

Fr. Murphy Celebrates 1st Solemn Mass in St. Marys

St. Marys, Kans.—The Rev. Edward P. Murphy, S.J., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy, 623 N. 40th street, Omaha, was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. Paul C. Schulte, D.D., Bishop of Leavenworth, in Immaculate chapel, St. Mary's college, St. Marys, Kans. He offered his first Solemn Mass June 21 in St. Cecilia's Cathedral at 10 a.m.

He is a brother of Paul J. Murphy, a practicing attorney in Great Falls. Another brother, John J. Murphy, Jr., was a long time resident of Great Falls, and is now a resident of Spokane, Wash. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J.

Murphy, Sr., also resided in Great Falls in 1929 and 1930.

Father Murphy was born in Hastings, Nebr., July 5, 1908. He attended St. Cecilia's, Omaha, grammar school and Creighton Prep high. Father Murphy also attended Creighton university.

He entered the Society of Jesus in Florissant, Mo., Sept. 1, 1929. Since then he has pursued the regular Jesuit course of study, taking his philosophy in St. Louis university and his theology in St. Mary's. He taught for three years in Rockhurst high school, Kansas City, Mo.

Rev. Edward P. Murphy, S.J.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Edward J. Hunkeler was assistant priest and the Rev. Paul L. Gregg, S.J., delivered the sermon for his Solemn Mass.

A reception in honor of Father Murphy was given in the home of his parents.