

Rev. James McLain

Parish priest, teacher

The Rev. James C. "Clyde" McLain, a retired parish priest and Catholic high school teacher and administrator, died Tuesday (Sept. 15, 1998) of emphysema at Willow Creek Nursing Home in Belleville. He was 66.

Father McLain was ordained in 1957. Over the years he served at All Souls Catholic Church in Overland, Our Lady of Providence in Grantwood, Our Lady of Good Counsel in Bellefontaine Neighbors, St. Lucy in Jennings, St. Robert Bellarmine in St. Charles and Christ Prince of Peace in west St. Louis County.

He was an educator at the old DeAndreis High School and at St. Thomas Aquinas and Rosary high schools.

Among the survivors are a brother, Don McLain of Chesterfield; five nieces; and three nephews.

Visitation was Thursday. Archbishop Justin Rigali will celebrate the funeral Mass at 11 a.m. today at Christ Prince of Peace Catholic Church, 415 Weidman Road. Burial will be at Our Lady Queen of Peace Cemetery in Byrnesville. Memorial contributions may be made to the Regina Cleri Home, 7580 Kenrick Road, St. Louis, Mo. 63119.

This obituary is being reprinted because of errors that appeared in Thursday's editions.