

FAMILY TO GET FIRST BLESSING

Jeziorski Slated for Holy Order
Saturday.

A member of St. Adalbert's Roman Catholic parish will be elevated to priesthood Saturday and will give his first blessing to members of his family and friends at his first high mass to be celebrated in the church at 9 a. m. next Sunday.

Rev. Louis A. Jeziorski, son of Mrs. Harriet Jeziorska, 445 South Olive street, will receive holy orders at the hands of Right Rev. John F. Noll, D. D., bishop of the diocese in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Fort Wayne, Ind., Saturday morning.

Rev. Aloysius P. Jarka, acting pastor of the parish, will be archpriest for the first mass next Sunday. Rev. Carol A. Stelmach, of Mahanoy City, Pa., will be deacon and Rev. John J. Moskal, sub-deacon. Rev. Louis Michalski, of Ege, Ind., will preach the sermon.

The procession which will lead the young Levite from the presbytery to the church will be led by young nieces and nephews of the newly ordained servant of the altar. Theresa Jeziorska will carry the silk pillow with emblems of his state of life, assisted by Dorothy Jeziorska and Theresa Moskwin-ska. John Trojanowski will carry the chalice and sheaves of wheat will be carried in the procession by

REV. LOUIS A. JEZIORSKI.

Florian Moskewski and Raphael Jeziorski.

Among the relatives to receive the first blessing at the close of the mass, in addition to the mother, will be three brothers, Joseph, Walter and Matthew Jeziorski, and six sisters, Mrs. Bernice Brzezinska, Mrs. Theodosia Trojanowska, Miss Angela Jeziorska, Miss Joan Jeziorska, Mrs. Jolanta Gilon and Mrs. Casimir Kolesiak, all of South Bend.

A banquet in honor of the new priest will take place at 5:30 p. m. next Sunday in St. Adalbert's parish hall with 400 invited guests attending. Rev. Joseph Zielinski, assistant pastor of St. Adalbert's church, will be toastmaster. Among principal speakers will be Father Stelmach, Father Jarka and Rev. Ladislaus Krause, of Otterbein, Ind.

Father Jeziorski was born in South Bend and received his elementary education in St. Adalbert's parish school. He received his classical education in the Polish seminary at Orchard Lake, Mich., and finished his theological studies at St. Meinrad's seminary, St. Meinrad, Ind.
