

Robert Michael Van Handel

April 02, 1947 - June 02, 2020

Our beloved brother, Robert Michael Van Handel, passed away peacefully on June 2, 2020.

He was born April 2, 1947 in Georgetown, British Guiana, though he spent nearly all of his life in California. Robert had a special interest in history, both editing and translating many historical documents.

His great love, though, was classical music, and he himself played several instruments.

He is survived and will be deeply missed by two brothers and two sisters.

A private service will be held.

He molested my son, & several others in the early 80's at St. Anthony's in Santa Barbara. Which has had lasting affects on my son who is now in his late 50's. I loved Robert for a long time & was heart broken to hear about his betrayal when it came to light. I'm sorry, I cannot offer a prayer to honor him. He forsook any honor when he hurt all those young boys years ago.
