

Victor John Sepsi Edit Profile

clinical counseling psychologist

Victor John Sepsi,, American clinical counseling psychologist. Recipient General Aviation Community Service award, Zonta International, 1965.

 Add photo

Arrest Records: 3

Sources

See Phone#, Address, Email, Relatives, Pics, Social Profiles. Instant Results.

checkpeople.com

Open

View map

Background

Sepsi,, Victor John was born on April 15, 1930 in Cleveland. Son of Victor J. and Mary J. (Sopko) Sepsi.

Education

Bachelor, Case Western Reserve University, 1968. Master of Education, Kent State University, 1969. Doctor of Philosophy, Kent State University, 1971.

Career

Clergyman, 1956—1967. With United States Army National Guard, 1957—1967. Staff psychologist Martinsburg, West Virginia, 1971—1976.

Staff psychologist, chief Mental Hygiene Clinic, Veterans Administration Medical Center, from 1976. Instructor West Virginia University Graduate School Extension, Shepherd College, Shepherdstown, West Virginia, from 1975. Consultant Pastoral Counseling Service, Martinsburg, from 1976.

Membership

Member of American Psychological Association, American Association Biofeedback Clinicians, American Association Marriage and Family Therapy, Counselors and Therapists, American Association Sex Educators, American Society Clinical Hypnosis, Association Advancement Psychology, Virginia Psychological Association, West Virginia Psychological Association, Ohio Psychological Association.

Connections

Father: Victor J. Sepsi

Mother: Mary J. (Sopko) Sepsi

Born

April 15, 1930
Cleveland

Died

January 24, 2008 (aged 77)

Nationality

American

Awards

Recipient General Aviation Community Service award, Zonta International,