Brother Carlos Griego O.P.

Brother Carlos is presently on limited service. He says, "We never retire, we are simply given work that we can do". He is the supervisor or his orders St. Juan Masias Care Center for the old and sick brethren.

He was last stationed in Oaxaca, Mexico for two years, but returned to the United States for treatment for cancer and diabetes. Brother Carlos' wish is to return to his mission station working with the Zapoteko Indians in the mountain area close to Chiapas.
