding year. The flying priest has personally "sold" aviation to young and old alike by introducing them to flying through flights in his own plane.—(Journal Photo by Bill Causey Jr.)
