the clinic will be furnished chiefly by trading stamps. These Sisters are replying to an invitation from Bishop nas R. Manning, O.F.M., of Coroico, Bolivia, formerly ned at St. Bonaventure, Paterson. They will conduct ll-out clinic, do home visiting, give catechetical instruc- and teach.

THE EXTENT of available facilities will depend on the ess of our trading stamp drive. You name it; they'll ably need it, and the price is stamps. We're appealing & H green stamps but would be grateful for any kind," Sister M. Eleanore, S.M.I.C., who is in charge of the ster Eleanor, former superior at St. Walburga's Or- age, Roselle, speaks optimistically of the goal. "I've ved many interesting and encouraging letters. One wom- rom Alabama sent a book of stamps saying she was ng them for a clock but the mission needs them more l." Other letters have come from as far as California, you'd be surprised how many men have sent stamps. appeal isn't limited to stamps, however. One dentist has istributed a set of dental instruments."

MANY PEOPLE wish at one time or another to do some onary work but because of other commitments, they're le to. This is one way people can answer the call as lay les.

If only the people who refuse stamps or don't use them I send them to us, the Sisters could be assured of a few instruments, bandages and linens," she pleads.

he hardest part of the drive, Sister Eleanore points s that "we stand alone since we haven't any alumnae arish. We must rely on the generosity and sacrifices of saving stamps for other purposes."

tamps may be sent to Sister M. Eleanore, S.M.I.C., Im- late Conception Convent, New St., P.O. Box 1858, Pater- N. J. 07509.
