

Archdiocesan Pastors Move Up Ranks

The appointments of three pastors and the naming of a co-pastor to be pastor were announced this week by the archdiocesan chancery office.

The Rev. Thomas G. Glasgow, co-pastor of St. Philip the Apostle parish in Gentilly, will assume duties as sole pastor.

The Rev. Ignatius Roppolo, formerly co-pastor at St. Philip, will take over as pastor at Our Lady of Divine Providence parish, Metairie.

The Rev. H. William Reed, who was serving as pastor of Our Lady of Divine Providence, will become pastor of St. Rose of Lima parish.

The Rev. Elmo L. Romagosa, pastor of St. Rose of Lima, will become pastor of St. Clement of Rome parish, Metairie.

Fr. Romagosa will be replacing the Rev. Blaise Vosbein, who is on extended sick leave. All appointments were effective Oct. 2.

Fr. Glasgow had been named co-pastor of St. Philip in January of this year. A native of the West Indies, he was ordained for the archdiocese in 1969. He has served as associate at St. Gabriel the Archangel, Mater Dolorosa and St. Philip parishes. He holds a bachelor of science degree, a master of divinity degree, and a master of social work degree earned at Tulane University.

THOMAS GLASGOW